GOOD CORNER.

Lots of snow yet.
Mrs. Harvey Lunt of Bridgewater spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Good.
Mrs. J. I. Harold visited friends in Knoxford last Saturday and Sunday.

Roy and Herb Good spent last week with friends in Jacksonville. We are grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Enoch Burpee, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burpee of Jacksonville. Our sympathy is extended to the sorrowing parents and family.

Mrs. Peissier Good has been ill the past week.

F. B. Meagher inspected our school March 27th.

Mrs. Guy Carmichael is improving at this writing.

Colds and lame backs are prevalent, but your correspondent is blessed with a healthy body, a sound mind, and a clear conscience.

One day last week I helped a neighbor to thresh; the crew consisted of seven men and a boy, the latter being myself. We worked until twelve o'clock, when we stopped for dinner; the men had all washed except the boy who was last but not least as far as an appetite was concerned. The fragrance of an appetizing meal floated through the house, and the farmer's wife and daughters flitted hither and thither setting on such a meal as a man gets in a farmhouse but nowhere else on earth, when a rap came to the door. "Come in!" called the farmer, with a command in his voice that only N. B. farmers possess. The door still remained closed, however. "Open the door gal," said the farmer to his oldest daughter, a handsome young lady of about eighteen years. "I'm so hungry, I can't tell the truth." A young man entered on a cordial invitation from the young lady, but declined to be seated. "Come up and have dinner," said the farmer, who by this time had taken a seat at the head of the table, and was dealing out beef-steak with the air of a man who is headquarters for headquarters. "I'm afraid pa don't want me to stop long," replied the bashful youth, looking down at the floor and chewing the thumb of his mitten. "We have upset a load of pressed hay out here and pa wants someone to come and help him to tip it back."

"Tell your pa to put his horses in the barn and feed them, said the beef dispenser," and when I get my dinner, my men and I will fix him right-side-up." "But pa can't come," protested the youth, seemingly more embarrassed. "Confound your pa," returned the farmer, getting angry, "tell him to come in and have some dinner too—where is he?" "He's under the load," replied the youth.

A lady observed that my head was quite bald.

And asking my age I said:

"I'm 36 when I stand on my feet."

"93 when I stand on my head."

Newman Estey of New York formerly of this place, died in New York on Thursday. His remains were brought to Florenceville on Saturday's express and the funeral was held from his sons residence, Holland Estey on Sunday afternoon. He leaves two sons and 2 daughters in New York City, Charles who lives in Wicklow and Holland at home here in the village. He was over 70 years of age and his wife predeceased him only by a few months. He was an esteemed man with all his neighbors and always had a kind word and pleasant smile for everyone who met

CONVULSIONS

With Acute Indigestion.
"Fruit-a-lives" Cured Me.

NEWBURY, ONT., MAY 29th, 1913
"I am not a strenuous user of medicines or patent medicines, but I have taken nearly everything recommended for Indigestion and Constipation."

I have been so bad with Acute Indigestion that I was nearly in convulsions and had to be held. I have used "Fruit-a-lives" and I have not had another attack nor suffered at all with indigestion since taking them.

"Fruit-a-lives" is the only remedy I ever used that did me any good, and I am grateful to "Fruit-a-lives" for making me as well as I am today, and everyone agrees that I look in first-class health.

My husband likes "Fruit-a-lives" very much and takes them whenever he has occasion to use a remedy for Constipation."
