TOWN COUNCIL HOLDS SHORT SESSION

The Treasurer's Report for Month of May—Letter to Maine and New Brunswick Electrical Power Company—Water Committee will Visit Pumping Station

The town fathers met Monday night with Mayor Jones in the chair. In the absence of the clerk, Mr. R. P. Hartley read the minutes. The monthly report of the town treasurer and a number of bills were presented and referred to the finance and audit committee.

Coun. Jones moved that the water committee visit the pumping station and examine the intake. Carried.

A communication from the C. P. R. in reference to the bill for part maintenance of gates at King street crossing was read and referred to the usual committee.

The following letter was read:—

CAPT. KENDALL TELLS STORY OF DISASTER

Puts Blame on Master of Storstadt—His Vessel Rammed while Standing Still—Made Every Effort to Avoid Fatal Blow Cut Down Between Funnels—Collier Backed Away From Hole

RIMOUSKI, June 1.—The inquest into the death of those who went down on the ill-fated Empress of Ireland was opened here on Saturday, at 10 o'clock, before Coroner Pinaud.

The first witness was James Rankin, a passenger. He answered the questions of the seafaring jury clearly, and gave in detail how he heard

BIG VOTING CONTEST IS JUST STARTING ARE YOU INTERESTED?

Do You Want a Beautifully Toned Sherlock-Manning Piano That Every True Musician Delights to Play? This Grand Prize with Others of Unsurpassed Usefulness are Yours for an Effort—Fill Out the Nomination Blank on Page Three and Send It In—Don't Delay—Now is Your Opportunity

In addition to this beautiful instrument we will give a second prize of a dining room set—consisting of six chairs and table, made of quartered oak of the latest design and superior workmanship. It is a most useful prize and is certainly worthy of an effort on the part of any ambitious young lady or gentleman.

We do not stop here but offer a third prize in the form of an elegant oak sideboard. It is 6-3 high, 3-9 wide, and 1-8 deep. Has a double plate mirror 14x24. This piece of furniture will be a handsome addition to your dining room.

These prizes are yours and we trust we may have the pleasure of giving you an order on the Henderson Furniture Company for the same. They were purchased there and the obliging members of the firm will be pleased to show them to any of our candidates or their friends.

Votes, which are gained by subscriptions to the Sentinel, will make you a winner of one of these prizes. Get your nomination in. The blank is on page three, cut it out—fill in and send it to this office. You can nominate yourself. Then get busy. Ask your friends to help you. If you can't see them face to face drop them a line and ask their support. Their help may help you win the GRAND PRIZE. The one that is in early and is determined and persistent has a good chance to win. Get the children to help you. If you have friends in a church society or any organization ask them for their support. Every vote will help you and every friend that works for you means that you are that much nearer a prize.

Read the conditions carefully. Keep after the GRAND PRIZE. Set your goal high. Keep at work. It means victory—and victory in this contest means a valuable prize.

Send in your nomination today and start with 2000 VOTES.

This is The Sentinel's Grand Capital Prize
