

Your Stove Should Have These Good Points

THERE are at least three extraordinary points in a Gurney-Oxford Stove.

The first is a point in fuel economy: the grates are so designed that the fire gets plenty of air; the fire is bright and snappy; there are no smouldering, wasteful clinkers.

The second is a point in economy and comfort. The Gurney-Oxford Economizer is the only damper on the stove. The fire can be dampened to a mere spark but it never goes out, and by moving the handle it will be hot and bright again. The heat is conveyed from the fire through divided flues over and around the oven. The oven is always evenly heated.

We would like to demonstrate these points to you, because they have made the Gurney-Oxford the favorite stove in thousands of Canadian homes. You are invited to see the Gurney-Oxford.

WHEN your roof is covered with Amatite, there is an end to the roof painting nuisance. Amatite has a real mineral surface and needs no painting. You don't have to get up on the roof every two years and paint it.

The mineral surface makes this unnecessary and it will stand rain and hail and wind and snow, for years without attention.

When you paint the old-fashioned roofings you are practically trying to keep them from getting wet. Amatite is made to get wet, for water won't hurt it a bit. Next time your old-fashioned roof needs painting, cover them with Amatite.

A sample of Amatite and booklet about it will be sent free on request. Address nearest office.

SPORTLETS

By defeating Rael de Rouen in Montreal, last evening, before a crowd of 10,000 spectators, Stanislaus Zbyszko became the heavy-weight wrestling champion of the world. The purse was $12,000 of which the winner's share was $7,800.

St. Stephen ball team went to McAdam on Monday, and played a double header with the team at that place, winning the first game by a score of 10 to 9 and losing the second by a score of 14 to 1. Young and O'Brien doing the pitching for St. Stephen.

Negotiations are now going on with baseball promoters of Woodstock with a view of having them enter into the provincial league, and it will be known within the next twenty-four hours whether they will become members. If they do it will give a much broader scope to the league, besides adding additional interest, as Woodstock has always been a warm and at times a hot favorite in St. John.—St. John paper.

How "Connie" Mack Handles Men

In the June American Magazine "Eddie" Collins, second baseman for the Philadelphia Athletics, writes a remarkably interesting article describing his baseball adventures during the past seven years under the management of "Connie" Mack, who is probably the greatest baseball general in the world. In the following extract from his article, Collins tells a story in which he gives an insight into Mack's methods of handling men:

"Down South, Mack shows attention to young pitchers but not the slightest to his veterans. Indeed he generally lets the veterans take care of themselves. This is especially apparent around World Series time. Last fall he left us absolutely to condition ourselves. He kept the regular team intact until the last ten days of the American League season. We left for Boston on a Tuesday night but Plank and Bender were left behind. Mack told them in plain words that the burden of defeating the New York Giants was on them.

"You fellows have learned to know how to take care of yourselves," he told them. "You know best how to prepare yourself for the strain of a World Series. Now you don't have to come with the team on this trip. I have decided to give you ten days to get in condition for New York. You are at liberty to use your time in any way you want, only show up fit."

"Bender selected a course that took him to the ball park every day. He spent his time pitching and in jogging around Shibe Park. He remained in Philadelphia and kept his mind right on the game.

"Plank, on the other hand, went out to his farm in Gettysburg, remained there a week and forgot baseball entirely. Long walks and exercise in the open kept him in shape. He did not pitch a single baseball during those entire ten days. Suppose some manager, not as wise as Mack, had laid down arbitrary training rules for these two men? As it was, the wisdom of Mack's action is vindicated by what happened in the World Series. Plank and Bender never pitched better."

In "Connie" Mack's Room at 10 a. m.

In the June American Magazine "Eddie" Collins, second baseman for the Philadelphia Athletics, writes a highly interesting baseball article entitled "Connie" Mack and His Men, in which he described intimately the wonderful Philadelphia baseball manager. Collins is the man whom "Johnny" McGraw of the New York Giants calls the greatest baseball player in the world. Following is an extract from the article:

"Every morning at ten, we gather in the club house; if the team is on the road, we meet in Connie's room in the hotel. We are never in session less than ten minutes or rarely more than half an hour. But in that time the game to be played that afternoon is sometimes won. Every point of the defensive and offensive strength of the opposing team is discussed. Mack will mention the pitcher that our opponents will probably use, and instantly a scheme of attack is devised. This attack varies as we meet different pitchers. Always in those morning meetings Mack goes over the entire situation, plans the battle."

Players We Know

The Eastern Maine League with Bangor, Belfast, Oldtown and the Easterns, of South Brewer, as the opposing teams, is to open its season on June 9 in Bangor. Dandy Wallace, who was one of the pitchers for the Bangor team of the N. B. and Maine League last year, will probably be the player-manager of the Bangor team. Mayo, who was also with Bangor last year is the player-manager of the Easterns.

Pitcher Bill Harrington, who was here with the Lynn Club in 1913 and who was with the Indianapolis team of the American Association last year has been released by the latter club to Denver in the Western League. In his first game with the Bears Harrington beat Des Moines 6 to 1. He allowed four hits and fanned five, as well as aiding his team by getting two safe hits. He had as his opposing pitcher, Mogridge, formerly of the Chicago White Sox.

Bobby Fredette with two home runs played a big part in Taunton's 21 to 3 victory over Woonsocket last week. Fredette also had two singles and stole two bases, as well as taking nine out of ten fielding chances. Rube Lavasseur, who went to Fredrickton from the Portland New England League club last spring and was later sent to Glace Bay where he proved a winner in the Cape Breton League, pitched for the Taunton club and five hits were all Woonsocket batters made, while he struck out four men and gave five bases on balls. The newspaper reports say he went along easily throughout the game.

The baseball season is opening and it would be well for some (fortunately only a few) of the players to remember that Umpires are human. And they should also bear in mind that patrons of the game get weary of so much "crabbing" at the games. It is entirely unnecessary, as the Umpire, in every case, will use his best judgment and has no favors to hand out to any team or player. There are perhaps times when a player feels he has been given a raw deal and he protests vigorously, but personal remarks are out of place and the players that indulge
