McLean, it is understood, has taken up the active duties of the office.

A St. John paper says that typhoid fever is reported very prevalent along the Upper St. John, and the cold weather, is blamed for it. The river was very low when it froze and the extreme cold of January and February has resulted in ice so thick that in many places it touches the bottom. The result is to stir up the mud and let loose dirt that is blamed for the spread of typhoid. In some localities the conditions are said to be very bad. It was roughly estimated that considerably more than a hundred cases could be found if a count was made. The situation apparently is serious enough to cause considerable alarm. If the river is responsible, as the people believe, it is difficult to see what remedy can be applied until the milder weather comes and breaks up the ice, which will not be for some weeks yet.

VICTORIA COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

Aged Man Indicted for Setting Fire to Camp in the Woods Other Cases

Andover, N. B., March 3.—With Judge Barry presiding, the March sitting of Victoria Circuit Court opened today and the cases on the docket were reduced by two before the close of the afternoon session.

Of the criminal cases, no bill was found by the grand jury in the Owens rape case. This action came as some thing of a relief to the bondsmen, as the defendant did not put in an appearance. A true bill was found in the case of Carl Hanson charged with setting fire to C. L. Olmstead's camp in the woods. The prisoner is seventy-four years of age, and undetended. A. B. Connell, K. C., appeared for the crown in both cases.

Of the civil cases, Waugh vs. Wapkegan Lumber Company, was settled out of court to the satisfaction of both parties. T. J. Carter was representing the plaintiff and Hon. W. P. Jones, of Woodstock, the defendant. The other case involves a question of the ownership of land being listed as Simpson vs. McLeon. C. D. Richards, of Fredericton, and C. H. Elliott, of Perth, appeared for the plaintiff, and Hon. Mr. Jones for the defendant.

MR. PINDER STILL HOLDS THE FORT

Memorial from New Tory Executive on Patronage Matters Turned down by Premier Flemming—Guthrie and Young Talked of Resigning

The local members for York have had their first scrap over patronage matters and from the best information available it seems that Messrs. Pinder and Morehouse came out with flying colors. It will be remembered that a new executive composed of Dr. Mullia, Andy Humble and other great purists was recently appointed to look after patronage matters for the Tory party. They got busy and forwarded a memorial to Premier Flemming requesting that the dispensation of patronage be left in the hands of Messrs. Young and Guthrie and that Messrs. Pinder and Morehouse be not given a look in.

Premier Flemming got the resolution in due course and after consulting with Mr. Pinder decided to pay no attention to the request. Messrs. Young and Guthrie were so wrathful at the premier that they threatened to resign their seats in the Legislature. They also indulged in other threats, but up to the present none of them have been carried out. At last accounts Mr. Pinder was still holding the fort and quietly laughing in his sleeve over the discomfiture and rage of his two colleagues. In the meantime a message has been sent to Ottawa acquainting Boss McLeod with the condition of affairs.

By winning 500, 1,500 and 5,000 metres races in Christiana Saturday and Sunday, Oscar Mathieson, Norwegian champion, captured the world's championship. The king was among the spectators.

George Boyer, proprietor of the Victoria hotel, has been under the doctor's care for some time. He is getting better.
