Help The Soldiers' Families

An appeal on behalf of "The Carleton Co. Soldiers' Contingent Relief Fund", to the patriotic people of Woodstock Town and the County of Carleton, to give a ready and generous support to the above fund.

This fund is to make provision for those relatives who will miss the support given them by volunteers gone to the front.

They have gone to fight the Empire's battles and they represent us. It is therefore our bounden duty to see that those left behind, who were depending on them for support, do not suffer in any way.

"He gives twice who gives quickly."

Subscriptions, however small, will be gratefully received by

WM. BALMAIN,
Treasurer.

Woodstock, N. B.

All roads will lead to the big Field Day at Connell Park, September 7th.

An interesting session of the police court was held Monday. Matters of local interest were dealt with.

The whole County is interested in the big Field Day, September 7th, and the attendance at Connell Park should be a record breaker.

The post office department announces that letters and papers for soldiers, who are now in camp, should be addressed: "Valcartier Camp, County Quebec, P. Q."

An exchange says that an Austrian entering a German cafe in Belgium, asked the French waiter for an English stew. The waiter replied, "We are now doing a Russian business, so I can't serve."

The Woodstock Choral Society will meet in the Parish Hall, Monday evening, September 14th, to arrange for a patriotic concert to be given at an early date. A full attendance of the members is requested.

Grafton and Woodstock authorities will unite in stopping the disorder that is almost continuous on the long bridge during the night. Complaints have been made and steps will be taken to clear the place of loafers.

Chief Kelly, Lieut. Bull and Capt. G. McLaughlin went down river Sunday in search of a party who is suspected of being a spy. Their search proved fruitless, but they got some trace of the man wanted and an arrest may soon follow.

Rev. Henry Penna who has been spending his vacation in Halifax and St. John, will fill his regular appointments on the Centreville circuit on Sept. 6th. D. V. services will be held as follows:—Williamstown at 10.45 a.m.; Centreville at 3 p.m.; Bloomfield at 7.30 p.m.

At a special meeting of the Town Council Friday evening Stephen Green and J. H. Stairs were re-appointed revisors on motion of Coun. Gallagher. The next meeting of the council will be held Tuesday Sept. 8th, on account of Labor Day falling on the day of regular meeting.

R. B. Jones Co. Ltd., are advertising in this issue that their entire stock must be closed out in ninety days. Shrewd buyers will take advantage of this sale and get their hats, caps, ready-to-wear suits, underwear, etc., before "war prices" begin to rule.

Robert Bell who conducted a meat market here last year has bought the Porter farm on the Benton road and is moving in the new premises this week. Mr. Bell will engage in buying and selling beef and will probably have a meat wagon on the road later on.

The action of the banks in declaring a 2 per cent. rate of exchange on American money is due to the fact that clearing house certificates are being issued in New York and gold payments are being withheld. The 2 per cent. rate will also apply to cheques and drafts issued across the border.

Mr. V. L. Stokoe of Waterville, Carleton county, has been appointed the principal of the St. Mary's-Gibson Superior school to succeed Mr. Clarence F. Burden, who will resume his studies at the University of New Brunswick this fall. Mr. Stokoe graduated from the Provincial Normal school in 1912 and last year was the principal of the school at Salisbury, N. B.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

A. B. Connell has been appointed secretary of the school board in place of E. K. Connell who went to Quebec with the Brighton Engineers.

There is a rumor about the streets that several officers that left here for Valcartier will return. 500 officers are required and there are 1500 in camp.

Col. Sam Hughes said yesterday that there was a likelihood that a part of the Canadian volunteer division would be used in garrison duty at Bermuda.

The Woodstock Field Battery in command of Colonel William Good, passed through here on Friday on their way to Valcartier. Upwards of 300 were at the station to cheer the boys, who, apparently appreciated the rousing reception accorded them. —Grand Falls note.

Contributions to the food sale, for the Field Day, to be held on Connell Park, September 7th, are requested to send their donations to the Park. This will greatly aid the committee, as the whole public are contributing and it will hardly be possible to make the collections. Compliance with this request will be appreciated.

A wedding in which the people of Andover will be much interested took place on Wednesday last at Sussex, at the home of Rev. G. B. MacDonald when Miss Lotta Sloat was united in marriage to Theo. B. Marston, of Plaster Rock. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Marston will make their home at Plaster Rock.

MALDEN, Mass., Sept. 2.—Cutting his throat with a jack-knife in the shed attached to the barn of the Brown estate at 44 Ferry street, Malden, Mr. John Whennan, a coal and wood dealer, died yesterday before his mutilated body was discovered. The deceased was 69 years of age, resided at 31 Prescott Street, and came from Woodstock, N. B. He had suffered for some time with a nervous breakdown and this was given by his family as the cause of his act.

We have received the catalogue of the St. John Business College and Shortland Institute which has been doing business for forty years. This well known institution is now enjoying one of the best years of its long service to the country. Many successful business men of today can trace their efficiency to the training received at this seat of learning. The different courses of instruction are in the hands of well trained teachers whose every effort is for the development of those under their care.

Mr. Archibald J. Amos received the degree of Doctor of Science from the University of Philadelphia last week. Dr. Amos is a son of Rev. William Amos, pastor of the Baptist church at Bath, N. B., and came to this Province from Edinburgh, Scotland, where he took his science course in institutions in that city, and on graduating there last spring, came to join his father who had previously located in New Brunswick. In June last Prof. Amos was offered and accepted a position in Forestry Laboratories in connection with McGill College, Montreal, where he is at present located. The friends whom he has made in this Province are pleased to hear of the successes he has achieved since coming to this country. —Maritime Baptist.

"OUT OF LOVE FOR THEIR BIRTH LAND"

Carleton County Lady Contributes to Fund for Sick and Wounded Soldiers

Portland, Maine, Aug. 26th, 1914

Editor of Carleton Sentinel, Woodstock, N. B.

Dear Sir:—I am enclosing my check to be used for the benefit of Canada's sick and wounded soldiers. I believe that she expects every daughter, as well as son, wherever they may be, to do their duty in this crisis.

Many others, like myself, who have formed new ties in the states out of love to their birthland, would consider it a privilege to contribute if the matter could be brought to their attention.

Wishing God's blessing on those taking part in this great struggle, I am, very truly and sincerely,

MRS. EDWARD E. CHENEY,
formerly Bessie J. McCann,
Florenceville, N. B.
(The cheque was given to the Treasurer of Ladies Relief Fund.)
