

Two and a Half Hours on Operating Table

Specialist Could Not Remove Stone in The Bladder

GIN PILLS PASSED IT

JOLIETTE, P. Q. "During August last, I went to Montreal to consult a specialist as I had been suffering terribly with Stone in the Bladder.

He decided to operate but said the stone was too large to remove and too hard to crush. I returned home and was recommended by a friend to try GIN PILLS.

They relieved the pain. I took two boxes and went back to the specialist. He said the stone was smaller but he could not remove it although he tried for two hours and a half. I returned home and continued to take GIN PILLS, and to my great surprise and joy, I passed the stone.

GIN PILLS are the best medicine in the world and because they did me so much good, I will recommend them all the rest of my life."

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Sentinel
June 16th, 1894

St. John Globe, of Wednesday, says:

At 6.30 o'clock this morning Rev. W. O. Raymond officiated at the marriage of Mr. Hubert A. Seely, the popular bookkeeper of Messrs. Connell Bros., Woodstock, to Miss Bertha A. Lingley daughter of Mr. L. Langley of Westfield. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. John McGinty, Padlock street. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Seely left by the Monticello en route for Halifax. They return next week, and will reside at Woodstock. Both bride and groom have the best wishes of hosts of friends.

The Sentinel offers hearty congratulations.

Miss Fie Jones, who is about to leave for Seattle, Wash., was a member of the Baptist Young People's Society, and also of Emerald Council R. T. of T. Last week she was presented by the first named society with an address and a handsome silver tea urn, and by the Templars with an address and elegant silver coffee pot.

A. B. Connell, Esq., Barrister of this Town, has been appointed a Queen's Counsel. Congratulations.

A. E. Mellish of the Merchant's Bank, rode to Fredericton, Saturday on his bicycle. Notwithstanding the muddy condition of the roads, Mr. Mellish made good time. He spent Sunday in Fredericton with his brother, Lieut. Mellish, and returned, by train, Monday.

At the graduating exercises of the Union Baptist Seminary we learn that Miss Kate Phillips, of Woodstock, treated the audience to a very pleasing account of "A trip on a Comet," an astronomical story well told. Diplomas, in the classical course, was awarded to Miss Kate Phillips and Miss Aurilla Hale, of Woodstock, and in the English scientific course to Miss Caroline Hartt, of Jacksonville.

The fourth biennial convention, A. O. H. Province of New Brunswick, opened in Milltown, Charlotte Co., Thursday evening and will conclude its labors Saturday evening. A large number of delegates is in attendance. From Woodstock these are the Provincial Secretary, John P. Maloney, and Messrs. Thos. Fewer, Francis Kelly, D. Fred Thompson, Thomas L. McKee, John J. Troy, M. McManus, Riley Gillen.

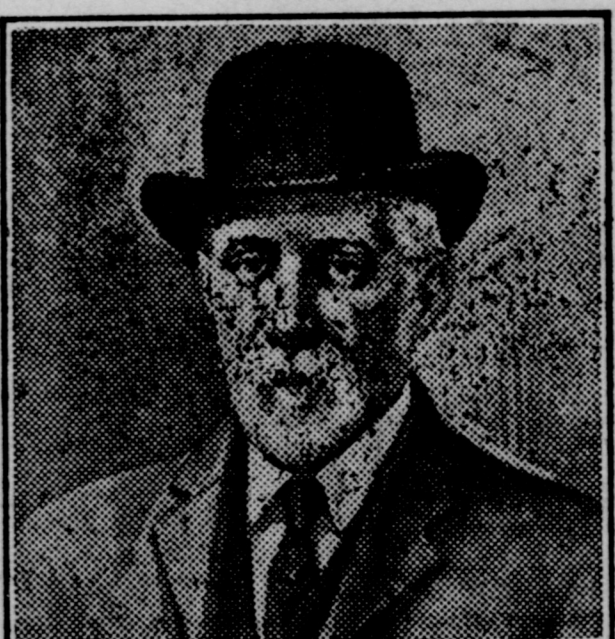

It is told that a wedding that was proposed to take place at Canterbury, recently, where the young lady lives, the intended groom being a native of Wakefield, did not come off as scheduled. The young man put in an appearance, at the stated time, as did the invited guests from far and near, but the fiance or her mother at the last moment said no; and no it was, whereupon the wedding guest he smote his breast, that is the principal one, and he and the others returned to their homes under the cloud of a great disappointment.

The Woodstock boys are putting up great ball this season. Two games have been played inside a week, both won by the Woodstock team,

Captain On Great Lakes Restored To Health By "Fruit-a-lives"

For thirty years, Captain Swan followed the Great Lakes. He has now retired and lives at Port Burwell, where he is well known and highly esteemed.

H. SWAN, Esq.

PORT BURWELL, ONT., May 8th, 1913.

"A man has a poor chance of living and enjoying life when he cannot eat. That was what was wrong with me. Loss of appetite and indigestion was brought on by Constipation. I have had trouble with these diseases for years. I lost a great deal of flesh and suffered constantly. For the last couple of years, I have taken 'Fruit-a-lives' and have been so pleased with the results that I have recommended them on many occasions to friends and acquaintances. I am sure that 'Fruit-a-lives' have helped me greatly. By following the diet rules and taking 'Fruit-a-lives' according to directions, any person with dyspepsia will get benefit."

which, in fact, generally wins. The Friday game was warmly contested; the score stood 27 to 15. Monday's game was between larger clubs; the Woodstock team still kept their same splendid battery, Williams and McKinley. It was, so to speak, a "walk over"; the score 40 to 14.

At the Yarmouth Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp, held at Tusket Falls in August, I found MINARD'S LINIMENT most beneficial for sun burn, an immediate relief for colic and toothache.

BETTER PAY FOR PRESBYTERIANS

Motion Carried for $1,000 Salaries for Ministers and Free Manse

Woodstock, Ont., June 5—Tonight's session of the Presbyterian General Assembly was devoted to the recital of wonderful stories of the pioneer mission work in out-of-way corners of the empire by men actively engaged in the Presbyterian foreign fields. The meeting was a public one, and the Knox church auditorium was again packed to the doors. Ten minutes was allotted each speaker.

The Rev. Wm. Munro, in presenting the report of the eastern section of home missions, stated that the revenue received during the past year was the largest in the history of the maritime provinces.

The salary of ordained missionaries will be raised to $1,000. Mr. Munro presented a resolution to this effect, which was carried and also will give the committee power to deal with special cases where the sum stipulated will not be sufficient.

The report of the augmentation committee contained several recommendations regarding the salary to be paid in the maritime provinces.

The Rev. W. P. Spencer moved that the minimum stipend in the maritime provinces be $1,000 and a manse, and that augmented congregations shall give no less than $600 and a free house. It was pointed out that the recommendations of the western section in regard to these matters were almost identical with those being considered, and the assembly adopted a resolution that these recommendations be adopted.

CHANCE

Despite the marvellous achievements of modern science, the prayer embodied in the familiar hymn, "For those in peril on the sea," remains as significant as ever. Those who go down to the sea in ships are ever in peril, as events like the loss of the "Empress of Ireland," the "Titanic" and a thousand lesser wrecks prove. Apparently the puny hand of man can do but little to check that mysterious law of the universe which enables the waters of the earth to take their continuous toll of human life. Even precaution seems fruitless in humanity's combat with the great god, Chance. The men who built the "Empress of Ireland," and the officers who directed her, took all precautions to provide security for the men and women who lost their lives when she was wrecked, yet Chance was, as always, the active ally of Death. Had Capt. Kendall been reckless and proceeded on his course in the fog, it is probable that his vessel would have reached the port for which she was destined safely. But human frailty, which is the greatest instrument of Chance, was at work on board an insignificant Norwegian collier, the "Storstad." The outcome was a tragedy so appalling as to leave those who attempt to contemplate it in all its phases, mentally benumbed. All great catastrophes reveal both the weakness and greatness of humanity. There must have been base stupidity in the events which caused the disaster, and we know that there was heroism in many of the incidents which followed it. It has been said that it is not the dead who suffer, but those whom they leave behind. That is true, and in the face of the grief of those who have been suddenly bereaved, there is nothing to be said, except what has been said ever since man began to think and wonder as to his place in the universe—we are all in the hands of God.

Fight Over Valley Railway Contracts in Montreal Courts

Montreal June 1—An echo of the construction of the St. John Valley & Quebec Railway was heard in the local courts here today. The basis of the suit is $1,000,000 contract on that portion of the St. John Valley & Quebec Railway between Fredericton and Woodstock.

The plaintiff in the suit is Major G. W. Parke, a local physician, who is suing Col. F. W. Hibbard, president of the Quebec Public Utilities Commission, and a well known lawyer of this city, and also F. A. Hibbard, civil engineer. These three gentlemen entered into an agreement whereby they were to share equally in the profits of the $1,000,000 contract on the St. John & Quebec Railway, the profits on which were expected to total $100,000.

According to the agreement in question, Col. F. W. Hibbard was to do the financing of the project; F. A. Hibbard to superintend and manage the construction of the line, and Major Parke was to secure the contract from the St. John Valley & Quebec Railway Company.

It appears that as a result of a certain reorganization which took place in the Hibbard Company that F. A. Hibbard, one of the defendants in the above case, was deposed from his position as manager, and was succeeded by W. V. Polleys, of Boston, who is now stationed in Fredericton.

"Now, Johnny," said the mother of the young hostess to the little boy guest, "I want you to feel perfectly at home."

"H'm!" growled Johnny. "I don't want to feel at home. I want to have a good time."

Grannie—"Why should I take another chair, Gerald? Don't you think I'm comfortable here?"

Gerald—"Yes, gran'ma; but I'm afraid my little kitten isn't—she's there too."
