CANADIANS QUARTERED AT SHORNCLIFFE CAMP

The Camp is a Big Improvement Over Salisbury Plain and the Men Will Be More Comfortable Than the First Contingent

Recruiting Going On For 55th Battalion—Major Bull Up River
This Week—Men Are Enlisting For New Regiment

LONDON, March 7.—The four thousand men of the Second Canadian Expeditionary Force who have reached England will be quartered at Shorncliffe Camp, which is a big improvement over Salisbury Plain, and the men will be more comfortably quartered than the Canadians who came across in October. The camp at Shorncliffe is within a mile of the railway station, and is located on dry soil. There are paved roads and sidewalks, and there are brick huts to quarter the troops. The camp is also within easy reach of Folkestone, one of the most pleasant seaside resorts in England.

Although the arrival of the contingent was quietly effected, the Can-

This is caused by the belief that the war will be over before their period of training in England is completed.

Active recruiting for the 55th Infantry Battalion has been begun in different parts of New Brunswick and P. E. Island. The nucleus from the 49th Battalion has given an impetus to the work, quite a number of volunteers having been signed for that unit and now transferred to the 55th.

Major Bull, the recruiting officer for Carleton, Victoria and Madawaska counties, was at the army all last week and left for river points on Monday where it is expected many will enlist for the new regiment. The men offering are a healthy class and very few have been rejected by the examining physician.

St. John will likely be the point of central mobilization for the 55th Battalion.

It is officially announced that the 18th Battery, 7th Brigade, Canadian Field Artillery will finally mobilize at Fredericton.

Werner Horn, the German who attempted to blow up the Vaneboro bridge, was arraigned Monday in Bangor on the charge of illegally transporting explosives. He pleaded "not guilty," and was remanded to jail in default of $10,000 bail.

SHOWED UP DOUBLE DEALINGS OF TORIES

While Crying Truce in the House, They Are Stabbing the Liberals in the Back by the Most Inflammable Literature Ever Circulated, Declared Hon. George Graham in Ringing Speech in Commons—Liberals Are Eager to Vote Millions for War, but Not a Dollar for Graft

OTTAWA, Mar. 4.—Imputations draw back. Go about it in the open. We, however, intend to give you no excuse on the ground of war legislation." (Prolonged Liberal cheering.) Mr. Graham emphasized his remarks by producing pamphlet after pamphlet sent out under the franks of Conservative members and paid for out of the party funds, containing insulting cartoons against Sir Wilfrid Laurier, misrepresentations of the Laurier naval policy and allegations of Liberal disloyalty at a time when Sir Wilfrid and other Liberal leaders were spending their time and energy addressing meetings, with a view to stimulating recruiting.

Mr. Graham's remarks came as the culmination of a series of insinuations and attacks from the Government side throughout the day, and made responsible by the sneer of Hon. W. T. White that the "other side of the House did not" "even seem to know that a war was on." The only attempt at real proof which the Conservative speakers gave was one quotation from the Liberal Monthly suggesting that the Minister of Trade and Commerce should get busy in securing war orders for Canada which were now going to the United States. An eloquent silence in the Government ranks was the shame faced reply to Mr. Graham's telling arraignment.

The jury brought in a verdict to the effect that he had died as a result of a wound in his throat inflicted by his own hand. He was only nineteen years of age, was unmarried and was highly esteemed by his family and friends. He has a sister in St. John whose expenses in business college he was paying. The body was interred on Friday at Knoxville.

GOULD'S RAILROAD BILL IS KILLED

Not As Easy Marks as He Found in New Brunswick

(Aroostook Pioneer.)

The Senate chamber was the scene of a lively hearing Tuesday evening, when the Aroostook county delegation listened to argument for and against Senate document number 108 an act enabling the county of Aroostook to guarantee the principal and interest of and upon $4,000,000 of the first mortgage bonds of the Quebec Extension Railway Company, and providing that on or before the 15th day of July, 1915, the Aroostook county commissioners shall issue warrants to call the citizens of the county to the polling places to give in their votes on a date to be determined on the question of the county's act of the Legislature.

William R. Pattangall of Waterville, conducted the case for the proponents of the bill and himself gave an able exposition of the financial concern of the county in the matter.

Mr. Madigan opened the case for the opponents and declared that the scheme was sure to cost the county money and increase the taxes. He considered it simply a short cut between Quebec and St. John and it would benefit Canada much more than Aroostook county. He pointed out the difficulty in properly protecting the interests of the county and argued that if it was a good business proposition, the railroads interested should put it through without asking aid of the county.

Charles P. Barnes made a strong argument against the measure and passed to each member of the delegation a petition from the delegates home town the total number of signatures being 1154 names. There are 17 other towns yet to come. Mr. Barnes said, and will be received in the next 48 hours.

By a vote of 17 to 1, Aroostook delegation voted not to report the bill. This vote was later made unanimous.

DIED BY HIS OWN HAND

Is Jury's Verdict Impannelled to Investigate Death of Charles Wiggins—Letter with Farewell Message Found on Body—Young Man of Excellent Habits—Cause of Deed Unexplained.

That Charles Wiggins of Lesterville died by his own hand is the verdict of a coroner's jury impannelled to investigate the death of the young man, whose body was found on Wednesday on the road leading from his home to the place where he worked in Easton, Maine.

Wiggins had visited his family and seemed in his usual health and spirit when he left for Easton. When his body was found with his throat cut it was believed that it might be murder as no reason for suicide could be imagined.

Dr. Commins of East Florenceville the coroner, was notified and held the inquest on the following day at the home of Wiggins' parents. A letter found on the body was submitted in evidence.

The letter contained farewell messages to Wiggins' family and also instructions to return the knife with which he committed the deed to his employer, Charles Adams, to whom he said it belonged. The letter closed with the statement that by the time his body was found his family would understand the reasons for his act.

The mother and cousin of the young man identified the writing as his and matters mentioned in the letter which, it was thought, would hardly be known to any one else were taken as corroborative evidence of the authorship.

Neither the members of his family nor other witnesses could give any explanation and denied knowledge of any circumstances as referred to in the letter which would furnish a reason. Evidence of the young man's good character, excellent habits, sound health and good spirits was given and the cause of his deed was left unexplained.

The jury brought in a verdict to the effect that he had died as a result of a wound in his throat inflicted by his own hand. He was only nineteen years of age, was unmarried and was highly esteemed by his family and friends. He has a sister in St. John whose expenses in business college he was paying. The body was interred on Friday at Knoxville.

More Peace Talk In Germany; Expect End of War in June

LONDON, MARCH 9.—THE COPENHAGEN CORRESPONDENT OF THE DAILY TELEGRAPH TELEGRAPHS: A HIGH FOREIGN OFFICIAL, WHO HAS CONNECTIONS WITH THE BEST GERMAN SOURCES, LEARNS THAT THERE IS GREAT TALK OF PEACE IN OFFICIAL CIRCLES IN GERMANY WHERE IT SEEMS TO BE CONSIDERED THAT THE WAR WILL BE ENDED IN JUNE. IT IS SAID TO BE CERTAIN THAT THE GERMANS WILL NOT RISK ANOTHER WINTER CAMPAIGN IN RUSSIA.

John and Robert Shannon, Florenceville, were before the police magistrate, Monday, on a charge of setting fire to a house belonging to James Tapley. There was very little evidence to connect them with the crime, and further hearing of the case was adjourned till Monday. The time is drawing near for that free suit of clothes at Cogger's. Read the ad. carefully on page 5. cut it out and be on hand early Thursday, March 25th.

RECRUITS WANT EQUIPMENT

To the Editor of the Sentinel.—Dear Sir,—While the first contingent complained of poor shoes—the third contingent, or at least the 55th Battalion, have no shoes or any equipment to complain about.

Some of the men felt the need of shoes after they were in Woodstock awhile and as the officers said they had no authority to get shoes for the men, they had to get them themselves. Now, all these men get is one dollar a day and after paying board buying tobacco and paying for washing it is not unreasonable that they think themselves badly treated when they have to buy their own equipment. Trusting this will find space in your columns. I am,

A RECRUIT.

"THE DICKINSON PROPOSITION"

Editor Sentinel:—

The people should give this matter a hearty support. The tanning company have shown commendable enterprise in establishing so large a business in a short time and ought to be encouraged by the ratepayers, and more especially as they do not ask for any bonus, but simply a little support to enable them to increase their capital, by selling their bonds at a favorable rate, (not for the purpose of paying any back indebtedness) while the Town will be amply protected.

The writer believes that the majority of the ratepayers are favorably disposed to this matter, as no doubt the large amount of money paid out by this firm is a direct benefit to us all.

Don't forget the day, March 15th. Turn out and vote a wholehearted YES.

Very truly yours,
"RATEPAYER."
