

LOCAL AND GENERAL

A Convention of the Liberal Party will be held at Andover, Monday, April 5th, to Nominate a Candidate for the Constituency of Carleton-Victoria. A meeting will be held in the evening, at which Dr. Michael Clarke, of Red Deer, Hon. Rudolph Lemieux and the Candidate will speak. Special Train will leave Woodstock at 12 o'clock, local time. Returning leave Perth station after meeting. Fare from Woodstock and return $1.50. One fare from intermediate stations. One fare from Grand Falls and intermediate stations, coming by regular train, returning by special train after meeting. Parties from Benton and Debec coming on regular train will be in time for special leaving Woodstock.

The Sentinel wants a correspondent at Grand Falls. Write us for particulars.

The Liberal Club of Upper Woodstock meets the first and third Friday in each month.

A new hay press will be installed by the Scott Company near the C. P. R. station. This is made necessary owing to the company taking on a contract from Charles Cyr of Edmundston who is to supply a quantity of hay for army purposes and the Messrs Scott will do the pressing.

There will be a union temperance rally at the Methodist church on Sunday evening, March 14th, as soon after eight o'clock as the people can get together from the other churches. Music, recitations, short addresses by members of the W. C. T. U., and addresses by pastors of the Woodstock churches will constitute the program. All are invited to this free public temperance gathering.

The new bottling works will soon be in operation under the management of Cluff & Kearney. The machinery has been installed in the building on Queen street, recently occupied as a salesroom for agricultural implements, and extensive preparations made to carry on the manufacture of soft drinks made from the richest and choicest ingredients known to the business.

A boy from Benton was before the police magistrate, Monday, on a charge of stealing fifty dollars from the pocket of a companion. The parties concerned in the affair worked in the woods and the money was missed following a seance, in which two jugs of fire-water were prominent features and had left a rather hazy impression of the proceedings. There was no evidence on which to hold the accused and he was discharged.

Saturday and Sunday nights the police were kept busy owing to an unusual number of drunks, some of whom were disposed to be unruly. A number of victims, who sojourned in the cooler over night, appeared before the police magistrate Monday and were dealt with as the law directs. A number of strangers are in town at the present time connected with the military organization and it seems too bad that two or three of the number are acting in a way to bring discredit on the whole body.

Mrs. Jarvis Cook died at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. W. Henderson, Presque Isle, Friday night. Her remains were taken to the home in Forreton, N. B., accompanied by Mr. Cook, and Mr. and Mrs. Grant of Houlton, Mrs. Grant being a sister. The case is a particularly sad one, as Mrs. Cook was slowly recovering from a serious surgical operation and was taken ill with pneumonia while visiting her sister, Mrs. Henderson. She was twenty-five years of age and is survived by her husband and two little daughters, aged two and four years.

Lovers of boxing in this section are offered a good attraction Tuesday evening, March 16th, at Houlton, when "Wild Bill" Flemming of Old Town will meet Ernest McIntyre of Woodstock in two six round bouts. McIntyre has quite a following among local fans and is considered unusually good at his weight. Flemming is also well known and has the reputation of being a willing mixer. Indications point towards a bout replete with action. Several young huskies are on the program for preliminaries and the evening will be an all star event in boxing circles.

Cobblers yesterday were selling from $1 to $1.10 with a better price in sight. Why this order from the Federal authorities? Here is one reason: It is said that there are a few Aroostook shippers who are not playing "fair." They ship table stock to Boston (not obliged to be inspected) and it is there re-shipped as seed to the south. If this is so it seems a pity that there are such dishonest shippers in the County. "We don't know or dare to figure what our losses will be," said a prominent shipper this morning, "we have thousands of barrels on hand."—Aroostook Pioneer.

It is pretty hard to convince some men who have been on a farm for years, and who have always found the ways of their fathers sufficient in farming, that new fangled methods of farming are worth while. Every now and then there comes some comparison of the old ways with the new which must tend to shake belief in the value of the old. Such comparison received considerable attention on Friday when a man drove into town with a pair of cows hitched up in the regulation style of the horse. The team was well broken and hauled quite a heavy load a distance of some twenty miles. The outfit was unique and seemed to amuse the people along the streets, but outside of this feature, no one would intimate that conditions would be very materially improved by a return to the old system of oxen instead of horses.

OBITUARY

MISS MARY ANN CHAPMAN
The last surviving member of the Chapman family, Miss Mary Ann Chapman, died on Sunday morning, at Mater Misericordiae Home, St. John, after a week's illness of pneumonia. She was a sister of the Rt. Rev. Monsignor W. F. Chapman, V.G., D.P., who died in Boston on Dec. 26, a native of St. Stephen, and 69 years of age.

For many years she and her sister Elizabeth, who died a few years ago, kept house for their distinguished brother in Johnville and Woodstock, and came to St. John with him in 1903, when he was appointed rector of St. John the Baptist Church and a Vicar General of St. John diocese. Shortly after the Monsignor's demise Miss Chapman went to the Home on Sydney street to spend the remainder of her days. In the several portions of the diocese where her lot was cast the announcement of Miss Chapman's death will be read with great regret. Her pleasant manner and kind disposition attracted to her many friends.

The burial took place in St. Stephen.

MRS. CHARLOTTE M. ROSS
There passed away at Peel, N. B., Jan. 24th, 1915, after an illness of some weeks, Mrs. Charlotte M. Ross, widow of Roderick Ross.

Thus this community has lost one of its most respected residents. Mrs. Ross' father and mother, James and Martha Moore, moved from Newcastle to Middle Simonds, when she was a small child. At her marriage she went to Peel and this became her permanent residence, and she rests beside the home she loved so well.

Seven children are still living and thirteen grandchildren: Dr. Ross of Marysville, N. B.; Wallace and Edward in the northwest; Mrs. Della Rideout in Calgary, Alta; Mrs. Lillian Rideout in Hartland; Russel at Lansdowne, and Mrs. Bina Markey who recently returned from the west and who faithfully cared for her mother during her illness. To know her was to love and respect her.

She was a woman of strong, sterling and independent character. Her christian experience dates from her early life when she united with the Advent church at Simonds. She lived and attended the house of God as long as she was physically able, and though deafness prevented her from hearing the messages delivered, she desired to set a right example by her presence. She rests in hope, waiting the voice that shall call her forth to immortality and eternal life.

At her request the 103 Psalm was read with its message of comfort for the present and hope for the future.

Elder Quigg of the Primitive Baptist church kindly assisted at the funeral service.

HUGH JOHNSTON

Hugh Johnston, brother of Mason Johnston, proprietor of Johnston's Hotel, Perth, died on Friday evening last, after a few days' illness with pneumonia. The funeral took place from the hotel on Sunday. The body was taken to the Baptist church at Perth, where a service was held by the Rev. Mr. Fields, after which interment was made in the Methodist cemetery in Andover. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The deceased was 44 years old, and leaves three brothers to mourn their loss.
