THE WHITEWASHING OF J. K. FLEMMING

The Degrading Spectacle Presented at the Dying Hours of the House—Motion Sprung When Opposition Members were Absent—J. L. White a Political Nondescript from Victoria and George B. Jones of Potato Fame Chief Actors—E. R. Teed, Boodle Keeper, Haunted the Capital for Days—Extracts from Finding of Royal Commission

Fredericton, N. B., May 6.—In the absence of Messrs. Dugal, Pelletier, Stewart and Swim, and in violation of the rules of the house, as no notice was given of the matter, the legislature yesterday in a thin house, rushed through a resolution moved by J. L. White of Victoria and seconded by George B. Jones of Kings, applying a coat of whitewash to J. K. Flemming.

LAST EFFORT TO SAVE FLEMMING. The memory of New Brunswick people will be stirred by the White-Jones resolution. They have a most forgotten the stern and uncompromising condemnation of both ex-Premier Flemming and his methods by Supreme Court Judge H. A. McKeown, ex-Judge W. W. Wells, and W. S. Fisher, the royal commissioners. To-day all this is revived by this foolish and useless resolution. Flemming as a Tory federal candidate, condemned by his judges, forsaken by his former political colleagues, bereft of the tremendous power he once swayed, was rapidly losing caste and support in Carleton county. To stem the tide of public opinion he and his friends have invoked the aid of the legislature. To this end his campaign treasurer in the collection of the graft-lumber fund, E. R. Teed, has haunted the capital for some time. J. L. White, his business associate, was ready to help him.

Premier Clarke sat silent while the painful operation was performed. So did Hon. Messrs. Landry and Murray and Wilson, Messrs. Baxter and Morrissey were absent. But when Speaker Melanson started to read the resolution again there was a hurried request from the premier to "dis-"

NO CHEERS.

The vote was unanimous in a scant house, about half the members being present. There was no one to protest, no one to object and the Flemming followers in the legislature had their way with the premier's consent, for "silence gives consent." There wasn't a sound, not a rap of a desk, no demonstration. It reminded one of a short funeral oration.

Had Mr. White of Victoria told the whole story in his resolution he would have added much interest to the proceedings. It was all in the report on the table before the speaker of the house, and The Telegraph prints the words of the royal commission, chosen by Governor Wood, copied from their report which Mr. White might have added to the limewashed statements he included in his resolution.

Referring to the charge against Mr. Flemming in connection with holding up railway contractors, the Royal Commission said:

TOOK THE MONEY BY COMPULSION.

"As to the evidence against the Hon. Mr. Flemming it consists of the testimony given by John Kennedy, a member of the firm of Kennedy & McDonald, railway contractors, to the effect that he paid Hon. Mr. Flemming the sum of $2,900, in Woodstock on the 13th day of June, 1913. In describing the circumstances the witness said: 'Mr. Flemming said there was an election on, and he (Flemming) said: "You ought to help us along and give us some money," and I said that I wasn't doing much, but then to come over tomorrow and I would do the best I could for him.' Mr. Kennedy goes on to say that Mr. Flemming returned the next day, that very little talk was had and he handed Mr. Flemming a package which it was evident contained $2,000.

"Now, the charge is that those contractors were 'compelled to pay' sums of money, and Hon. Mr. Flemming, while admitting receipt of the package, maintains that there was no compulsion, and that Mr. Kennedy was not in any way compelled to pay the amount. Mr. Kennedy himself gives no further explanation as to why he paid the money than is above set out, but he says he understood he handed it over to Mr. Flemming for campaign purposes.

"There are various degrees of compulsion, and the relationship of the parties concerned is a very determining factor in considering whether or not compulsion had taken place. What might rightly be considered compulsion under one set of circumstances might by no means constitute or give rise to it under other circumstances, and therefore it is that while there was no threat or menace in the conversation, WE HAVE NO HESITATION IN CONCLUDING THAT THE COMPULSION UNDOUBTEDLY EXISTED, TAKING ITS RISE PRIMARILY FROM THE FACT THAT MR. FLEMMING WAS PREMIER OF THE PROVINCE AND MR. KENNEDY WAS A CONTRACTOR IN THE BUILDING OF THE WORK IN QUESTION.

"The compulsion which accompanied the act did not take its rise from any fear of disappointment with reference to a second contract, nor was the money given with a view of securing it, but it was caused by the very relationship of the parties held by Hon. Mr. Flemming and possibly also from apprehension as to the contingency which might attach to the performance of the existing contract in case of refusal to pay.

"COMPELLED TO PAY THE MONEY."

"But while holding the opinion above expressed with regard to this transaction we must make report concerning it, within the wording of the statute and the meaning necessarily attached thereto. The statute does not confine itself to payments made by a contractor before his first or any or all his contracts was or were entered into. In the case before us the contractor obtained two contracts. HE WAS COMPELLED TO PAY THE MONEY IN THE INTERVAL BETWEEN THE TWO, AND ADMITTEDLY AT A TIME WHEN NO THOUGHT OF A SECOND ONE WAS IN HIS MIND, BUT HE CERTAINLY WAS COMPELLED TO MAKE THIS PAYMENT PRIOR TO GETTING HIS SECOND CONTRACT, AND IN OUR OPINION IT WAS JUST AS REPREHENSIBLE TO CONTROL PAYMENT OF THIS MONEY UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES AS IF THE SECOND CONTRACT HAD BEEN IN SIGHT. THE CONTRACTOR, HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO MAKE THE PAYMENT IN THE YEAR 1912 AND BEFORE THE SECOND CONTRACT WAS ENTERED INTO, WE THINK AND FIND THAT HON. MR. FLEMMING IS GUILTY OF THIS ACT OF COMPULSION WHICH HAS BEEN CHARGED AGAINST HIM."

Mr. White's whitewash resolution also says: "We note with satisfaction that in the timber charges the commissioners find Hon. J. K. Flemming is 'not guilty,' as charged by Mr. Dugal."

But the royal commissioners did not stop at that. They said some other things. Copied from the report on the table of the house is the following:

THE PREMIER NAMED THE TREASURER, MR. TEED OF WOODSTOCK. HE KNEW THAT EFFORTS WERE BEING MADE TO GET MONEYS FROM CERTAIN HOLDERS OF CROWN AND TIMBER LICENSES; HE KNEW THAT FROM TIME TO TIME SUCH MONEYS WERE COMING INTO MR. TEED'S HANDS; HE SET HIS SEAL OF APPROVAL ON THE TRANSACTION BY INTRODUCING HIS CHOSEN TREASURER TO MR. BRANKLEY WITH THE WORDS: 'ANYTHING MR. BERRY TELLS YOU ABOUT THIS MAN (TEED) WILL BE ALL RIGHT.' AT THE TIME OF SUCH REMARK THE PREMIER, WITH MESSRS. BERRY, TEED AND BRANKLEY, WAS IN HIS ROOM AT THE BARKER HOUSE IN FREDERICTON AND BERRY HAD ACQUAINTED HIM WITH THE FACT THAT BRANKLEY WAS ACTING FOR THE LUMBERMEN IN HOLDING THE FUND PRIOR TO ITS BEING PASSED OVER.

"IN THE CASE OF THE PARTINGTON PULP AND PAPER COMPANY, THE PREMIER WAS AWARE THAT BERRY WAS URGING A CONTRIBUTION, AND, BACKED BY ALL THESE FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES, THE VIEW WAS STRONGLY PRESSED UPON THE COMMISSION THAT HON. MR. FLEMMING COULD NOT POSSIBLY HAVE BEEN IN IGNORANCE OF BERRY'S ACTIVITIES AND OF THE METHODS HE EMPLOYED. THERE IS A GREAT DEAL TO SUPPORT THIS VIEW, BUT IN OUR OPINION IT STOPS SHORT OF SUCH SUFFICIENCY OF PROOF AS WOULD JUSTIFY THE COMMISSION IN DECLARING THE

MIRACULOUS CURE OF ASTHMA

Suffered Terribly for 15 Years Until He Tried "Fruit-a-lives"

D. A. WHITE, Esq.

21 WALLACE AVE., TORONTO,
Dec. 22nd, 1913.

"Having been a great sufferer from Asthma for a period of fifteen years (sometimes having to sit up at night for weeks at a time) I began the use of 'Fruit-a-lives'. These wonderful tablets relieved me of indigestion, and through the continued use of same, I am no longer distressed with that terrible disease, Asthma, thanks to 'Fruit-a-lives' which are worth their weight in gold to anyone suffering as I did. I would heartily recommend them to all sufferers from Asthma, which I believe is caused or aggravated by indigestion."

CHARGE OF DIRECTING THE EXTORTION PROVED.

A SCATHING INDICTMENT.

"THAT THE MONEY WAS IN FACT EXTORTED BY BERRY IS FULLY PROVED. THAT THE PREMIER WAS WELL AWARE THAT MONEYS WERE BEING COLLECTED FOR A PURPOSE UNQUESTIONABLY IMPROPER IS ALSO SHOWN. IT IS ALSO MANIFEST THAT HE DIRECTED THE DISPOSITION OF SUCH MONEYS WHEN COLLECTED ALSO THAT HE ACQUIESCED IN THE COLLECTION OF SUCH MONEYS AT A TIME AND FROM A SOURCE HIGHLY AND GRIEVOUSLY IMPROPER."

Those are a few paragraphs that Messrs. White and Jones should have included in their resolution. The language used is the royal commission's and the conclusions are those of Messrs. McKeown, Wells and Fisher. Had some of the members who sat silent and ashamed when this attempt was made to bolster up a discredited man, read the report recently, they would surely have hesitated before they assented in silence. Mr. Tilley and Mr. Wilson of St. John may not care to explain their reasons why, but they will have to when the time comes. They and others have wrapped the mantle of Mr. Flemming about them and the people do not like it's color.

At the closing session of the legislature provision was made for an annuity of $400 for the widow of George N. Babbitt.

PARSONS' PILLS relieve Constipation and Headache

Cleaning wall paper is a tedious job, and unless the paper is expensive it is better to pull it off and paste on new. Wall paper is very cheap, and it is hard work for the amateur to do the cleaning, and not always satisfactory, while to hire it done is too expensive.

To prevent paper from cracking when put on a board partition, first "paper" the wall with cheesecloth, and then apply the paper in the usual way.
