1500 Went to Death With The Lusitania

Many Americans, Some are Prominent—What will Washington Do Is Question Now—Believing Great Ship Would Float Till Help Came, Many First Cabin Passengers Lost Lives—Captain and First and Second Officers Saved—Four Torpedoes Fired and Two Found Mark—Only Some 700 People Saved out of 2,067—German Devils Rejoice Over Fiendish Work—All Eyes Turned to Washington

London, May 8—Fifteen hundred but one of the rescue fleet of torpedo boats, tugs and trawlers, which were sent out from Queenstown, have reported.

There is a slender hope that fishing boats may have rescued a few more.

In addition to the living brought ashore, the bodies of forty-five who died of injuries or were drowned have been landed at Queenstown. Five more are at Kinsale, and it has been reported that an armed trawler, accompanied by two fishing boats, has picked up 100 others. NO WORD OF PROMINENT AMERICANS.

The United States Consul at Queenstown can account for only fifty-one Americans out of 188, who were aboard. His roll does not include the names of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, Charles Frohman, Eldert Hubbard, Augustus Miles Forman, the author, or Charles Klein, the playwright. Of the Americans aboard, 106 were in the first-class cabin, sixty-five in the second, and seventeen in the steerage.

The work of compiling a list of these saved is progressing slowly because of the indescribable confusion at Queenstown, but apparently few of the cabin passengers are among the survivors.

The heavy loss of life among the first cabin passengers is believed to have been due to the calmness and self-possession they displayed in face of danger. Most of them were at luncheon when the steamer received her death blow and declined to join the rush for the boats and life belts. They believed the Cunarder would remain afloat until assistance could arrive.

TORPEDOES KILL MANY. The loss of life caused by the torpedoes themselves and the explosion they caused must have been terribly heavy. The tragic freight of bodies taken at Queenstown bears evidence of the havoc wrought. Many of these taken ashore were seriously injured and more than a score died after they were removed to Cork and Queenstown hospitals. A long line of stretcher bearers marched from the piers as tugs and trawlers arrived.

The people of the Irish city opened their homes to those who had been saved and everything possible is being done for their comfort.

Probably no event of the war has caused such intense excitement in London as the sinking of the Lusitania. Enormous crowds surrounded the offices of the Cunard Line all night.

THE GHOULDS.

London, May 8—The Exchange Telegraph Company has received today the following from Copenhagen:—"Berlin newspapers print the news of the sinking of the Lusitania in colossal type and hail the successful torpedoing of the ship as a new triumph for Germany's naval policy. The general impression is that England has got what she deserves."

LATEST FIGURES

London, May 7—An Admiralty statement given out in London this morning placed the number of the Lusitania survivors at 658. There was received later a report from Ireland that forty-five survivors had been brought into Queenstown. If these were not included in the 658 the total up to the present time is 703.

The best available information sets forth that the Lusitania had on board 1,251 passengers and a crew of 816, a total of 2,067. The known survivors being 703, the list of dead would consequently be 1,364.

WASHINGTON MUST ACT.

The Herald says—"Henceforth is international anarchy to be the controlling factor in marine warfare? Henceforth is piracy on the high seas to be recognized and go unpunished and unpunished? Henceforth is the wanton murder of neutrals and non-combatant passengers to be treated as regrettable incidents and go at that?"

"It is for the neutral countries and above all for the United States to answer these questions. It is a time of gravity in American history unmatched since the civil war. This cold blooded, premeditated outrage on colossal scale will cause such a binding white light of indignation throughout the neutral portion of the world, unhappily growing smaller and smaller, that there cannot conceivably be in Washington any thought of turning back from the note to Germany sent on February 10."

AMERICA REMEMBERED THE MAINE.

The Tribune says—"From this tragedy we shall now turn to Washington. More than a century ago when this nation was weak and its people were lacking in all the resources of a great power, it made answer to the pirates of the Barbary coast who asserted a prerogative less intolerable than that which is now asserted in Berlin and executed upon the high seas.

"No voice will be raised, no effort will be made to force the hand to hasten the action of President of the United States but never he nor other official in our government can mistake the temper in which their fellow citizens will wait.

"The nation which remembered the sailors of the Maine will not forget the civilians of the Lusitania."

How Zam-Buk Cures Skin Diseases

As soon as applied, Zam-Buk penetrates right to the very root of the disease and kills the cause thereof. The rich herbal essences then so stimulate the cells below the surface that new healthy tissue is formed, which, as it grows, forces out the diseased tissue. Zam-Buk cures from the bottom up. This is the reason that sores and skin diseases cured by Zam-Buk, do not return.

Zam-Buk is entirely different from all other ointments. It does not contain harsh minerals, or poisonous coloring matter. Nor does it contain coarse animal fats, which, in a short time, go rancid. Zam-Buk will keep indefinitely.

Many people have been cured by Zam-Buk after having suffered years and spent hundreds of dollars trying various remedies in vain. If you suffer from any skin disease or injury, benefit by the experiences of others. Try Zam-Buk first. Don't trouble with useless remedies.

Zam-Buk is unequalled for eczema, piles, pimples, cuts, burns, bruises, cold sores, frost bites, chapped hands, and all skin diseases and injuries. We are so convinced that a trial of Zam-Buk will prove to you its superiority, that we will send you a FREE TRIAL box on receipt of this article, name of paper, and 1c. stamp to pay return postage. Dr. Wilson's Herbine Bitter is a safe cure.

For papering walls that have been whitewashed, go over the whole surface first with a wash of hot vinegar, applied with a brush; then make a good paste, as for the laundry, only do not boil after it is made; paste both wall and paper, applying it hot to both surfaces. Paper as usual. It is claimed by those who have tried this way that the paper will not peel off such walls if the work is well done and the paper pressed down and smoothed well with a brush.
