MORSE'S TEA

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Sentinel
May 18th 1895.

Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick, of Kincardine, and Rev. Mr. Whiteside, this town, exchanged services last Sunday, the former preaching two excellent sermons in the Presbyterian Church.

During the storm of Wednesday last week, the barn of Wm. Page, Williamstown, was struck by lightning and totally demolished, and with it some sheds and farming implements.

The Wicklow Brass Band will give a grand open air concert and garden party, on the grounds of Matthew Hutchinson, Esq., Upper Wicklow, on the evening of Thursday, June 20th. Everybody bear this in mind and look for further particulars later.

Canterbury (Bel River) Items.
The officers, for this quarter, of Dufferin Division, No. 296, were installed as follows: David Oltz, Jr., W.P.; Edith Dickinson, W.A.; J.E. Porter, R.S.; H.B. Scott, F.S.; Angus Porter, Treas.; Percy Marsten, Com.; Tressa Dickinson, A. Com.; Mrs. Jacob

O. Porter, Chap.; Simon Bragdon, I.S.; Hallie Marsten, O.S.

The new wire ferry here is a great convenience to the public; it now crosses the river below the mouth of Bel River; the road goes down between I.W. Marsten's and E.M. Edwards' store. Mr. Chipman Phillips deserves great credit for erecting such a successful accommodation; it crosses the river, when there are no logs to bother, in two minutes.

67th BATT.

Lt. Col. Maunsel, D.A.G., commanding M.D., No. 8, thus makes honorable mention.

In Quarters—I have again great pleasure in calling attention to Capt. Perkins—No. 8 company—well kept armory, for which he has received full marks in efficiency return. As a result of friendly rivalry in this important service in this Battalion, other captains have followed Capt. Perkins' example in care of Government property, notably in Nos. 1, 2, 3, 6 and 9 companies. (These are respectively the Co's of Capt. Bourne, Adams, Kirkpatrick, Kupkey, Williams). The captain of No. 5 company, Capt. Carvell, has built a new armory, not yet inspected. Regimental records are well kept.
