

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The Woodstock Speedway Club held a meeting Tuesday and decided to hold races every Friday on the river, weather permitting.

Thane M. Jones, Judge of Probate whose offices were damaged in the Payson block fire, has removed his office to the Court House first door to the left, North entrance.

Miss Jean D. Gillis of Florenceville has been appointed head of the Domestic Science Department of the York School at Fredericton, at a salary of $600 a year.

We learn that Miss Berenice Mallory, daughter of J. B. Mallory of Jacksonville, who graduated last year from the Sackville Ladies' College, is most acceptably filling the position of teacher of domestic science in the Methodist College at Stanstead, Quebec.

E. W. Mair has secured the services of one of the SEVEN SUTHERLAND SISTERS for a demonstration and instruction in the care of the hair, all of next week commencing Monday, 8th inst. This lady has a most marvellous growth of hair which is due to the treatment she prescribes.

The last word in the art of motion photography would appear to have been reached in the filming of Dickens' well known "David Copperfield" which will be shown at the Bijou on Friday, both afternoon and evening. Not a single detail that could in any way contribute to the completeness of this picture has been overlooked. The evening show commences at 6.30.

Geo. E. Wilkinson of Centreville was in town Monday on his way to Portland. At Portland Mr. Wilkinson will take a course in practical garage work. On his return he will open a garage and auto livery at Centreville. He has already bought a Ford automobile from R. L. Phillips for use in livery work, etc.

Mr. P. Gorey, of Johnville, is the owner of the new well drilling outfit that has just been turned out by the Woodstock Foundry Co., Ltd. The machine was taken through town a few days ago and stopped near the Bank of Montreal where it was viewed by a large number of people. Mr. Gorey has several contracts for wells and with his new apparatus is in a position to give excellent service.

The Payson building on the corner of Main and Connell streets was almost completely destroyed by fire Friday morning. The building was occupied by James McManus, dry goods; A. D. Nicholson, tailor; Farmers' Telephone Office, C. P. R. Telegraph Office; Frank Boyer, insurance; T. M. Jones, law office; and E. Campbell, photographer. The loss to the occupants was heavy and is partly covered by insurance. The building was insured. Inspectors have been here this week adjusting the losses. The building will be rebuilt and most of the former tenants will move in again.

Although the conditions are not conducive to a star brand of hockey owing to the fact that the town is without a rink, yet a number of young men have formed a team and will cross sticks with Grand Falls team at that town. The creek has offered the only opportunity for practice for the home team owing to favorable weather, but the recent snow has prevented any further practice and the boys will be handicapped in their first encounter, but they hope to make a good showing even under the adverse conditions.

Fire broke out Tuesday morning in the home of Mr. John B. Saunders, Frankville Avenue. Mr. Saunders was awakened by the smoke and found the upper hall in flames. An

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. W. S. Thompson is recovering from her recent serious illness.

Mr. B. Corkery, Jr. has returned from a brief visit in Boston.

Miss Carrie Caldwell has been visiting friends in Houlton.

Miss Marjorie Rankin is attending the Art School in St. John.

Mr. Albert Simonson came in by train from Centreville Saturday.

Mr. G. G. Scott, Fredericton, was in town over Sunday.

A. R. Foster of the C. P. R. police was in town Monday.

Mrs. Julius F. Gidren, St. John, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Alice Niell and Mrs. B. Griffiths spent last week in Presque Isle the guests of friends.

Mr. George McLean, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Currie, returned to Pictou N. S. Monday.

Frank Baker, who has been visiting in town for two weeks, returned to Presque Isle Saturday.

Mr. W. G. Jones of Kentville, N. S. has been spending two weeks in town with friends.

Mr. George McLean of Pictou, N. S. is the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. Ross Currie, at Carleton Hall.

Frank Camp who is attached to the 23rd Battery spent Sunday at his home here.

Sergeant Bell of the Signal Corps was in town Sunday the guest of friends.

Mrs. James Watts who has been quite ill for the past ten days is recovering.

Mr. Kenneth Scott and Mr. W. Crockett of Fredericton, were in town last week, guests at the Carleton.

Messrs Henry and Andrew McCain, of Florenceville were in town this week completing arrangements for their hay pressing business.

Messrs Edgar Fairweather and H. W. Frink have been in town this week adjusting the loss by the recent fire in the Payson Block.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of the Woodstock Foundry Company, Ltd.

This concern has something of especial interest for mill owners and farmers.

Alarm was rung in and the firemen were soon on the scene and their efficient work prevented the fire from spreading to adjoining buildings. The house was a complete loss but the barn and outhouses were saved, also the greater part of the furniture. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

Under the direction of Charles Preston Gerrish the Woodstock Orchestra will give a series of concerts in aid of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, in several of the larger towns of the province. Wednesday evening, Feb. 10th, these clever musicians, assisted by well known soloists, will give a concert in Hayden-Gibson Theatre. Friday evening, the 19th inst. they will be heard at Sherwood's Opera House, Centreville. The concerts in aid of the Patriotic Fund are under the patronage of Lieut. Governor Wood.

Mrs. Mary E. Kearney of Andover is bringing suit for absolute divorce from her husband, Ernest E. Kearney, whom she charges with brutal treatment and the usual statutory offence. The couple lived for a time in the Parish of Kent, Carleton Co. and were married by Rev. G. A. Giberson, Primitive Baptist minister.

Mrs. Kearney was formerly Miss Mary E. McQuarrie.

DOLLAR DAY.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. Walter Hay, who has been very ill for some weeks is able to be about again and give some attention to his duties at the public building.

Douglas Balmain of the Royal Bank of Canada staff left on Friday for Halifax where he will take a course in the military school.

E. K. Connell, who is at Salisbury Plain with the first contingent, has recently been married to Miss Ivy Nichols formerly of this town.

The young son of John Martin who has been ill with typhoid is making a satisfactory recovery. Dr. Grant is the attending physician.

Dr. W. L. Turner of Meductic has gone to New York on a professional visit to the hospitals of that city. He expects to be away for a month.

Mrs. Hugh Bruce and Miss Margaret Dibble arrived here Monday to attend the funeral of their father, J. T. A. Dibblee.

Miss Cassie Hay left Saturday for St. John where she will spend two weeks with Mrs. Harold Day Payson, before returning she will also visit friends in Pictou and Wolfville.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Carvell and Mrs. A. G. Bailey went to St. John on Monday. Mr. Carvell will go to Ottawa Wednesday to attend to his parliamentary duties.

Rev. J. B. Gough of Jacksonville, officiated in the Methodist church on Sunday in the absence of Rev. R. Opie, who held services at Upper Woodstock, Northampton and Jacksonville.

The Y. P. S. of the Methodist church held a social in the school room of the church Monday evening. A musical programme of much merit was carried out and a dainty lunch was served during the evening. The function was most enjoyable and reflects credit on the young ladies who were instrumental in making such complete arrangements.

One of the enjoyable functions of the week was a drive Wednesday evening to Scott's lumber camp about twelve miles from town. Two double teams carried the party, who were most hospitably received by the men on arrival at the camp. The party was composed of Misses Ruth McGibbon, Helen Lynott, Gretchen Smith, Hazel Atherton, Lillian Jones, Jean Tilley, Mary Balmain, Mary McLean, Bertha Sprague, Bertha Moore, Messrs. Fraser Ellis, James Lynott, G. W. McLean, George Aiton, R. Stewart, Ewart Quinn, Nash Smith, Melville Tompkins, Gibson Flemming, Hugh Flemming, Ray Plummer. Mrs. Forrester McLean and Mrs. A. McLean chaperoned the party.

DOLLAR DAY.

A drive to Deming's lumber camp and a social evening after arrival, Tuesday night, was an event of great pleasure to those who were present. Those in charge of the camp were lavish in their hospitality and left nothing undone for the comfort and pleasure of their guests. The following were invited: The Misses Jean Smith, Bertha Sprague, Mary Sprague, Jean Sprague, Grace Jones, Louise Sheppard, Alice Neales, Alice Boyer, Kathleen Lynott, Carrie Munro, Carrie Boyer, Marion Lindsay, Mabel Lister, Lou Pierce (Oak Bay), Mildred Balmain, Mildred Carvell, Alta Adams, Helen Hand, Fay Camber, Edith Dalling, Hattie Gable, Myrtle Gable, and Marion Winslow. Messrs. Dansereau, Shaw, Mitchell, Daly, Camper, Inches, McLean, Ross, Ferguson, Kelly, Aiton, K. McLean, Campbell, Atherton, Vall, ire, Mosher, G. Bailey, Bradley, E. Ellis, Morris, and R. Sprague. The chaperones were Mrs. Dr. Sprague, Mrs. Ernest Deming and Mrs. Chas. Rogers.

Mr. Hayward Dansereau entertained his friends at Carleton Hall on Tuesday evening of last week. Dancing was one of the features music being furnished by an orchestra. A dainty lunch was served and the function was a most delightful one. The following guests were present: Misses Caroline Munro, Kathleen Lynott, Mabel Lister, Caroline Boyer, Mildred Carvell, Alice Sprague, Mary Sprague, Ruth Dibblee, Mary McLean, Jean Sprague, Lillian Jones, Ruth McGibbon, Lulu Pierce, Grace Jones, Alta Adams (Fredericton), Jean Smith, Betty Doane, Gretchen Smith, Miss Sherherd, Marion Winslow, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. George Gibson, Mrs. Carl Weimore, Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Currie, Messrs. George Dibblee, Grover Campbell, Alf. Atherton, Harold Franks, H. Albert Mitchell, Charles Jones, George Aiton, A. Flewelling, Francis McLean, Walter Daley, James Lynott, Bernard Lockwood, Nash Smith, Ralph Sprague, Clyde Camber, Herb Lockwood, Gordon Bailey, Douglas Balmain, George McLean, (Pictou).

Woodstock Merchants'

$ Dollar $

Bargain Day

THURSDAY, FEB. 18

Great Big Value for your $ on that date at this Store

GARDEN BROS.

Prescription Druggists WOODSTOCK, - N. B.

A New Line of

Stamped Linens

IN

Trays, Centres Towels, Etc.

Get Your Calendar Pads for 1915

AT

MRS. J. LOANE & CO.

Woodstock Merchants'

DOLLAR DAY!

Thursday Only, February 18th

On this day we will offer Phenomenal Bargains.

Watch this space for particulars.

E. A. BURDEN, Grocer

Blankets

AND

Quilts

Laundried

Your Woollen Blankets when Laundried by us are returned as clean, fleecy and soft as when new.

The charge is small—30 cents for double blankets, 12 cents for single.

Washing bed clothes at home is a hard, tiresome job and not always satisfactory. We do them for only 15 cts each. Phone us and we will send for them.

WOODSTOCK Electric Laundry PHONE 8-11 44

Thursday February 18

$ Day

At This Store

Jas. A. Gibson

Jeweler and Optician MARRIAGE LICENSES AND WEDDING RINGS Woodstock New Brunswick

Ernest Ross, Richard Shaw, A. D. Holyoke, Mrs. A. D. Holyoke and B. Griffiths chaperoned.

Minard's Liniment Cures Bandages.

Week End Sales

MILLINERY

COMMENCING FRIDAY, DEC. 11

MY WHOLE STOCK OF Fall & Winter Hats Feathers, Wings, etc.

Will be Sold at Cost.

This is a GENUINE MARK DOWN SALE of the Newest and choicest Novelties in MILLINERY.

We will be pleased to see you at our MILLINERY PARLORS on Main Street.

Miss B. V. ESTEY

BUSINESS LOCALS

BOARDERS WANTED—at Mrs. Dunstan's, 2 Victoria Street.

FOR SALE—One double sled, or will exchange for single sleigh. Apply at office of N. B. Telephone Co. W. E. Stone, Manager. 6-2.

NOTICE.

On and after Feb. 8th the price of bread will advance one cent a loaf. GEORGE B. DENT.

Canary Birds for sale. Frank Foster, Elm Street.

FOR SALE—Pure bred long haired Scotch collie dog, finely marked yellow and white, two years old, takes him.—N. Lennox Napier, Lower Woodstock. 6-1, 9.

Belgian Minister To Woodstock Working Girl's Club

Copy Acknowledgement For Generous Donation to Unhappy Belgians.

WITH THE BELGIAN MINISTER'S WARMEST THANKS

BELGIAN RELIEF FUND

The Belgian Legation, 15 West Halkin Street, S. W.

5th Jan., 1915.

Received from the Working Girls' Club, Woodstock, New Brunswick, Canada, per Mrs. W. D. Rankin. (Pres.) the sum of forty-five dollars, subscribed to the above fund.

L. A. LALAING, Belgian Minister.

If Sergeant C. T. McLeod will write Mrs. W. C. Good, Jacksonville, he will learn something to his advantage.

DOLLAR DAY.

We announce with deep regret the death of our

MR. T. J. ALLAN DIBBLEE

which occurred Sunday, January 31st, 1915

W. F. DIBBLEE & SON