A Valuable Colt

The newest thing in the harness horse world is the refusal of $10,000 for a colt that cost only $500 and has never started in a race.

The colt is Peter Duffy, owned by Peter Horrocks and Dave Duffy, of Cleveland. They are not wealthy men but, since they have Peter Duffy, expect to be. The sire of the colt was Peter the Great and his dame Marie $500. When Peter Duffy became yearling, Nuckols began working him out half a mile at a time. Tommy Murphy, the wizard of the Grand Cir cuit, had not seen him more twice before he came through with an offer to buy him for $10,000. Horrocks and Duffy, with visions tibir Grand Circuit dream being rea-

One day Peter Duffy worked the half in 1.17. The next day he worked in 1.15, and til next 1.13. Horsemen who have seen the young star work predict he will be another lized, refused to even set a price.

Peter Volo, also si.od by Peter the Great. Anyhow, Horrocks and Duffy have entered him in about all the futurities in the country.
