

LOCAL AND GENERAL

William Donovan & Son, Canterbury will hold their military opening commencing April 10th.

The potato market in Houlton advanced this week and buyers are paying $1.10 a barrel. This is best price during 1915.

Mr. John DeLong was the winner of the cushion, which has been on exhibition in Bailey Bros. window. The sum of $12.75 was realized for the benefit of the Red Cross Society.

At the session of the Methodist Sunday School on Sunday last, Miss Ella Smith, who has been a teacher in the school for a number of years, was presented by the school with a beautiful mahogany serving table.

Easter was observed with special music in all the churches. The musical portions of the services were on an elaborate scale. The chaste decorations added to the effect of the appropriate numbers.

R. L. Phillips of Fredericton was in Hartland part of Monday and Tuesday and sold four Ford automobiles. J. B. Curtis, M.D., Havelock Hoyt, Hartley Hoyt and Albion R. Foster were the purchasers.—Observer.

"The finest hams that we handle," said a leading produce dealer to The Mail recently, "are put up by the Imperial Packing Company of Woodstock. Their goods are the best on the market and sell at a very reasonable price. I believe that if this concern had the necessary capital it would control the trade of the Maritime Provinces."—F. ton Mail.

The concert at the A. M. E. church Tuesday evening, was a splendid success. The church was packed to the door. The numbers were enthusiastically received and the solo work was especially fine. Great credit is due Miss Marion Diamond and Mrs. H. L. Wallace of Houlton who were the pianists and had charge of the program. Receipts were $43.45.

"Clothes" the celebrated society drama will be produced by the Famous Players Film Co. at the Bijou, Friday, April 9th. This is one of the most famous of all the period plays. Don't miss it. The Bijou people are arranging for the "Hazard of Helen," the most thrilling of any series now being shown. It will probably be produced on Monday of each week.

MARRIED

The marriage took place in the Methodist church, on Tuesday afternoon, of Miss Ella A. Smith, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William F. Smith, and Mr. James Stewart Carr of Boston, son of Mr. James Carr of this town. The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion with spring flowers. The officiating clergymen were the Rev. R. G. Fulton of Chatham, and Rev. Richard Ople, pastor of the Methodist church here. The bride, becomingly attired in a gown of light blue silk poplin, with black hat, and carrying a bouquet of white roses, entered the church on the arm of her cousin, Mr. W. S. Fisher of St. John preceded by the ushers, the choir singing the hymn, How Welcome is the Call. During the service the choir rendered the chant, God Be Merciful To Us and Bless Us, and while the bridal party were signing the register, the hymn, Oh Perfect Love was sung. The bridal couple were unattended. The ushers were Messrs Gordon Bailey and George Dibble. After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Harry Smith, Connell St., where Miss Smith has made her home for the past year. A large number of guests called during the afternoon to offer congratulations to the happy couple. The house was beautifully trimmed with spring flowers and ferns. Those assisting at the reception were Mrs. F. H. J. Dibble, Mrs. A. D. Holyoke, Mrs. A. Wilmet Hay, Mrs. Allan Smith, Mrs. Wm. Balmain, and Mrs. George Balmain, assisted by the Misses Gretchen Smith, Muriel Smith, Mary Balmain Hazel Atherton, Jean Smith, Elizabeth Ketchum and Gladys Smith. The bride's going away suit was of brown cloth with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Carr left on the evening express on a trip to Montreal, after which they will reside in Winthrop, Mass.

If You Don't Like Pills

—and we never saw anyone who did—you will doubtless be pleased to know of something better.

For instance—dainty tablets of milk chocolate containing a tasteless laxative, so that if you did not know it was medicine you would think you were eating sweet chocolate. That is the way
