Tories in Prince Edward Island Have Close Call

Their Majority of 26 is Cut to 4—Liberals Well Satisfied with Result—Two Members of Executive and Speaker Defeated

Charlottetown, Sept. 16.—The Mathieson government had a close call today, its majority of 26 in 1912 being reduced to a bare working majority of four—and that doubtful. The Liberals are well satisfied over the result of the contest against two governments.

Complete returns give 17 Conservatives and 13 Liberals.

The commissioner of public works, Hon. James McNeill, had a majority of only six in Summerside, and a recount may possibly change the result, as it is said a number of spoiled ballots have been counted in.

In a number of districts there are good chances of unseating members for corrupt practices, if the Liberals decide to take action.

Premier Mathieson and his colleague had a good majority, but Speaker Wyatt was defeated by 82 votes, and two members of the executive, L. L. Jenkins and J. N. McDonald met defeat, the former by 140 votes.

Another member of the executive, Dalton, had a small majority against Benjamin Rogers, the Liberal leader. In Charlottetown, Paton and Jenkins, Conservatives, won out by 90 and 35 respectively, but in 1912 the government majorities were 1,063 and 369.

In the third district of Queens, Chandler, of Charlottetown, who took the automobile pledge, was defeated by the activity of certain members of the Automobile Association by a majority of 14. In other districts the agitation against the automobiles assisted the Liberals, but dissatisfaction against the general policy of the government, especially among the farmers, was the main cause of the greatly reduced Conservative majority.

The weather was fine and a large vote was polled. Liquor and money were used freely by the Conservatives in a number of districts.

A HOT CAMPAIGN

The campaign was the fiercest and hottest field for many years. It was marked near the close by a very bitter act by the premier upon the Liberal leader, Hon. Benjamin Rogers, at a public meeting in Charlottetown the premier charged Mr. Rogers with neglecting his duty as governor by not serving wines to the governor general at Government House, during his excellency's visit here. He also charged him with failing to extend proper hospitality to the members of the Royal Trades Commission, with uttering disloyal sentiments.

Of course all these charges were made for political effect and easily answered. The governor general intimated, before coming to the island, that as it was a prohibition province, he did not desire wines to be served. Mr. Rogers never uttered a disloyal sentiment. He had simply spoken against militarism and this was two years before the war, now being waged, broke out. Ever Conservatives admitted that the premier made a tactical blunder in his attack on the ex-governor.

All the dominion candidates took an active part in the fight. The premier rang the charges on the loyalty cry, using the argument that as the provincial government was in close touch with the British and Canadian naval and military authorities, that it would be unwise to disturb these relations by a change of government, especially if the new ex-governor, a strong prohibitionist. At a public meeting in Charlottetown the premier charged Mr. Rogers with neglecting his duty as governor by not serving wines to the governor general at Government House, during his excellency's visit here. He also

A DISGRACEFUL GAME

(Amherst Guardian)

There are some indications in news papers supporting the Ottawa Government that if an election is held this autumn the people are to be urged to support the Ministry on the score that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is "disloyal." In other words, the old "game" is to be tried once more. It would be a pretty spectacle, indeed, Hon. Pierre E. Blondin and Hon. Louis Coderre, with their Cabinet colleagues and supporters, advising the electors to scorn the "disloyal" Laurier! It was necessary for Canadians, said Mr. Blondin on one occasion, to shoot holes in the British flag in order to breathe the air of liberty—but vote against the "disloyal" Laurier and keep Mr. Blondin, Mr. Coderre and their associates in power. The alliance between the Conservative leaders and the Nationalist leaders in 1911 and the utterances of Mr. Blondin, Mr. Coderre, Mr. Seigny and their comrades are matters of record—but vote against the "disloyal" Laurier.

Are Trained Officers Not Wanted?

(Chatham World)

The 55th and 64th battalions have been completed, and a new one for New Brunswick and P. E. Island is to be raised. Mr. George W. Fowler, M. P., has been given the command. He was formerly an officer of the King's County Hussars. He is a good officer, no doubt, but he has not been trained for the duties he will have to perform as commanding officer. We have here, in Chatham, an officer who has been trained for such duties, one who has commanded a regiment, one who has graduated from the Staff College with distinction. He long ago offered his services to the Minister of Militia, for any staff position, and his services have not been accepted. The Government spent thousands in training him for staff duties, and keeps on appointing men who have to be trained before they will be fit for service, thereby

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Sentinel
September 28th, 1895.

Robert Thompson left for Boston, Wednesday morning, where he will take a three years course in the Boston Dental College; his brother John accompanied him for a short visit to the Hub.

Hartland has completed its system of waterworks, with a reservoir capable of holding 125,000 gallons, supplied from a spring that now when most springs and wells are dry, gives 500 gallons an hour; with pipes laid for protection and supply along all the streets; with 9 hydrants and 600 feet hose, a cart for which is being built by John Loane Woodstock. The pressure in the village is 52 lbs. and the water goes well over the highest buildings. The residents are fast having the water service introduced into their homes. The entire cost was about $6,000.

Having this invaluable institution in working order the people seem determined immediately to have introduced an electric light system.

With the before mentioned evidence of advanced civilization, with the many new buildings, including Taylor's imposing brick block, now nearly completed; with the streets levelled, Hartland will be indeed a model village, not to forget the bridge which sooner or later must come.

We should mention that Hartland has now telephone connection with Woodstock, which is a great convenience.

BATH.

Coun. A. M. Giberson, met with a serious loss last Thursday night, when two of his barns, wagon house and hog house, went up in smoke; one of the barns was filled with hay and grain, the other was his horse barn. There were two sleds and wood cutter burned, also one hog; they succeeded in saving the others. His son Chipman was quite badly burned about the face and neck; we hope it will not prove serious.

NO MAN KNOWS

When the thread of life that connects him with the here and now, will be broken. It may be a quarter of a century away, or it may be a quarter of an hour. Every man knows that in the event of his death, certain things will happen. One of the things which he fully understands will occur, is the slow and painful reorganization of his home and family. Whether this rearrangement be creditable to him or not is his problem, one more easily solved by the aid of insurance in the North American Life.

Something new and different, something delightful and healthful, something instantly successful. You do not have to wait, and linger and pay out a lot of money. You can stop it over night—and I will gladly tell you how—FREE. I am not a doctor and this is not a so-called doctor's prescription—but I am cured and my friends are cured, and you can be cured. Your suffering will stop at once like magic.

I Am Free—You Can Be Free

My catarrh was filthy and loathsome. It made me ill. It dulled my mind. It undermined my health and was weakening my will. The hawking, coughing, spitting, sneezing, and my foul breath and disgusting habits made even my loved ones avoid me secretly. My delight in life was dulled and my faculties impaired. I knew that in time it would bring me to an untimely grave, because every moment of the day and night it was slowly yet surely sapping my vitality.
