A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Grant, Greenbush, York Co., at high noon Dec. 30th, 1914, when eldest daughter, Edna Gertrude, was united in marriage to Norris F. Tompkins of the same place.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Smith Dow, pastor of the Reformed Baptist church, of Woodstock, assisted by Rev. L. T. Sahine of Norton, N. B. To the strains of the wedding march rendered by Miss Etta Grant, sister of the bride, the happy couple entered the parlor, followed by Master Burpee Dow, who carried the ring. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of white silk poplin and wore a bridal veil, carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations. After the ceremony about forty invited guests sat down to a sumptuous repast. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents including silverware, money china, linen, etc. Their many friends wish them much happiness. SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound-Their Own Stories Here Told.

Edmonton, Alberta, Can. - "I think it is no more than right for me to thank you for what your kind advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have done for me. "When I wrote to you some time ago I was a very sick woman suffering from female troubles. I had organic inflammation and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed, and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now, after using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman. I most heartily recommend your medicine to all women who suffer with female troubles. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills, and think they are fine. I will never be without the medicine in the house."-Mrs. Frank Emsley, 903 Columbia Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta.

The Other Case.

Beatrice, Neb .- "Just after my marriage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then.

ADVENT CONFERENCE

The regular annual session of the N. B. Adventist Christian Conference, which was held in Woodstock, Dec. 31 to Jan. 3, was one of the most profitable held in recent years. There was a very good attendance from the opening of the Conference and an aggressive tone characterized the social and preaching services and the business session. Plans pair; Mrs Burgess, 1 pair Miss were developed for the strengthening of the Conference work and considerable money will be raised for this pair; Mrs. Burtt, 2 pairs; A Fried, purpose. Delegates, visitors and ministers were present from the different sections of N. B. and Maine. Their presence and assistance gave an enthusiasm to the gaeherings and was highly appreciated by the local church and their acting pastor, who recently came to Woodstock from New Haven, Conn. A larger and better service for the Master in this section of the Lord's vineyard, was the keynote of the Conference.
