The "new dancing craze" is becoming very popular in Houlton. There are already four classes, and, it is said, more classes are to be formed. At least two of the pupils of one of the classes have "signed" to give lessons in nearby towns.—Houlton Pioneer.

The big attraction at the Bijou Friday (tonight) is the eminent dramatic star William Farnum in the Redemption of David Corson. This is a story of soul-stirring emotions depicting the everlasting conflict between the Human and Divine. These Friday night attractions by the Famous Players Film Co., are drawing immense crowds taxing the capacity of the house.

He was brought back to St. John on the incoming Boston train and is at present in a critical condition in the General Public Hospital.

The soft weather of the past week has been bad for the roads and business of the country, but it has given a number of autoists an opportunity for some long drives. The light cars have been particularly in evidence. On the 19th, Everett Ridley drove his Ford car from Woodstock to Lakeville and return. A day or two previously L. H. London of Bloomfield was in town with his Ford car.

Wakes Up The Liver

People are becoming more sensible all the time—learning more about the importance of taking care of themselves, and how to do it. They are learning, for instance, not to resort to harsh, gripping cathartics for cleansing the system, when it is so much better to use a pleasant effervescent drink.

You can prepare a correctly proportioned, pleasant mineral water by dissolving a few teaspoonfuls of

in a glass of water. Drink it before breakfast and it wakes up the liver. Really, this is a fine thing for people of sedentary habits, to keep the bowels regular without causing the slightest irritation. And the effect on the liver is much better than ordinarily produced by calomel (which Penslar Liver Saline of course does not contain).

The little aluminum measuring cup that comes with the bottle is always at hand, clean and sanitary, for getting exactly the right amount. All these Penslar Remedies (more than 100 of them) are worthy of your full confidence. Remember the name—Penslar—and tell us your needs. We'll help you select the right remedy. A 25c bottle of Penslar Liver Saline will convince and please you.
