

LOCAL AND GENERAL

HOW TO ENTER THE SENTINEL CONTEST

Nominate yourself or a friend at once — TO-DAY — THIS MINUTE. Call up on the Telephone or drop a line to the Sentinel and you will be supplied with all the necessary information and stationery. Get your friends and acquaintances who are not taking the Sentinel to subscribe. If they are already subscribers get them to pay all past due subscription accounts and then subscribe for a year or more in advance. See everybody—it makes no difference where they live. You will receive credit for the money turned in by or for you. Write your friends—all of them. Early energy spells success. Arrange with your favorite organization to help you win the Capital Prize. A few short weeks of hustling will make you the winner of a prize of which you will always be proud. Your friends will subscribe for the Sentinel and they will be pleased to help you. Give them the opportunity. Clip out the nomination blank and send it to the Sentinel. Bring it in person if you can. Everything will be made plain to you. You can win a Piano if you work a few weeks.

W. A. Thompson, proprietor of the Carleton Hotel, has bought an Overland automobile. Several new cars have been brought in the town and vicinity during the past week.

The marriage of Mrs. Carrie E. Chapman of Woodstock and Mr. Joseph W. McNis is solemnized at the home of the bride, Thursday, June 24th. Rev. F. L. Orchard officiated.

Here's an opportunity you cannot afford to miss—Every Ladies Suit or Coat is being discounted either 25 per cent or 33 1/3 per cent, for cash. In addition we give 3000 votes in our "Piano Contest" with each Ladies Suit or Coat sold. Sale commences Saturday, July 2nd. We want all contestants in our Piano Contest to bring on their votes on Wednesday, July 7th, and have them recorded. ASK FOR PIANO VOTES. If you do not want to be a contestant give them to a friend. THE JOHN McLAUCHLAN CO., LTD. Ladies and Men's Wear.

A prominent young business man has qualified for overseas service so far as shooting ability is concerned. He took serious objection to pigeons eating the food put out for the chickens and brought into play a 22 rifle—when the smoke cleared away three columbids had taken their last long flight. Next.

Mary Pickford, "the Queen of the movies," will be at the Bijou Friday as "Miss Nellie," a drama of hearts and swords. This is Miss Pickford's greatest success and the fame of the drama and reputation of the little leading lady will no doubt draw capacity houses. Mr. Owen Moore, who plays Charles III, contributes to make the play one of unusual interest and merit.

In the St. John Probate Court letters testamentary of the will of Dr. George Allen Black have issued to his sister, Mrs. Bessie M. Sadler of Perth, N. B. The estate goes to his children, Mary, Alice and Grace, who during their minority are to be in the guardianship of Samuel Denman of Buxton, Sussex, England. Urban J. Sweeney is proctor.

There was a pleasant gathering at Fisher's restaurant Monday evening. It was a banquet tendered Messrs. Hazen Flemming, H. A. Bell and Clayton Flemming, who were each married Wednesday. The young men are prominent in K. of P. circles and the affair was arranged by fellow members. The occasion proved very delightful for all and especially pleased were the young benedicts in whose honor it was held. Mr. A. D. Holyoke was the toastmaster and was very happy in his remarks in discharging his duties. During the evening music was furnished and especially pleasing were the brief speeches of several of those present. It was a late hour when the party dispersed all wishing the young "husbands" a future of successful and happy married life.

MARRIED

KERTSON-DIONNE.

Dionne's Hotel, Perth, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday, June 23rd, at one o'clock, when the Rev. Gordon Pringle joined in marriage Miss Olive Dionne, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dionne, and Roy Kertson of the Bank of Montreal at Quebec City. The bride who was unattended looked very pretty in a dress of white silk Crepe de Chine with shadow lace trimmings. The wedding was witnessed by relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kertson motored to Arrostook Junction where they took the train for Quebec City where they are to reside. The brides going away suit was of Belgian blue cloth with Black and White hat.

At the Methodist Parsonage, Woodstock, June 28th, 1915, by the Rev. Richard Opie, John L. Fletcher to Miss Pearl L. Everett, of Riley Brook, Vie. Co.

On Wednesday morning, in the United Baptist Church, by Rev. F. L. Orchard, Miss Aurilla Arnold, eldest daughter of Mrs. George Arnold, was united in marriage to Mr. Clayton Flemming, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Flemming. The bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Guy Arnold, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. S. Pugsley. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with roses, ferns and palms. The bride wore her travelling suit of putty colored cloth, with black and white hat. The young couple were unattended. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on the morning train for St. John.

On Wednesday afternoon, in the same church, by Rev. F. L. Orchard, the marriage took place of Miss Estella Jule, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Jule and Mr. Hazen Flemming, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Flemming. The bride, who was unattended, entered the church on the arm of her father, Mr. T. H. Jule, attired in a navy blue tailored suit, with sand and blue hat. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on the evening express for St. John, Fredericton and other cities on a short honeymoon trip.

Mr. Harry L. Bell and Miss Cora Bull, were united in marriage Wednesday at 3.30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Mr. Haig, of Richmond, officiating. The couple will reside in Woodlawn where they have many friends who will wish them a long and happy married life.

The marriage of Mr. Harry Irvine and Miss Emma Clark was solemnized, on Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. F. L. Orchard, officiating.

MILITARY NOTES OF LOCAL INTEREST

Lieut. C. H. Bull of Woodstock, has resigned his commission and enlisted with the 55th Battalion as a private. He was an officer in the 6th Regiment and is the second officer to resign a commission and go in the ranks of the 55th Battalion, the other being Lieut. Charles Hobkirk of Fredericton.

Pte. Walter Muckler, Grand Falls, who enlisted in the 55th Battalion, was among those chosen as a guard of honor for H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught in his visit to Camp Sussex.

Among those who have left St. John with the 26th Battalion were Leo Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bell and Walter and Ellery Price, sons of Moses Price, Grand Falls.

While these partings are very hard, the parents hope that their sons may be spared to return to them, and are proud to know that they are willing to do their duty.

The men at Camp, Sussex, now number 810, and several hundred more will be required to bring the corps up to strength.

A regimental band is in course of organization at Camp, Sussex. Base ball games are a daily feature at the camp. A battalion league has been formed and good players compose the different teams.

Lieut. H. A. McCleary, 76th Regt. was here Thursday and inspected Cadets No. 318 at the armory. Capt. W. B. Manser and Lieuts A. C. Brewer and D. C. Moores were in command at the inspection. Lieut. McCleary was well pleased with the efficiency of the young soldiers.

DECLINE SUBSTITUTES

F. A. Barbour, C. E., of Boston was here last week looking over the water situation and the possibility of a new town supply. Accompanied by the water committee he visited several places adjacent to the town and examined conditions. Among the possible sources of supply are Bull's Creek, Payson's Lake, Connell Park, Upper Island, McQuarrie Brook, Marvin Brook, Cowan Lake and Grafton Flat. Mr. Barbour will have a report ready for the first council meeting in July.

JUST THINK WHAT IT WOULD MEAN IF EACH FRIEND OF THE CANDIDATES, IN THE SENTINEL CONTEST, APPOINT HIMSELF OR HERSELF A COMMITTEE OF ONE TO GET A SUBSCRIPTION FROM SOME FRIEND OR NEIGHBOR. JUST ONE YEARLY SUBSCRIPTION FROM 25 FRIENDS WOULD MEAN TWENTY FIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS. THESE SUBSCRIPTIONS WOULD MEAN FROM 75,000 TO 100,000 VOTES. ANYBODY CAN GET ONE SUBSCRIPTION.
