C. P. R. Will Not Accept Freight For Delivery to I. C. R.

Another freight embargo has been declared by the Canadian Pacific Railway. Instructions have been issued that no freight will be accepted for delivery at Montreal or St. John to the Canadian Government Railway Systems, with the exception of live stock and perishables.

H. C. Grout, general superintendent of the Atlantic division, said this morning that the C.P.R. is in excellent position to handle all its own traffic, in spite of the great increase in business, and has been doing so without delay. Owing to the great congestion which has developed on other lines, in the United States, in Ontario, and along the I.C.R., much traffic which would ordinarily go over these lines was being handled by the C.P.R. This made it necessary a short time ago to declare an embargo against shipments from connecting lines and now it has been necessary to refuse shipments for delivery to the I.C.R.

POTATO GROWERS' ASSOCIATION FORMED

Instructive Addresses by Prominent Officials—Officers Elected

The New Brunswick Potato Growers' Association was formed Wednesday of last week, at a convention of prominent potato growers. Between fifty and sixty were present and keen interest was taken in the proceedings. Several exhibits of farm machinery and potatoes were displayed in the exhibition hall of the vocational school, where the meeting was held.

IMPORTANT ADDRESSES.

At the afternoon session addresses were delivered by G. C. Cunningham, of the department of agriculture; W. W. Hubbard and Prof. W. S. Blair, of Kentville, N. S. The session held in the evening was quite largely attended and the speakers got a most attentive hearing. A. D. Holyoke presided. A committee was appointed to nominate the officers of the new association and to report at Thursday's session.

Hon. J. A. Murray, who was to speak on Agriculture in New Brunswick, was unable to be present and J. B. Daggett made a few remarks in which he expressed the regret of the acting premier at not being able to be present owing to his duties at Fredericton. Mr. Daggett had great faith in the agricultural possibilities of New Brunswick as compared with other provinces he had visited and felt that the agricultural wave was on and was here to stay and increase. Formerly agriculture was only a side line of the lumbering interest but our people are now turning to agriculture, having reached the place where they are of the conviction that agriculture is awakening and deepening the interest of our young men along scientific lines. We are speedily coming into our own, said Mr. Daggett, and taking an interest not in evidence years ago.

An instructive address by W. T. Macoun, dominion horticulturist, Ottawa, was heard with deep interest. He spoke on The Potato and Its Culture. NEEDS CAREFUL STUDY. The potato crop, he said, was greatly affected by cultivation and needed study always. "New Brunswick," said the speaker, "has as large if not larger yield of potatoes per acre than any other province. In a five years' test of 800 varieties at Ottawa the highest yield was 560 bushels per acre. We imported over 200 varieties of seed from Great Britain and Europe and few compared favorably with our own varieties and at the end of four years we eliminated all but four varieties." He showed the yield per acre from several places and seed from Fredericton was one of the leaders in production. He advised changing seed every year to keep up the standard. Green tops, till the frost cuts them down, indicate very high vitality. Loose soil, with plenty of moisture, is best for potatoes. This has been proven in Alberta, where they get immense yields by irrigation. Potatoes are a rapid growing crop and if the seed is in good condition the growth will not be checked. One or two extra harrowings will repay in the crop gathered. Clover sod gives best results, and the seed of strong vitality will get an early start. Experiments had shown the best results were obtained by planting in the last week of May in an average season. He attached great importance to cutting and planting the seed soon after or as quickly as possible. Seed covered with land plaster will make a difference on the yield of sixteen bushels per acre. The highest yield is from planting one inch deep. He would suggest from five to six inches deep for commercial crops. NO TOPS, NO POTATOES.

He strongly advised the use of Bordeaux mixture to prevent bugs, for no tops, no potatoes. Always keep free from insect pest. Paris green and arsenic of lead make a good mixture.

E. W. Jarvis spoke on Potatoes and Community Financing.

A meeting was held in the Hayden-Gibson Thursday evening at which Dr. C. C. James, Canadian commissioner of agriculture spoke. There were also other addresses.

The Potato Growers' Association

at their meeting Thursday, afternoon, elected the following officers: T. W. Caldwell, Florenceville, president; Donald Innis, Tobique River, vice-president; G. C. Cunningham, secretary; W. H. Moore, Scotch Lake, treasurer; C. M. Shaw, Victoria, auditor.

Addresses were delivered at this session by W. W. Hubbard, G. C. Cunningham and Prof. Wm. Stewart. H. H. Hatfield was unable to be present.

A public meeting was held in the evening in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre with Mayor W. S. Sutton as chairman. A short musical program was carried out and addresses were made by J. D. McKenna and J. H. Grisdale, director Dominion Experimental Farms, Ottawa.

Mr. McKenna gave a very fine address on The War, dwelling especially on methods of recruiting. He said some women were overcome with the thought if they told their boy to enlist they did not love him.

"They have no more love for their boy," said the speaker, "than the woman who tells her one, two or three sons to go." Mr. McKenna received a most attentive hearing and was warmly applauded at the close of his address.

GREATER PRODUCTION. Mr. Grisdale in speaking on production, said our farmers should be induced to take an active part in production. In the effort made the Canadian farmer responded nobly and last year put in such a crop as was never before known in Canada. It will be the greatest in the history of the country and we were able to sell it and materially help the Allies in the great struggle now going on.

Every farmer should do the best he can in the coming year. The returns from the prairie provinces showed that three transcontinental railways were unable to move more than half the crop. Millions of bushels of wheat are now lying unprotected but this is gradually being overcome and our farmers are asked to make a further effort.

So many men sent overseas has been a great drawback. There are complaints of scarcity of men in every country. This difficulty has been overcome in many countries by the women who, near the seat of war, are taking up agriculture in nearly every line of work. Our Canadian women are up to present not being called upon to take part in helping production. While we have disadvantages, we also have advantages in abundance of horses, working horses are low in price and farmers can use them.

In the eastern part of Canada many farmers use one horse, and there is no reason why one man could not use four horses and the effort would be cut one-half the cost of production. Work on the farm must be done more cheaply and this can be done with larger horses and more of them.

There is no difficulty in securing machinery and it is up to us to use the advantages at our command today. The farmer is the man upon whom the country depends.

Mr. Grisdale gave a very interesting account of the work at the experimental farms and the different experiments that can always furnish information to any farmer requiring it. He spoke of the illustration stations in Quebec and their success. These stations would probably be established in the maritime provinces. The matter is now under consideration.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF CANADIANS' GRAVES SENT TO RELATIVES

Registration Commission Performs a Kindly Act

The following from the Listening Post, published at the front by the British Expeditionary Force, is of interest to all Canadians, particularly those whose husbands or sons have made the supreme sacrifice in the great war:

Those at the front probably know of the good work being done by the Graves Registration Commission in recording the location of the graves of our fallen comrades. The chaplain must report to them every burial he conducts, with the location of the grave. But now the commission is prepared to do more. They will furnish to the wife, mother, or other near relatives of a deceased man, a photograph of his grave. The relatives must make application to the chaplain of the unit to which the deceased was attached, giving his name, rank, number, etc., and the date of his death. The writer had occasion recently to apply for one of these photographs on behalf of the father of a man in the Seventh who died at a clearing station in November. He found that the photograph had been taken, was on record, and could be sent immediately. These facts are not generally known and the "Listening Post" could help materially in making them known in Canada, and will be rendering a much appreciated service to those who have lost friends in this struggle.

Ornamental Fencing that keeps its good appearance

Almost any kind of fence looks well when it's first put up; it's only first quality fence, such as the Maritime, that keeps its good looks in spite of the years. The quality is put into the fence and naturally the fence shows it in the wear. Ignoring altogether the temptation to make a few extra cents by skimping and cheapening on material, we use only large, strong, resilient No. 9 wire—heavily galvanized. Rare, indeed, is the exception where wire so strong, so smooth and so heavy is used for ornamental fences and gates. At the same time it's the best in the long run—for it retains its good appearance longer than the house. Maritime Ornamental fencing enhances the appearance of your home and thus adds appreciably to its value.
