PROMISE OF BETTER THINGS

The result of the bye-election in the County of Peel, for the Local Legislature of Ontario, is a notable event in Canadian politics. The election of the Liberal candidate by a majority of 306, which means a turn-over of over a thousand votes is very gratifying from a party point of view, but, it is not as a party victory that the election in Peel is alone to be regarded or is most significant. It is, first of all, a smashing defeat for the rascals in politics and a great victory for decency and honor in public life.

Something dropped in Vancouver also. The defeat of one of the Cabinet Ministers by the unparalleled majority of 4180 and the saving of another by the bare margin of nine votes, indicate the desperate straits of Toryism in British Columbia. Well might Sir Richard McBride exclaim: "After me the deluge!"

Germans, the most virulent and dangerous alien element, are occupying positions of important trust under the Canadian government. Hon. J. D. Hazen's private secretary is a German employee at a fat salary. Why shouldn't Canadians be exasperated over the danger and disloyalty of having Germans form an element in the administration of affairs? Canadians can have no position of any kind in Germany except in a jail. We look to the government for light and leading—but what of Mr. J. D. Hazen?

Reports of casualties to Woodstock boys at the front will come fast enough. It is a heartless thing to invent and have published such stories without any foundation whatever.

Men are smarter than women. A man has sense enough to be sacred when he stands up to be married.

Lieut. Col. Beer, officer commanding the 104th Battalion, and Lieut. Col. Guthrie will address a Recruiting meeting at Florenceville Monday evening and at Woodstock Tuesday evening.

Lt. Col. Beers, officer commanding the 104th Battalion arrived here Wednesday night on his first tour of inspection.

L. H. London, the Studebaker automobile man, is evidently finding no trouble in selling this well known car. In one day he disposed of three. Dr. Jewett getting a 50 H.P. 6; Clithrough a 40 H.P. 4; Frank Carpenter, of Weston, 40 H.P. 4. Mr. London has also recently sold one of these cars to James W. Gallagher.

OBITUARY

James McCaffery, son of the late Philip McCaffery, died after a brief illness, of pneumonia, at Monticello, Maine, on Thursday, aged 63 years. Deceased was born in Woodstock and resided here until several years when he was employed at Monticello. Thomas L. McCaffery, a brother, of the Customs, is the only member of the family now living. The funeral was held on Saturday morning. A high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Gertrude's church by Rev. J. J. Ryan, and interment made in Catholic cemetery. The pall bearers were J. E. Lamer, Alex. Beaton, M. Ryan and J. S. McManus.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS FITTINGLY OBSERVE 52ND ANNIVERSARY

A Program of Brilliant Addresses—Grand Chancellor McLellan Present—Pythian Sisters Provide Sumptuous Banquet

The members of Ivanhoe Lodge, Knights of Pythias, with the very able assistance of the ladies of Rowena Temple, Pythian Sisters, under the direction of their illustrious Chief, Mrs. Fred Moores, did themselves proud on Wednesday evening of last week, when they celebrated the 52nd anniversary of the founding of the Pythian order by a banquet in their Castle Hall. Eighty-five Knights, including a large delegation from Hartland, sat down to one of the best spreads that has been partaken in Woodstock for many a day. The tables were beautifully decorated and the ladies of the Temple were uniting in their efforts to satisfy the gourmets who lined their sides. When the good things had been disposed of and the cigars were in order there was a round of toasts, starting with "The King."

"The British Empire and her Allies" was responded to by Mr. Fred Squires whose selection for this purpose could not have been improved on, for his remarks were highly patriotic and made in language that but few public speakers have at their command. He said that he considered, and it was borne out by the great minds of the world, that today Canada was the British Empire—a full-grown whelp of the lion. The British peoples were the mightiest peoples that the sun has ever shone on. Germany has said that the time has come when, according to the regular course of history, Great Britain must fall, but, said the speaker, Great Britain will not fall, for, until all other empires of the past, her foundation is not built on military organization, but on love, honor and loyalty. Germany has not the money, the soldiers or the grit to kill her. The British soldier has always gone to battle as the bearer of the Cross, and when dying did so as a Martyr. Grand Chancellor H. H. McLellan of St. John, in replying to the toast to the Grand Lodge, said much of his time has been taken up with recruiting and he had not given as much attention to the order as he would like. He had been helping to send men to the front. He could not go himself, but had sent his two sons.

Under present conditions there had been no new lodges instituted to the domain since his election, but the order was holding its own, and many lodges were making gains. Speaking of the work of the Pythian Sisters, he said there had not been much interest in the matter in St. John, but he was going to do the petticoats and become a "sister" when the new Temple was instituted at Hartland on the 7th of March. He did not know how he would look in skirts, but he was going to take a chance. Out of the 52 years that the order of Knights of Pythias has been in existence 46 of these had seen a flourishing brotherhood in New Brunswick. The insurance branch of the order had paid out over $40,000,000, and there were now 750,000 members under the Supreme Lodge.

"Brighton Lodge" was the next toast proposed and called for responses from Chancellor A. A. Nevers, and Keeper of Records and Seal A. D. Colwell, who spoke of the benefits of the order and the condition of affairs in Hartland. Both spoke of the benefits to be derived from the sisters branch when the Temple is instituted in that place.

"Visiting Brothers" was well looked after by Messrs Day of Moncton and Strain of St. John lodges.

Major Lauchlan of the 104th answered to the toast of "Our Boys in Khaki" during which he remarked that he had given himself and all his boys to the cause of the empire.

"The Professions" drew forth a neat speech, interlarded with humorous anecdotes, from Mr. W. P. Jones.

"Tom" Nodding, in his own inimical way led the replies to "The Mercantile Interests," and was followed by Messrs Dent and Creighton in short addresses.

The singing of the National Anthem about 1.30 brought a most enjoyable function to a close.

The Third Meeting of the Woodstock District of the Methodist church will be held at Debec. It will open with an Evangelistic service on Monday, March 6th, at 7.30 p.m. There

MEMORIAL SERVICE

On Sunday last at the Parish Church, a memorial service was held for Lance-Sergeant James Allison Bull. A large congregation of his friends and connections, including his most intimate relations, assembled to pay respect to his memory and to participate in the last rites of the Church on his behalf. Special psalms and lessons were used, while the hymns sung were the favorite ones of Sergt Bull. The Rector gave an address in appreciation of his memory and pointed out the inspiration of the heroic deaths of those who have died that others might live.

Personal Auto Talks.

No. 7

Why am I in a better position to serve an intending buyer than any competitor?

1st—Because of greater knowledge gained by years of experience driving different makes of cars. By a large number of visits to many automobile factories, assembly plants and motor shows

2nd—Because my time is all given to the motor business and not divided with other interests

When you consider buying your car come to me for expert advice. When you have bought your "Ford" remember that I am not engaged in any other business but will have time to help a beginner with his problems
