

TO-DAY AND EVERYDAY

You'll Like the Flavor

40c, 45c and 50c lb

The Luxury of Disdain.
"What is your dog's pedigree?"
"He hasn't any," replied Mr. Grower.
"That's why I keep him around. I'm shy on distinguished ancestry myself, and I enjoy having a creature at hand whom I can contemplate with supercilious superiority."

Reversing the Usual Order.
"Do you know, Jones does some uncommonly queer things—anything to be different from other people."
"Like what, for instance?"
"Why, he's just put a mortgage on his thumbs to have repairs made on his house."

Shapes.
"I purchased a lovely round oak dining table this morning," said Mrs. Husher.
"That being the case," rejoined the star boarder, "I suppose we need expect no more square meals."

Thaws and Cold.
It is colder in a thaw than in a frost because when water freezes it parts with its heat to the air, which thus feels warmer. In a thaw heat is absorbed from the air.

All persons holding books belonging to the L. P. Fisher Public Library, are requested to return the same on the 17th, 19th and 20th days of June instant. Those not returning books will be responsible for the price of the same.

The Library will then be closed for the purpose of revising and examining books until the 18th day of June instant, on which and the two following days it will be open, and each patron may then take out two books of fiction and two books of non-fiction for the month of July, during which month the library will be closed.

Dated this first day of June, 1916
K. L. BROWN,
Librarian.

BENTON.

Capt. Alfred Howard is at present in Benton, the guest of his father-in-law, Harry Deacon.
Mr. D. W. Ols took a large party to Fredericton in his auto.
John Gibson has an auto which he is learning to drive.

Mrs. T. C. O'Neil and grand-daughter, of Bellwood, Penn., will spend the summer with Mrs. James Bolger at Benton.

Mr. Frank Murchie is moving into the house of William Haylet.
Archie Murchie has moved out of Miss McDonald's house and will reside at Murchie's Mills.

There was service in the R. C. church June 4th. The altar was beautifully decorated with apple blossoms and hydrangeas.

Our popular station agent, Hazen McQuoid, is relieving at St. Andrews. He is supplied by Frank Anderson, a Benton boy, who is pleased to be home for a time.

T. C. Bolger is in St. Andrews at present. He was only home for one night after being in Edmundston a month.

Mrs. Vera Clark had a delightful picnic for her music class and Sunday school class on June 3rd. The day was fine and the woods are very beautiful just now.

Quackery and Corns

Hundreds of treatments have been offered for corns. Some were sedatives to quiet pain. Some were acids, harsh and risky. Some were mere quackery. But one man—a famous chemist—studied corns for 25 years. And finally discovered Blue-jay. That is now the standard treatment, gentle, certain, scientific. It is used on a million corns monthly. It has stopped the corn pain instantly, 70 million times. It has ended the corns completely within 48 hours, in 91 per cent of the cases. The others take a little longer. Stop paring corns. Stop treating them in wrong ways. Use Blue-jay, and that ends them in a gentle, easy way. Prove that tonight.

Blue-jay Ends Corns

15 and 25 cents—at Druggists
Also Blue-jay Bunion Plasters
BAUER & BLACK, Chicago and New York
Makers of Surgical Dressings, etc.

NEWBURG

Maud Vandine of New Limerick, Me., who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Talbot Johnston, has returned home.

Mr. Chas. Cunningham, who has been very ill at the home of Thomas McCarron, Woodstock, returned home on Tuesday.

The people of this vicinity are very glad to see John McGuire, Sr. out again.

Annie Gallagher, teacher at Tilley spent the King's birthday at her home here.

Hugh Johnston who has been working in Millinocket returned home on Monday.

This community was shocked last Saturday evening by the sudden death of Robin, third son of Mr. Mrs. Edward Johnston, aged ten years and eight months. He was hurt while picking rocks. How it happened no one exactly knows, but it is supposed the boy fell and the waggon passed over his body, fracturing his skull so that he lived only a few hours. He leaves to mourn, his father and mother, five brothers and two sisters. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the people in their sad bereavement.

Pte. Walter Sparrow of the 65th Battery, Woodstock, spent last week with his parents here.

Mrs. T. McDade and Mrs. F. L. Ryan spent last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGuire.

CUPID

Services were held at Red Rapids on Sunday last by Rev. Fr. Ryan. The attendance was very good. Many from Perth and Tilley participated. Miss Yassa has charge of the choir which is much appreciated and deserves great credit.

The many friends of Mrs. Marshall Armstrong are sorry to learn of her recent illness which caused her removal to the Woodstock Hospital. Although the case is not serious, her recovery will be awaited anxiously.

Duncan McKellar and wife were called to Beaconsfield on Sunday last on account of the critical state of health of William Miller at his home there.

Mrs. Jas. McNair and daughter of Wapske, visited at Mrs. G. Cronkites on Saturday last, also Mrs. Charles Wright at Mrs. M. L. Jameson's the same day.

Mrs. Mary Craig and the Misses McKellar visited at Mrs. Geo. Wright's on May 27th.

Mrs. J. D. McLaughlin and Mrs. Sawyer are expected home from New York this week.

May 24th was celebrated here in a

Using the Expression "I Think."

A man was referred to as one who in his conversation never says "I think" so and so. The "think" is a mere expletive. A positive, clear headed man says what he thinks without saying he thinks. Besides, when a person promises with an "I think" it weakens his assertion because thinking is by no means an assurance of truth. If one should say "I think it will rain tomorrow" the very expression carries a doubt because mere opinion is a lame matter, and the world is chock full of opinions. If, however, he should say "It will rain tomorrow" it carries some assurance even if it is, after all, an opinion. So the man referred to in the first place doesn't say "I think," for it is entirely superfluous, and he adds force and dignity to what he says in omitting it entirely. And then when one looks at the situation calmly he will conclude that "think" is much under a cloud since very few people think exactly alike. There are ten thousand instances of this character.

Beauty in the Mexican's Voice.

Next to the love of dress, I was most struck with the fineness of the voice and the beauty of intonations of both sexes (of the Mexicans). It is a pleasure simply to listen to the sound of the language before I could attach any meaning to it. They have a good deal of the creole drawl, but it is varied, with an occasional extreme rapidity of utterance, in which they seem to skip from consonant to consonant until, lighting upon a broad open vowel, they rest upon that to restore the balance of sound. A common bullock driver delivering a message seemed to speak like an ambassador at an audience. In fact, they sometimes appeared to me to be a people on whom a curse had fallen and stripped them of every thing but their pride, their manner and their voices. "Three Years Before the Mast," by R. H. Dana

CONSCIENCE.

A man's own conscience is his sole tribunal, and he should care no more for that phantom called "opinion" than he should fear meeting a ghost if he crosses the churchyard at dark.—Lytton.

SISTER: READ MY FREE OFFER.

I am a woman.
I know a woman's trials.
I know her need of sympathy and help.
If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill health, and feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free ten days' trial of a home treatment suited to your needs: with reference to Canadian ladies who gladly tell how they have regained health, strength, and happiness by its use. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home at trifling cost, and without aid from anyone. Men cannot understand women's sufferings: what we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor; and thousands have proved there is hope even for the hopeless in my method of home treatment. If you suffer from pain in the head, back, or bowels, from nervousness, irritability, and dragging down sensations, falling or displacement of internal organs, bladder irritation with frequent urination, obstinate constipation or piles, pain in the sides regularly or irregularly, bloating or unnatural enlargements, catarrhal conditions, dyspepsia, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, fear of something evil about to happen, creeping feeling up the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion, with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast or a general feeling that life is not worth living, I invite you to send today for my complete ten days' treatment entirely free and postpaid, to prove to yourself that these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at your own home, without the expense of hospital treatment, or the dangers of an operation. Women everywhere are escaping the surgeon's knife by knowing of my simple method of home treatment, and when you are cured, my sister, I shall only ask you to pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for all—young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which specially and effectually cures green-sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women, and restores them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember it costs you nothing to give my method of home treatment a complete ten days' trial, and if you wish to continue, it costs only a few cents a week to do so, and it does not interfere with one's daily work. Is health worth asking for? Then accept my generous offer, write for the free treatment suited to your needs, and I will send it in plain wrapper by return mail. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark the places that tell your feelings, and return to me. Write and ask for the free treatment to-day, as you may not see this offer again. Address: MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box 384, WINDSOR, ONTARIO manner quite appropriate. About 25 young folks made a trip to Pettigale Lake, taking lunch and enjoying the woods and scenery for several hours, returning home much pleased with the day's sport. Mrs. M. L. James chaperoned the party.

Mr. Nicholas DeYone of Yone and Miss Florence Hembrey of Fredericton were united in marriage on Tuesday, May 30th, at the bride's home, Fredericton. They will take an extended trip through the Maritime Provinces, thence to their home here, where they will reside. The young man is a popular and prosperous farmer, and the young lady is an experienced teacher with marked ability, and is a general favorite with all who know her.

Lantic Sugar

is packed by automatic machinery in strong white cotton bags and cartons at the refinery.

This is far safer and more sanitary than sugar packed by hand in a weak paper bag which breaks at a touch. No hand touches LANTIC SUGAR until you open it yourself. Just cut off the corner of the carton and pour out the sugar as you need it.

2 and 5-lb Cartons
10 and 20-lb Bags

"The All-Purpose Sugar"

BATH

(Delayed in mail)

Mr. E. S. Secord has a number of men employed at work on his new store building, which will be used as store on first floor and as a residence on second. The building is so situated on the bank of the St. John river to command the best scenery of the river. Mr. Secord expects to have same completed by the end of next month.

The grass crop never looked better at this time of year and prospects are for an abundant crop.
Rev. G. W. Henderson has moved his family from Blaine, Me., to the Baptist parsonage here. Mr. Henderson having accepted a call to the group of churches here.

Fred C. Squires of Woodstock was a caller here at the home of his parents on Friday evening last.

J. R. H. Simms and bride arrived home Friday eve and were met at the railway station and later at their residence by a large number of their friends and heartily welcomed.

Jack Brennan has entered the Bank of Nova Scotia here and his many friends wish him every success.

The many friends of Miss Lydia Giberson are very pleased to see her around again after her severe hurt on the morning of the 24th ult. when she was thrown from a carriage and had her arm broken.

Mr. Harry Kinney of Houlton, Me. is in town calling on his many

The Founding of Frankfort.
The beautiful German commercial city of Frankfort on the Main is said to have had a curious origin.

When the Emperor Charlemagne contended with the Saxons the fortunes of war were often against him. On one occasion he was forced to retire along the banks of the Main. At the time there was a thick fog, and he was unable to find his ship or any place where his army could cross.

He was almost in despair when a doe, carrying a young one, sprang from a thicket in alarm, leaped into the stream and swam over. Charlemagne followed the example and crossed at the same place. The fog concealed the army, which escaped detection.

When the emperor reached the shore he stuck his spear into the earth and exclaimed:
"Here shall a city arise, to be called Frankfort!"

In consequence of crossing the stream he overthrew the Saxons. He then built the town, which afterward became the scene of imperial coronations and later of great commercial importance.—London Answers.

Checkers.

The German name for the game of checkers or draughts is "damenbrett"—ladies' board—probably "dame" for short. Some form of "dame" is used in almost every country where the game is played, except the English speaking countries, and the Scots still speak of the "dambrod." "Dames" was the name in England for a time, and we find it in an English book toward the end of Elizabeth's reign.

The first use of the word draughts in existing literature is about 1400. At a later day "checkers" became another name, and this word to America with the early English emigrants and there became the usual name. In England in the sixteenth century the game had three names—"dames," "draughts" and "checkers." At an earlier period "check-erie," "chequer," etc., had been English names for chess.—London Mirror.

Snails Are Queer Creatures.
The snail is found everywhere, over 3,000 species being known. Some of the large tropical snails, as bunnies, form nests of leaves, their eggs being as large as a pigeon's. The snail is extremely skillful in mending its shell, and some curious experiments may be made with them. Thus, have seen a helix of a yellow species attached to another shell of a reddish hue by cutting off the top whorl of the latter, when the snail will proceed to weld the two shells together and occupy both, using the addition as a door and possibly wondering at this sudden extension of its house. In the winter some of the snails hibernate or lie dormant until warm weather. A snail of the Philippine Islands has a faculty of throwing off its tail when seized. This is also true of a West Indian variety, stenophus.—London Telegraph.

A REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Mrs. Sheldon Spent $1900 for Treatment Without Benefit. Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Englewood, Ill. — "While going through the Change of Life I suffered with headaches, nervousness, flashes of heat, and I suffered so much I did not know what I was doing at times. I spent $1900 on doctors and not one did me any good. One day a lady called at my house and said she had been as sick as I was at one time, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her well, so I took it and now I am just as well as I ever was. I cannot understand why women don't see how much pain and suffering they would escape by taking your medicine. I cannot praise it enough for it saved my life and kept me from the Insane Hospital."—Mrs. E. SHELDON, 5667 S. Halsted St., Englewood, Ill.

Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

The Superior Humorist.
"It is the mark of the superior humorist that he arouses thought as well as laughter, and George Meredith held this to be the test of true comedy in the loftier type."—Brander Matthews in Harper's Magazine.

Threads of Khaki.
If a thread is pulled out of a khaki coat, unraveled and examined closely the khaki shade will be found to be composed of threads of bronze, light olive green, lavender and brown.

The Past.
Patience—Do you ever look back over the past? Patience—Why, bless your heart, that's the only way one can look at the past!—London Mail

The Cavity.
Cholly—The dentist told me I had a large cavity that needed filling. Ethel—Did he recommend any special course of study?

To be wise we must learn to be happy.—Maeterlinck.

TO SATISFY the demand for Gold Soap and other Procter & Gamble products, big factories have been erected in Hamilton, Canada. Canadians are shrewd buyers. They recognize the unusual value offered in the big, good cake of Gold.

Other P. & G. products made in the Hamilton Factories include Ivory Soap, P. and G.—The White Naphtha Soap, Sopaide and Pearlina.

Colds Vanquished by "TAROL"

Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Pneumonia and all affections resulting from cold, disappear promptly, thanks to this sure and efficacious remedy

TAROL

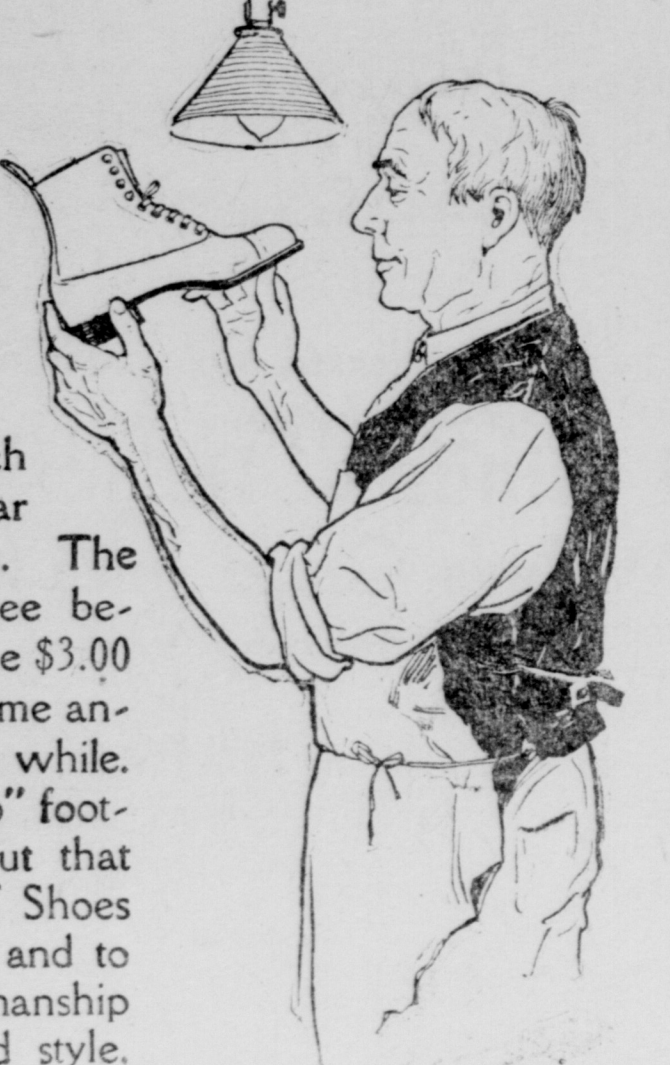

Which affords relief from the first dose taken and always cures permanently the most chronic cases of diseases of the respiratory organs.

ON SALE EVERYWHERE: 25c.

Poor Blood is the cause of all ailments.—DR. ED. MORIN'S CARDINAL PILLS insure rich, red blood.
On Sale Everywhere: 50c a box.

If your dealer does not stock our specialties, write directly to DR. ED. MORIN & CO., Limited, - - QUEBEC, Canada.

Ask your Cobbler what he thinks of Red T Shoes

All shoes look pretty much alike when new. Only wear will reveal their true qualities. The difference you could not see between the $2.25 shoe and the $3.00 or $4.50 pair will often become annoyingly plain after a short while. Since we do not make "cheap" footwear, we can afford to put that sterling quality into Red T Shoes which ensures good wear, and to secure that kind of workmanship which produces good fit and style.

Red T Shoes

THE ROBERT TAYLOR CO., LIMITED, HALIFAX, N.S.

THIS BED SPRING WILL NOT RUST

It has a non-rusting enamel finish that is guaranteed not to damage bedding—a most important feature.
It will not sag nor lose shape, because of the patented interlocked twisted links and the strong parallel tension of the helical springs at each end. Note the illustration.
Moreover, because of its reinforced adjustable corner castings, it will fit any bed.
For buoyant comfort and lasting service, the

ALASKA Twisted Link SPRING

is unsurpassed. It has all the "give" and smoothness of a woven-wire spring without any of the sag, always evident in the latter, and the cost is practically the same.

Your dealer sells it, or will get it for you, if you ask for it by name.

THE ALASKA FEATHER AND DOWN COMPANY LIMITED

Makers of Bedsteads and Bedding

WINNIPEG MONTREAL VANCOUVER

"ALASKA" on an article means High Grade Every Particle.