67th Regiment (Carleton Light Infantry).—To be provisional lieutenant (superannuated): Harold Wilfred McPhail, gentleman, 1st March 1916.

Writing from France under date of May 7th, a member of the 55th tells that "some of the boys are already up the line. Spurg Tompkins and a lot of my chums went up a few days ago and are with the 26th, and more are going to-night. We had a route march the other day and believe me it was some class. We walk all day on route marches in this country. The packs are very heavy and get heavier the longer the route. All of the 55th are in France now and you can bet they will make good. It's a d— shame they could not come as a unit. I met quite a number of the boys from Woodstock, some of them wounded. I saw C. McCluskey, Finnamore, Norman Bull and others since coming over."
