W. R. Gillin of Gillin Bros. cattle buyers, went to Fredericton on Saturday, April 29, and while there purchased a Ford Touring car from R. L. Phillips. Mr. Gillin's firm used one Ford car last year and found it so satisfactory that he decided to have one for each of the partners this year.

The entertainments presented at the Opera House by the Rossely's deserved to have drawn much larger audiences. Of the children who took part it can be truthfully said that they have rare gifts that one might expect from a cast of professionals. Their singing was excellent, and the whole performance gave general and novel pleasure. The comedy work of Mr. J. Rossely was thoroughly enjoyed.

An entertainment will be given by the pupils and young folks of Mapledale in their school house on Tuesday evening, May 9th. Doors open at 8 o'clock. Ladies are requested to bring baskets containing a delightful luncheon and two cups, as tea and coffee will be served. The baskets will be sold at the conclusion of the program, for the benefit of Red Cross work and a few school necessities. All are cordially invited to attend.

It is reported in military circles that two new battalions are about to be authorized for the province of New Brunswick.

It is understood that two prominent men, although their names have not yet been announced, are waiting patiently to secure command of the respective battalions. The military authorities will, however, see to it that all battalions now being mobilized within the province of New Brunswick are brought up to full strength before any other battalions are authorized. It is understood that as the different battalions are completed their recruiting area will be handed over to those units not yet having a full complement of men.

The members of the 65th Battery marched to church Sunday morning. Their soldierly bearing elicited much favorable comment.

It is reported Lieutenant-Colonel H. F. McLeod, of Fredericton, N. B., commanding officer of the 12th Battalion, first Canadian contingent, is about to return to Canada on leave, owing to ill-health. Col. McLeod represents York county in the dominion parliament.

A telegram was received at Hartland, Thursday, that Harvey Reid had been seriously wounded in action. No details were given.
