"BRIGHTEN THE CORNER WHERE YOU ARE."

It is not necessary in doing this to turn a back handspring nor to get heart disease in making the effort.

But you can make your individual corner considerably brighter by being a good, upright citizen.

By not having a continual grudge. By seeing that some church has an annual stipend from your income. Take your choice on this.

By seeing that some poor family has your pleasant greeting.

By taking an interest in all good works, even if you do not agree with many of them.

By seeing that the cracks in the barn are stopped, so that your stock will have a comfortable place.

By blanketing the horse when standing. This does not mean to throw the blanket at him, but tuck it in good.

By greeting your business associates cordially each morning.

By supporting your home mer- chants, and giving them a chance at your business.

By keeping your sidewalks clean in winter. Visitors will notice this the first thing.

By brightening up your store windows, keeping the front of your business blocks painted fresh and generally keeping up the good appearance of your property.

By looking on the bright side of life. Don't tell the boy who complains about his room being frigid that you used to sleep where the snow blew in on you. This does the boy no good. He may want to go where it is warmer. Think this over.

By making the home cheerful for the young.

By making frequent calls on the teachers, who are struggling with your off-springs, and this is what they are doing.

By greeting your own minister, and all ministers cordially.

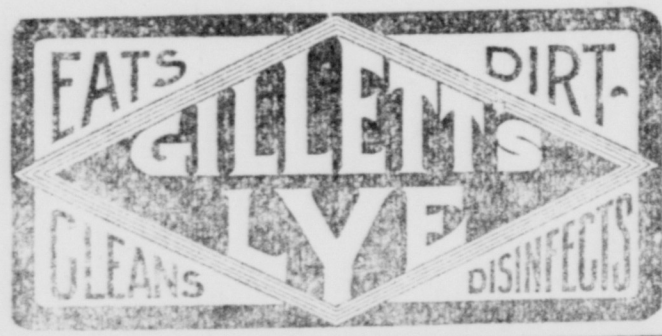

By coming to your home with a cheery greeting. This will help to make the good wife more cheerful than anything else. Do this even if you are tired. Perhaps she is tired, too.

By taking care of the children when around home. They are yours.

By seeing that the wife does not have to bring up coal. Be sure you don't forget this.

By giving a helping hand to all deserving charities. Even a little will help, and encourages others.

By teaching the young to respect age, and be helpful in many ways. This teaches them self reliance, and is the way to bring up the young.

By starting 1917 with a strong resolution to carry out these suggestions.

There are 17,000 other ways you can "brighten the corner where you are." After you have seen the above we will give you another list.

Empire War Conference Called For February

Premiers of Overseas Dominions Are Urged to Attend Meeting of War Cabinet to Discuss War Measures, Peace Terms and Subsequent Problems

OTTAWA, December 26—A cable received by the Governor General today from the Colonial Secretary amplifies the announcement made in the British House last week by Premier Lloyd George, in regard to the Imperial Conference to be called to consider the co-ordinated war efforts of the Empire. The Colonial Secretary, Mr. Walter Long, explains that the proposed Conference is to consider with the British War Council war measures, possible peace terms and the problems immediately following the termination of the war. The attendance of the Dominions Prime Ministers is especially desired and it is hoped that the Conference can assemble by the end of February at the latest.

THOS. FRAULEY IS DEAD

St. George, Dec. 26—Thomas Frauley, a former St. George boy, died in Brookline (Mass.) yesterday. He was operated on in the Brookline hospital on Tuesday last and at first seemed to recover rapidly. On Saturday he began to sink and a telegram came to his nephew,

George E. Frauley, saying his condition was critical. G. Frauley left here on Sunday and word came today that his uncle was dead. His remains will be brought here and the funeral will be held from St. George's Catholic church on Thursday morning. The body will be buried in the old cemetery near his father and mother. Mr. Frauley left St. George when very young and became identified

The John McLauchlan Co. Ltd

To Customers and Friends
Cordial and Hearty Greetings is here extended for the coming year

We appreciate your friendship and patronage and extend sincere thanks for the business you have given us during the past year, and hope that our relations for the coming year will be as pleasant.

RESPECTFULLY,
E. W. MAIR
"The Druggist"

with the fertilizer business. He bought extensively throughout Carleton county of hard wood ashes, owned many warehouses and a large number of horses in that section. His home was in Newport, R. I., and his clients were the very wealthy residents of that famous resort. Very fond of horses, during his life time he was owner of some of the best. Probably no better stock ever came to New Brunswick than the celebrated pair, Squantom and Tally, which he brought to St. George many years ago. Mr. Frauley always took a deep interest in his home town and maintained the old homestead and farm in first class condition. He generally spent several weeks here every summer. He never married. He made a great deal of money.

A sister, Anna, resides in Boston and M. E. Frauley, of this town, is a brother. Frauley Bros. are nephews and F. E. Frauley, of Point Lepreau Light, is also a nephew. Mr. Frauley was seventy-eight years of age and on account of his extensive travels was a very interesting conversationalist.

MILITARY NOTES OF LOCAL INTEREST

Capt. Wendell B. Shaw arrived at Hartland, Carleton Co., Thursday, to spend a time with his parents. Dr. and Mrs. P. N. Shaw. Capt. Shaw says he feels well, and is glad to get home for a time, but will return to the front as soon as his wounds will permit.

Major M. W. Melville, in charge of the Engineer's Training Camp at Ottawa, has been undergoing treatment at the Fisher Hospital here for the past fortnight.

A Montreal paper says: "Daniel Chisholm came all the way from Antigonish to Montreal to apply for admission to the Duchess of Connaught's Own Irish-Canadian Rangers. 'Are you willing to be inoculated and vaccinated?' asked the recruiting officer as he filled out the application form. 'Sure,' answered Chisholm. 'I'm willing to get cremated if it will let me get a whack at the Huns.'"

Ralph Sprague is recovering from a protracted illness in an English hospital. He is attached to a motor ambulance corps.

Letters received here this week contain news that two drafts from the 104th Battalion have gone to France. Some of the N.C.O.'s, well known here, have gone over.

Word has been received here that Gunner James Turner, who went overseas with the Twenty-fourth Battery, has been killed in action on the western front, according to information received by Mr. Charles Cremen, the well known guide, with whom Gunner Turner was employed for several years. The gallant soldier made the supreme sacrifice in September last while fighting on the Somme. Gunner Turner was about 24 years of age and had been a guide with Mr. Cremen for several years previous to enlisting. He was a native of Newburg, N.B.

G. Fred Campbell, who will be remembered by many of the boys about Woodstock, and who is now a lieutenant in the Flying Corps in France, writes that he has got in touch with some of his old Woodstock friends, and that he expects to get leave shortly for a brief visit to his home here. He went with the first contingent and was wounded early on the way.

Pte. Ray Mooers of the 104th arrived here Wednesday night from England. He has been seriously ill, and came home to recuperate.

A card from Wilfred Hand was received by his mother this week, from a German prison camp. According to the card he is in good health.

"Now I'm happy! I've got a parcel from home through the Over-Seas Club, but don't I wish there was one every week!"
