TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Sentinel
May 9th, 1896.

Mr. Frank Bird has taken the leadership of the choir of the Albert St. Baptist Church. The pipe organ has been recently put in repair by H. H. Lockwood and is giving excellent satisfaction.

W. F. Glidden has sold his speedy pacer "Jack A", formerly owned by S. B. Appleby, Esq., to parties in Fredericton, for a handsome sum.

Chas. Ketchum, while driving to his home below town on Saturday afternoon, was thrown from his wagon by his horse running away, and received severe bruises and a general shaking up. Dr. Hand is attending.

The familiar figure of Charles Godfrey, a colored man well known to every man, woman and child in the community, has disappeared forever from our streets. He died, after a few weeks illness, on Wednesday afternoon. Deceased was, doubtless, the oldest man in this section, the best available information placing his age at over 100 years.

GRAFTON

Our Main street road has been wonderfully improved under the management of Road Supervisor, Mr. James Hovey.

The new residence of H. W. Smallley is being rapidly pushed forward to completion.

William Montgomery is engaged in building booms on the river.

Arva Falet is rapidly recovering from his recent illness under the skilful treatment of Dr. Prescott.

Five improvement and repairs to one of his residences in this place.

The Misses Blackmore, our efficient

Greely A. Shea is making' extensive school teachers, spent their Easter holidays at their home in Richmond, N. B.

In a recent issue of a Bangor paper we notice the announcement of an interesting event, the principals being a well known resident of this village, and a wealthy young society lady of Presque Isle.

Mrs. William Rolston has returned from a brief visit to Fredericton. George Clarke will shortly move to his new residence which he bought on the South Newbridge road. The Northampton Brick Co. will shortly commence operation under new management.

Delbert Clarke, an experienced brick maker, will be foreman and proprietor of the boarding house.

UPPER KENT.

On Wednesday evening, April 28th
the ladies of the Methodist mission ary Society held a pie social in Perry Ritchie's new bungalow. Those present spent a most pleasant evening and the sum of $23.50 was realized.

Rev. Samuel and Mrs. Perry of Kewick were guests at the home of their son Gladstone, during the Easter vacation.

The Misses Olive and Edith Grant went to Houlton for the Easter holidays. Miss Olive returned on Monday in order to be in time to resume her school duties on Tuesday morning. Miss Edith remained longer in Houlton and also visited Woodstock before her return.

Mrs. Damatis Squites has just returned from a two weeks visit in St. John.

Mrs. Ebbett of Florenceville has been a recent caller in the village. Everyone was rejoiced to have such a refreshing rain. It was so much needed and the grass has put on a most vivid green.

The farmers are all busy preparing for cropping and some have already sown seed.

PROHIBITION BILL

41. Nothing herein contained shall prevent a sick person from having in his possession the liquor prescribed for him by a physician under section 46 of this act.

42. Nothing in section 5 hereof contained shall apply to sales in quantities of not less than two gallons at any time under legal process, judicial sales, or sales under distress for rent, or to auctioneers selling on behalf of an assignee, any liquors included in any assignment of property for the general benefit of creditors made by a person duly licensed under this act, or on behalf of an executor or administrator of the estate of any deceased person, duly licensed at the time of his death, during the term of such license, and nothing in this act contained shall prevent common carriers or other persons from carrying or conveying liquor from a place outside of the province to a place where the same may be lawfully received and lawfully kept within the province, or from a place where it may be lawfully delivered outside the province, or from a place where such liquor may be lawfully kept and lawfully delivered within the province where the same may be lawfully kept, or through the province from a place outside of it to a place outside of it.

43. Every one who in violation of this act in the employment of another sends, ships, brings or carries or causes to be sent, shipped, brought or carried any liquor, or delivers, stores, warehouses or keeps liquor is equally guilty with the principal, and shall on summary conviction be liable to the same penalty or punishment as the principal.

44. Nothing herein contained shall prevent any brewer, distiller or other person duly licensed by the government of Canada for the manufacture of spirituous, fermented or other liquors, from keeping or having liquor manufactured by him in any building wherein such manufacture is carried on, provided such building forms no part of and does not communicate by any entrance with any house or building mentioned in sub-sections "b" and "c" or section 2 of this act, or from selling liquor therefrom to a person in another province where such sale may be lawfully made, or in a foreign country or to a licensee under this act.

45. Nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from having liquor for export sale in his liquor warehouse, provided such liquor warehouse and the business carried on therein complies with the requirements in sub-section (1) hereof mentioned, or from selling from such liquor warehouse to persons in other provinces where such sale may be lawfully made, or in foreign countries, or to a wholesale licensee under this act.

(1) The liquor warehouse in this section mentioned shall be suitable for the said business and shall be so constructed and equipped as not to facilitate any violation of this act, and not connected by any internal way communication with any other building or any other portion of the same building, and shall be a water-tight building wherein no other commodity or goods than liquor for export from the province are kept or sold to such wholesale licensee, and where in no other business than keeping or selling liquor for export from the province is carried on.

46. Any physician who is lawfully and regularly engaged in the practice of his profession, and who shall deem any liquor necessary for the health of his patient or patients may give such patient or patients a written or printed prescription or prescription therefor in form No 12 in appendix to this act, or he may administer the liquor himself, for which purpose he may, when visiting in the discharge of his professional duties, have liquor in his possession not exceeding in quantity two quarts at any one time.

47. Any dentist who is a duly registered member of The New Brunswick Dental Association, and who is lawfully and regularly engaged in the practice of his profession, and who shall deem it necessary to administer to any patient being then under treatment by him, liquor, may himself administer to such patient the liquor thus needed and for such purpose he may keep in his office a quantity of liquor not exceeding one pint at any one time.

FACTS

During 1915 The Manufacturers Life Insurance Company paid to Policyholders the large sum of $1,824,161.83. The Death Claims amounted to $606,490.26, while $1,217,617.57 was paid policyholders on matured policies, dividends, etc. The payments to policyholders exceeded those to beneficiaries in the ratio of 2 to 1.

In addition to the large payments indicated above, the Company set aside, out of the year's income, a further sum of $1,476,365.00 for reserves and dividends. The general surplus was increased by $402,325.95, and now amounts to $2,254,655.10.

The payments to policyholders amounted to practically $5,000 a day, which demonstrates the stability of the Company and the reason for the esteem in which it is regarded by the insuring public.
