

The Carleton Sentinel.

VOL 69. No 31

WOODSTOCK, N. B. FRIDAY, AUG 3 1917

WHOLE No 3558

WOODSTOCK HEROES

WHO LIE BENEATH THE SOIL OF BLOOD-STAINED FRANCE

PTE. CLARENCE MCCLUSKEY.

GUNNER JAMES C. KETCHUM.

CORP. HARLEY WATSON.

PTE. JAMES E. LYNOTT

PTE. CHARLES BULL.

LIEUT. FRANKLIN RANKIN.

CORP. ROBERT HULL.

PTE. JOSEPH HANNINGAN.

PTE. MELVIN ROBINSON.

LANCE-SERGEANT ALLISON BULL.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row and row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The lark, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high;
If ye break with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

MEMORIAL SERVICE IN HONOR OF PRIVATE MELVIN ROBINSON

A largely attended memorial service in honor of the late Pte. Melvin Robinson was held Sunday evening in the Salvation Army hall, conducted by Ensign and Mrs. Forbes. Touching references were made to the exemplary life of the young hero who had been a regular attendant of the Army previous to his departure for battlefields of Europe. Sergts. Sutton and Cumber paid a high tribute to the deceased young soldier whose death was a crushing blow to his mother. Ensign Forbes referred to the bravery and heroism of the Canadian soldiers now fighting for the preservation of the Empire. A most appropriate musical service was carried out and at the close the dead march, Promoted to Glory, was played by the army band.

ROY E. GREEN

WOUNDED

Member of 115th Battalion—Brother in Hospital, St. John

Alexander Green, Tracy Mills, has received official word that his son Roy E. Green, was wounded on July 4 while fighting in France.

Pte. Green enlisted in February of 1916 and went overseas with the 115th Battalion. He was promoted to sergeant and after attending military school for a time he was employed as an instructor. After spending eight months in England he was sent over to France. He had been there three months when he received his wounds. Pte. O. S. Green, now at Parks Convalescent Home, St. John, is another son of Alexander Green. He went overseas with the 104th Battalion, was wounded in the hip and sent back in August, 1916. He spent nine months in hospitals in England and then returned to Canada in April, 1917.

GUNNER HARRY G. LEWIS BURIED WITH HONORS

In a Little Cemetery Filled With Canadian Heroes—Tender Affection of Former Comrades—Glorious Deeds Will Never Be Forgotten.

The following letter has been received by Miss Lewis concerning the death of her brother, Gunner Harry G. Lewis.

This brave young soldier, who died nobly doing his duty, was a son of the late Conductor James Lewis, of the C.P.R. and a brother of Miss Isabella Lewis and Mrs. F. E. Cowan of Woodstock.

1st Bde. G. F. A., France.

Miss J. Lewis, Woodstock, N. B.

My dear Miss Lewis,

You will have heard before this of your brother's death, which occurred July 1st. While the sad facts cannot be altered and little can be said perhaps to comfort you at such a time I feel that I must let you know that we feel for you very deeply.

The cause of your brother's death was an accident, the explosion of one of our own shells before it had left the gun. There was no prolonged suffering for which I think we may be thankful.

The next day he was buried in a little cemetery which is now nearly filled with Canadian heroes.

His comrades marched out in force to his funeral which was very impressive. They sang the hymn "Rock of Ages."

There will be a nice cross put up and the grave will be well cared for, not only while we are here but for generations to come. I am sure that these men and their glorious deeds will never be forgotten, and in spite of the sorrow of separation it is still a great thing to have one so near you who has paid the great price for the world's freedom. The relatives of our comrades were not forgotten at the funeral and we still pray that the God of all mercy may comfort you and keep you until that day when all who mourn shall be made happy in the great and eternal re-union.

This is the location of your brother's grave—be careful to keep the exact figures—51 p A 8. C 5. 8.

With deepest sympathy I am Sincerely Yours,

J. E. GIBSON, Chaplain.

(Owing to delay in Montreal mails a picture of Gunner Harry Lewis did not arrive in time for this issue.)

Woodstock's Chief Will Be Kept Busy.

The provincial Department of Public Works has issued notices to chiefs of police and others in authority calling upon them to take particular pains to enforce that section of the Motor Vehicles

Act which prohibits boys and girls under the age of eighteen years from driving motor cars. This section, it is said, has been frequently violated.

Miss Ruth Burden is visiting Miss Flora Jones.

Miss Geneva McElwaine of Caribou, Me., is visiting Miss Louise Prescott.

Mrs. J. P. Atkinson of Shediac, is spending a few weeks in Woodstock, the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. D. Jordan.

Miss Margaret Jordan of "Sunnyside" St. John Co., was the guest of Mrs. C. D. Jordan for a few days last week.

THE GAME OF LOVE.

Thursday evening, August 9th, Mr. Theodore Bird and his company of Houlton amateurs will appear in The Game of Love at the Hayden-Gibson theatre. 55 people are in the cast and the proceeds of the affair are for the benefit of the Red Cross.

In the cast of characters there are several well known young amateurs who have already scored a hit with Woodstock audiences. Mr. Bird is well known and has staged most successfully several productions here. We predict a triumph for Mr. Bird and his company on their appearance August 9th. Reserved seat tickets 50c—Gallery 35c—Children 15c.

Miss Virginia Payson left on Thursday to spend a week at Skiff Lake, where she will be the guest of Miss Lillian Jones.

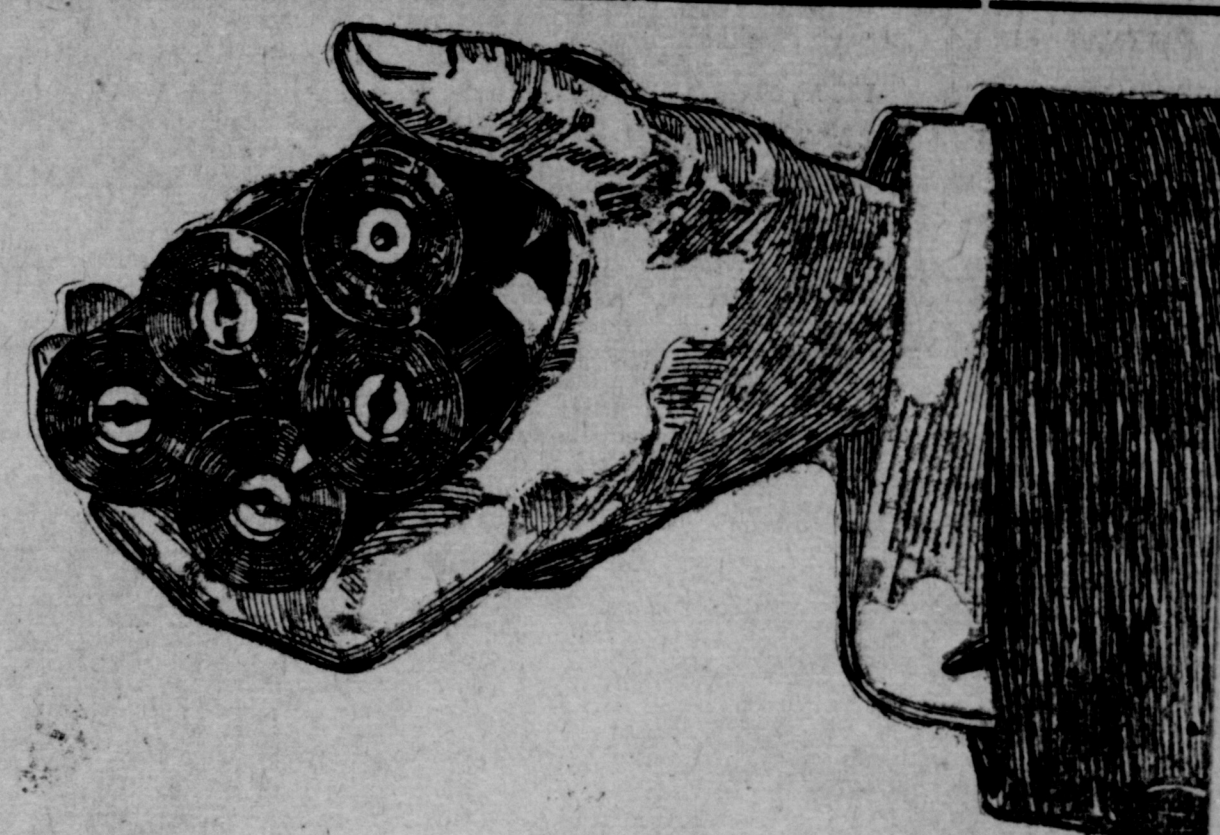

Miss Marion Lindsay, who has been taking a course at La Salle Conservatory of music at Auburndale, Mass., returned on Monday.

Mrs. Robert Newton of Montreal, is the guest of Mrs. C. O. MacDonald.

Miss Ada McCann of Moncton, and Miss Ada Boyer of Victoria, are the guests this week of Miss Alice Boyer.

Black Front Jewelry Store

Kodaks
Brownies
Premoes

Developing and Printing Done in First Class Manner

If It's A Necklace

or a lavalliere or a ring or pin or any other article of jewelry it will be all the more appreciated if it comes from here. For our jewelry has a reputation for quality, good taste and distinction that renders it doubly acceptable. Remember please that the only thing charged for is quality. The other fine points cost you nothing.

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

Marriage Licenses and
Wedding Rings

H. V. Dalling
Jeweler & Optician

Engraving
Done
Free