ie Man Behind
and the Gun.

who does the fighting
at mighty well,
Who's right behind him,
and shot and shell;
one else behind them
lips to fight the Hun;
hind the man behind the
the gun.

ar a uniform, nor march
the boys,
sees a factory with all its ding noise.

his work is done in silence, yet 'tis work that must be done,
By the man behind the man behind the
man behind the gun.

He feeds the hungry soldier and the man who makes the shell;
The value of his labor Father Time alone can tell.

He works from dawn till twilight in the broiling summer sun, Does the man behind the man behind the
man behind the gun.

He starts out in the springtime and for days and weeks he plows:
He labors on unceasing, raising hogs,
and sheep and cows,
And while others get the benefit, there's really not much fun,
For the man behind the man behind the
man behind the gun.

Let us cheer the boys now fighting for their country and their king; When they come back home, let's cheer them till we make the welkin ring; But when shouting cheers for others, should we not hand out just one To the man behind the man behind the
man behind the gun?

MRS. W. J. DIBBLEE,

A REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Mrs. Sheldon Spent $1900 for Treatment Without Benefit. Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Englewood, Ill. — "While going through the Change of Life I suffered with headaches, nervousness, flashes of heat, and I suffered so much I did not know what I was doing at times. I spent $1900 on doctors and not one did me any good. One day a lady called at my house and said she had been as I was,
and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her well, so I took it and now I am just as well as I ever was. I cannot understand why women don't see how much pain and suffering they would escape by taking your medicine.
I cannot praise it enough for it saved my life and kept me from the Insane Hospital."—Mrs. E. SHELDON, 5657 S.
Halsted St., Englewood, Ill.

Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

of Purity

Our Milk has not attained its high place in the opinion of careful mothers through chance. It required considerable investment in dairy equipment, and necessitates constant vigilance in guarding the dairy herd from dangerous influences, to bring Our Milk to its unvarying standards of Purity, Richness and Wholesomeness. Do we
