SUCCESSOR TO

BE SURE YOU ARE RIGHT, THEN GO AHEAD

Montreal, Feb. 9th, 1917.

Mr. B. B. Dykeman,
Woodstock, N. B.

DEAR MR. DYKEMAN:—

Our attention has been directed to the advertisement in the Woodstock Press, stating that the biggest strike in the history of the clothing trade was on in Montreal, and the advertiser went out of his way to include the name of Semi-ready, Limited, amongst the firms affected.

The general strike order did not affect us. Not a single tailor left our employ at the dictation of the Hun agitators who came over from New York to try and stop the making of uniforms for the soldiers. We have no Germans in our employ.

Our Spring deliveries will be as prompt as usual. We can finish Special Order suits in four days as usual, which is an advantage of a full week over the Toronto shops.

It is to be regretted that your fellow-townsmen should publish untruthful statements of this kind, without first verifying his source of information.

We did have a strike in our shops some months ago, but it was over in a few days, and did not interfere with our work much, nor were our shops idle for a single day.

Yours truly,
SEMI-READY, LIMITED!

ALFRED WOOD,
VICE-PRESIDENT.

Rousing Opposition Convention

haul in hand with a dishonest government. The opposition party will get the crown lands in the hands of a commission. The opposition railway policy is to go to Grand Falls and fear of further exposure of Valley railway stealings is one cause of the election being called now instead of June.

R. L. Sims addressed the meeting and said—"we are on the eve of an important election in New Brunswick. It is admitted that the Liberal party is on the ascendancy in the Dominion and the old Tory party is going down—the signs all over Canada point this way. The result of the elections in other provinces has been the ruin of the tory party—this is not all talk it is an actual fact. The reason I am with the Liberal party is because my ancestors were all Liberals. I was brought up a tory but I soon saw that the Liberals were the honest and the Tories the manufacturers, Bouches and hoodlums. The issue before us is—will we adopt Mr. Smith's policy of graft and hoodlums or will we take a good honest policy of honest business men?"

"Although I Had Little Faith in Them"

That is the feeling of hundreds who have been helped by Gin Pills. They admit after the cure that when they used Gin Pills it did not seem possible that such a simple remedy could relieve such severe suffering. The line above, for instance, is from the letter of Mr. H. P. Herbert, Pleasantville, recommending

Since, I have taken four boxes of these pills and I find myself completely cured."

OBITUARY

MRS. H. C. GRANT.

After being an invalid for more than a quarter of a century, the widow of the late H. C. Grant of Southampton, who died a year ago, passed away on Monday of last week, and was buried the following Thursday. Rev. A. F. Brown preached a very feeling sermon in which he extolled the many virtues of the deceased and her kind lovable life, which had never failed to find a response in her children. The late Mrs. Grant was Miss Barbara Gartley, of Maguad, where her relatives still live. She leaves one daughter, Miss Lucy Grant, who through her mother's long illness has been very patient and faithful. Four sons complete the family. They are J. F. Grant, mill owner and lumberman, of Grand View; Harry Grant, conductor at St. Louis (U.S.A.); Dr. N. P. Grant, a popular physician of Woodstock (N.B.), and Chipman

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took
"FRUIT-A-TIVES"

ALBERT VARNER
Buckingham, Que., May 8th, 1915.
For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-tives", and you will get well!"

LITTLE WORRIES IN THE HOME

These Bring the Wrinkles and Pallid Faces That Make Women
Look Prematurely Old.

Almost every woman at the head of a home meets daily many little worries in her household affairs. The care of her little ones, the work about the house all contribute to these worries. Most of them may be too small to notice an hour afterwards, but they constitute a constant strain that affects the blood and the nerves and make women look prematurely old. The effect of these little worries may be noticed in sick or nervous headaches, fickle appetite, tiredness after slight exertion, and the coming of wrinkles which every woman dreads. To those thus afflicted Dr. Williams' Pink Pills offer a speedy cure; a restoration of color to the cheeks, brightness to the eye, a hearty appetite and a sense of freedom from weariness. Among the many thousands of Canadian women who have found new health and strength through these pills is Mrs. G. Strasser, Acton, West, Ont., who says:—"I am the mother of three children and after each birth I became terribly run down, I had weak, thin blood, always felt tired, and unable to do my household work. After the birth of my third child I seemed to be worse, and was very badly run down. I found the greatest benefit from the Pills and soon gained my old time strength. Indeed after taking them I felt as well as in my girlhood, and could take pleasure in my work. I also used Baby's Own Tablets for my little ones and have found them a splendid medicine for childhood ailments."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine, or you can procure them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MRS. WM. MCCORMAC.
At Upper Woodstock on the evening of February 5th, Mary, the widow of the late William McCormac, was called to enter into the Home Sweet Home beyond the skies.

For some time past Mrs. McCormac had been more or less an invalid and for her it was certainly "sweet release."

Our deceased friend lived in the affection of those who were nearest and dearest and in the good will and love of her neighbors, to many of whom she had proved herself a true and sympathizing friend, ever ready to do her share wherever she could. Mrs. McCormac leaves to mourn her loss, two daughters, Mrs. Clark of St. John, and Mrs. George Chapman of Upper Woodstock, with whom she made her home, and by whom she was lovingly cared for during her illness, also one son William of Upper Woodstock, and a number of grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The last token of respect was paid to her when a large number gathered at the home and in this way expressed their appreciation of a good woman "entered into rest."

Dr. Rankin, who presided at the tory convention, "stepped nimbly to the front," says the Gleaner. One of the incidents, and the subject of considerable comment, is the association of a straight, honest and patriotic gentleman of Dr. Rankin's attainments with the present outfit that are engaged in the ruination of the province.

B. F. Smith And That $10,000 Refund

Poor Suffering Belgians Victims of Dishonest Politicians

Again, the refusal of Mr. Chandler to investigate the purchase of patriotic potatoes, which we all know was mixed with graft and exorbitance—and no less a person than the Honorable Provincial Secretary himself told me at a meeting of the government in the city of St. John in December last, that the books of the province had not been closed because, forsooth, the Hon. Mr. Murray, Minister of Agriculture, had to tell him THEY WERE WAITING FOR A REFUND OF $10,000 FROM B. F. SMITH AND HIS ASSOCIATES BECAUSE OF THE FUSS MADE BY THE OPPOSITION WITH RESPECT TO THE PATRIOTIC POTATOES.

And do you further recall, Mr. Premier, that your colleague, Hon. Mr. Murray, said to B. F. Smith, "FOR GOD'S SAKE DON'T TELL MORRIS-SEY OF THIS?"

From Hon. John Morrissey's letter to Premier Clarke.
