cer in charge of records and statistics, has given up his post in this district and left last evening for another centre of war activity where he will undertake new duties in connection with the Royal Flying Corps. Although Captain Hay suffered severe injuries when overseas as a member of the flying corps which incapacitated him from handling machines in the air, still, it is understood, that he will be retained for special ground duty somewhere behind the lines. On the eve of Captain Hay's departure there came the interesting announcement of his engagement to Miss Kathleen Coster.—Tele-

OBITUARY

MRS. ALFRED BULL
General regret was felt at the sudden death of Mrs. Alfred Bull, nee Miss Agnes True, which took place in the Fisher Memorial Hospital on Sunday morning, leaving an infant baby which also passed away shortly afterwards. She is survived by her husband, who is the agent of the Metropolitan Insurance Company in this district, her mother, Mrs. Edward True, two sisters, Mrs. Judson Vanwart, of Woodstock, and Mrs.
Dixon, of Sackville. Before her marriage the late Mrs. Bull was a clerk in the store of Mr. C. R. Watson and was held in the highest esteem by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. J. E. Wilson, of the United Baptist Church, officiating, assisted by Rev. A. S.
Hazel, of St. Luke's Episcopal Church. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Judson Vanwart, Harold Britton, Harry Bell and Lorne Slipp.
