THE LITTLE BOW-WOWS WILL BE EXTERMINATED

Breezy Discussion Over the New Dog Legislation—"No Joke" Says Coun. Fewer—Town Fathers Wrestle With Problem—Chief Kelly Refuses to Collect Tax. Other Matters Considered. Town Treasurer's Report.

The extent and great importance of the "dog legislation," promoted by Coun. Fewer, was the outstanding feature of Monday night's council meeting. In the great endeavour to discover who would collect the new dog tax some interesting facts were unfolded and the question while interesting was not conclusive. There was blood in the eye of the promoter of the by-law, and if the little bow-wows around town think for a moment that the by-law is only "for fun" they will be rudely disappointed, for their ruthless extermination has been determined upon when an officer can be drafted to carry out the program laid down.

Coun. Leighton's criticism of buying fertilizer for the poor farm when a very large quantity of similar material could be had for the hauling, indicates that the councillor's education along farming lines has been neglected, still he had the consolation of being informed by Coun. Brown that in the "old days we got along without fertilizer" and it is to be presumed that potatoes were grown in those days, although Coun. Brown did not say so.

The session opened with Couns. Brown, Gallagher and Smith absent. Mayor Burt got busy and succeeded in locating the missing councillors in different sections of the country. Coun. Brown arrived later and the board got down to business.

The report of the town treasurer was read and referred to the audit committee. The town marshal and police magistrate did not submit reports which caused Coun. Leighton to remark that one or the other should have a report. A long discussion over the dressing at the military barns, left the material just where it was. Coun. Brown didn't know who was responsible but it was a source of annoyance and worry to him.

Coun. Leighton—"The poor commissioner is the man who should have reported existing conditions."

Coun. Fewer thought that hauling the material from Moore's barn to the park and then to the poor farm was poor business.

Mayor Burt said he had been blamed for not proclaiming Monday a holiday. He had phoned every store in town Saturday and all said they didn't want a holiday.

An animated discussion took place over the question as to whether a copy of the traffic law had been given to the councillors or not. Owing to the uncertainty about this phase of the matter it was thought better to postpone the adoption of the law until next meeting.

Coun. Stevens—"Has Coun. Fewer got a list of the persons who paid the dog tax on Friday?"

Coun. Fewer—"I have no such list."

Coun. Stevens—"It is the duty of the Chief of Police to go after this tax. People say the whole matter is only a joke."

Coun. Fewer—"They will find out whether it's a joke or not."

Coun. Leighton—"Why is the Dog License Act not in force?"

Coun. Fewer—"Notices have gone out to everyone who has a dog and they will have to pay up."

Coun. Brown—"I would like to know if Coun. Fewer has paid the tax on his own dog."

Coun. Fewer—"No, it's a holiday. Chief Kelly—"I would like to know whose duty it is to collect this tax. I might as well tell you right now that I won't collect any dog tax for nothing."

Coun. Leighton—"Why won't you, I don't like this kind of talk. We are paying you a salary. Are you getting pay enough? We can't afford to pay you a special fee for every by-law we got. Have we got to pay you for enforcing the traffic law?"

Chief Kelly—"No, that's different."

Coun. Leighton—"There is no difference—We pay you a salary to enforce the by-laws and we expect you to do it."

Coun. Stevens—"Perhaps Chief Kelly thinks he is too busy, but he will have quite a job to make people pay."

GERMAN SEA PIRATES ARE STILL OPERATING OFF AMERICAN COAST

Between 500 and 600 People Are Missing From Torpedoed Vessels.

Military Success Negligible—No Troop Transport or Supply Ship Struck—Evidence That Huns Fired on Lifeboat From The Carolina—Are There Five U-Boats Across?

New York, June 4—Between 500 and 600 persons were missing at sea today because of Germany's submarine warfare brought home to American shores. The passengers and crews of two steamships and two schooners were unaccounted for, their fate is unknown.

While the country has been startled by the appearance of the enemy raiders on this side of the Atlantic, the fact stood out today, that although they have been in American waters ten days, their success from a military point of view has been negligible. They got no transport or ship with war supplies bound for Europe.

The total American tonnage known to have been destroyed in the raid amounts to something more than 20,000 tons, all coastwise shipping, seven of them sailing vessels.

FIVE OF THEM?

Norfolk, June 4—Naval officers here said last night that their reports indicated five German submarines had been operating along the Atlantic coast.

ONE ARRIVED IN WOODSTOCK ON SCHEDULE TIME

Woodstock Merchants Wise to Moves—Goods Ordered But Not Delivered.

A warning note from the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada says: "Please note that a woman and her daughter are moving from town to town in the Maritime Provinces, getting in debt to all merchants who will let them have a cent's worth of goods on credit."

They go to a town, rent a flat or take rooms, buy furniture wherever they can get it on credit, furnish their home, live on the best they can get, and buy all the clothes they can on credit. When the merchants begin to look at their bills, the ladies pick up what they can take with them and leave the town without giving any clue as to where they are going. They leave the furniture and fixtures and the landlord very often takes this for payment of the rent."

One of the ladies mentioned in the above warning reached Woodstock on Saturday, and was a guest of a Chapel street hotel for a brief period or until the proprietor got wise. She moved to another hostelry and in due time the landlady requested her to move out when she got very indignant and produced a gun to impress upon the landlady the fact that she intended to remain. Previous to this she had visited some of the stores and bought at one place four hundred dollars worth of furniture, and at another an up-to-date oil stove besides many other articles necessary to equip a house. The goods were ordered sent to a house which she had rented in a residential part of the town. Of course nothing was delivered as all the business houses had been advised of the possible visit. The woman is about sixty years of age but "made up" to look much younger. She attended church on Sunday and it is said was very devout during the services. Her partner is expected here but will probably not show up.

WENT TO HIS HEAD

"He is building castles out of clouds, and some time his creditors will come and gently ooze him onto the boundless spaces of desecrated, where the whang-doodles wear a nightcap and the dadda swings by its tail from the swissus tree like a pendulum with whiskers on it."

It is with these words that "State Press" of the Dallas News describes the fate of the country publisher who continues to try to conduct a newspaper at a loss. How awful such a fate is may be imagined by the reader—and the words of State Press are not exaggerated.

HON. P. J. VENIOT IN CARLETON COUNTY

Goes Over Roads and Says Substantial Work Being Done. Labor Difficult to Secure—Improvements in Houlton Road—All Work Possible Will Be Done.

Hon. P. J. Veniot, Minister of Public Works, accompanied by Chief Road Engineer B. M. Hill, reached Woodstock Monday and spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday inspecting the roads of the County. He expressed himself well pleased with the work done last year on the Houlton road, and told our reporter that if the labor could be procured he would soon have a crew of men on this road building up the low places, with rock foundations, and if possible, this season, an attempt would be made to improve the hills.

The minister said that a crew of men were now employed on the Centreville road doing excellent work in laying stone foundations across certain low places and also in widening the road where it was found dangerously narrow.

It has been found extremely difficult to secure labor, but the minister hopes that as soon as seeding is over the men can be secured in sufficient numbers to at least carry out improvements found necessary on some of the most important routes leading through the farming centres of the County.

The Minister of Public Works is devoting a great deal of attention to the roads of the province and is determined to become personally acquainted with the condition of roads in every section of the province.

Hon. Mr. Veniot left for Fredericton Wednesday to attend a meeting of the executive Wednesday night.

YOUNG WOODSTOCK STUDENT MAKES GOOD IMPRESSION

(Amherst Daily News.)

In the First Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Stoolie, Pastor Emeritus of that Church conducted the morning service and left many inspiring thoughts with those in attendance. The choir at the morning service was assisted by Miss March of St. John whose solo was more than appreciated. The evening service was conducted by the Assistant Pastor, Mr. H. B. Camp and those who were privileged to be present will long remember the helpful and inspiring words left by the speaker as he took for his subject, "The Land of Beginning Again." Entering into his subject "wholeheartedly, Mr. Camp delivered an address that could not but hold the attention of his congregation. A stranger in Amherst, Mr. Camp has already made many friends and will congregation. The music was good under the leadership of Mrs. John Lusby.

Hon. P. J. Veniot and Mr. B. M. Hill were in town Tuesday night. They left for Fredericton Wednesday morning.

The Great War Veterans Association will hold a Field Day, July 1st with a dance in the evening in the Hayden-Gibson theatre. A meeting will be held tonight (Friday) to arrange a program.

Dr. B. R. Field, Mrs. Field and little daughter of Centreville spent Wednesday here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bell. They made the trip in their new Gray Dorr touring car, Mrs. Field proving herself to be an expert driver.
