

OBITUARY

MRS WM. HEATLIE

Mrs. Wm. Heatlie, who underwent a surgical operation recently at the Fisher Memorial Hospital, died Monday. She is survived by her husband who went overseas with the second draft from the 65th Battery, and one child. She is also survived by father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrington of the Vendome Hotel, two brothers, Charles at the front and James and a sister, Agnes at home. The funeral was held on Wednesday, Rev. A. S. Hazel officiating.

WORDS OF PRAISE FOR BABY'S OWN TABLETS

No medicine receives such great praise from thankful mothers as do Baby's Own Tablets. Once a mother has used them for her little one, she will use nothing else. The Tablets are a mild, but thorough laxative. They regulate the bowels and stomach; drive out constipation and indigestion; cure colds and simple fevers; promote healthful sleep and make teething easy. Concerning them, Mrs. Omer LeBlanc, Maddington Falls, Que., writes: "I am well satisfied with Baby's Own Tablets and will always use them for my little ones." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

Many a man talks back to his wife for the purpose of affording her the pleasure of getting in the last word.

MILITARY SERVICE

They take them from the Banking-house
They take them from the Plough,
They take them from the Varsity,
And now I'd like to know
Why some other snaking 'slackers'
Aren't sent to fight the foe.

These hide behind the "petticoats"
Of every 'non-comb' Corps
They certainly have enlisted
But will never go to war.
There are some behind the Bishop's
frocks,
For these there is no law.

And still we "comb" for men who are fit
When these brutes ought to go,
Who only safely sit at home
Their gallant clothes to show;
These social athletes surely ought
To fight against the foe.

The youngest now are called to war,
Our heroes some lie dead,
But these brawny lumps of rowdies,
They lie at home in bed
And sit in judgment on the man
Who's been out there and died.

Before you call out 'cradle-men',
Just turn these slackers out,
And you'll have an army big enough
The Hunish hordes to route
Tis not enough to wave a flag
And with the women shout.

And should these things be left at home
And never face the fire!
What kind of Nation shall we have
With slackers for its sire?
A nation none would like to own;
God grant our aim is higher.

A DOLLAR

Mr. Wilkins had a dollar, so he said
he guessed he'd pay
A little sum he'd borrowed from a gentleman named Gray;
Then Gray he took that dollar, and
he said: "It seems to me
I'd better pay that little debt I owe to McAfee."
Then McAfee the dollar paid upon a bill to Smart;
By Smart 'twas paid to Thompson,
and by Thompson paid to Hart.
And so that coin kept rolling as a very busy "plunk",
Until it paid indebtedness amounting in the chunk
To more than forty dollars, and it may be rolling yet,
And all because this Wilkins thought he'd better pay a debt.

For when a dollar's started
On its debt-destroying way,
There hardly is a limit
To the sums that it will pay.

Mr. Wilkins knew a kindness that he might have done for Gray,
But he wasn't feeling kindly, so he thought it wouldn't "pay."
Then Gray, not being grateful said:
"It really seems to me
I've done sufficient favors for that nasty McAfee."
Then McAfee felt ugly, and he took a whack at Smart,
Who passed it on to Thompson, who passed it on to Hart.
And so no act of kindness was done
through all that day,
But many an act that rankled in a
most unpleasant way,
And many a sou, was longing for the
help to fit its need,
And all because this Wilkins didn't do
a kindly deed.

For a dollar or a kindness,
Rule is still the same, I say;
If you wish to see it rolling,
Better start it on its way.
