

THE ECONOMY OF A LIGHT WEIGHT CAR

"Light weight in an automobile means more than it ever did before.

"Less weight in a car means less expense for gasoline—less expense for oil—and less expense for tires. It means longer service for less cost—the very thing that is eagerly sought by every motorist. The man who drives a light car isn't carrying around a lot of excess weight which he cannot utilize but must pay for dearly in extra fuel and tire wear.

"The light car not only costs much less to operate but it is easier to drive, especially in congested traffic. For long distance driving it is far more dependable. It can travel with ease over rough roads and get in and out of places where the heavy car handicapped with its own weight could never negotiate.

"But in spite of the many advantages of the lightweight car, which anyone can easily understand, if they give the subject a moment's thought, there are many laboring under the delusion that a light car lacks strength. That is not so. If built right, the lightweight car is just as staunch and sturdy as the heavy weight car. As a rule it also possesses longer life and depreciates less in value from year to year all because there is less weight which means less strain, less wear and tear.

"Anyone skeptical on this point should inspect the Chevrolet 'Four-Ninety' touring car. Here is a car weighing less than two thousand pounds yet possessing ample strength for all uses to which it could possibly be put to and power enough for all occasions. Because of its lightweight and famous valve-in-head motor, twenty-five miles on a gallon of gasoline is a common performance for this car. And a set of tires on a 'Four-Ninety' will give exceptionally high mileage."

The Chevrolet, Model 'Four-Ninety' is sold in Carleton County by G. W. Jackson, Manager J. Clark & Son, Ltd., Woodstock; H. N. Dickinson, Hartland; F. L. Tompkins, East Florenceville; W. J. Gallagher, Bath, and B. E. Cliff, Centreville.

VICTORY LOAN BONDS

Bearing 5½ per cent. Due 1922, 1927, 1937

Obtainable in Denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000

Price, 100 per cent. and accrued interest.

Full information on request.

POSTMASTER WINSLOW

WOODSTOCK, N. B.

Strictly Cash

Owing to business conditions bought on by the war, all products of our mills, including wood, will be sold on a

Strictly Cash Basis

Smith Lumber Company,
Woodstock, N. B.

April 2, 1918.

For a Growing Child

no article of food is more nourishing nor more readily assimilated by young bodies than pure, sweet milk. Our Milk would be no purer or richer than it is had it a chemist's certificate with each bottle. Every penny spent for Our Milk buys the food elements necessary for bone and muscle building.

The Sanitary Dairy
WOODSTOCK, N. B.

EYESTRAINS Cause Inefficiency

The world offers its richest prizes to the Man who Sees, Thinks and Acts Quickly. Many Men are held back, not knowing it, by poor eyesight. It makes them inefficient. For the sake of your future success, come in, have your eyes examined and let us show you the benefits of our glasses.

H. M. MARTELL, Optometrist

Main street, WOODSTOCK, N. B.

P. O. Box 93

N. B. Tel. 42-11

Opposite Stevens Druggist

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. Soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and my Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life."

—Mrs. FRANK HANSON, 1316 S. Orchard St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headaches and "the blues" should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

HAD INTENDED TO LOOT PARIS

Germany's Plan at Beginning of War.

"I was out for a stroll on August 28, 1914, and happened to meet the German ambassador," says U. S. Ambassador Morgenthau in The World's Work for June. "He began to talk as usual about the German victories in France; the German armies, he said, would be in Paris within a week. The deciding factor in this war, he added, would be the Krupp artillery. 'And remember that this time,' he said, 'we are making war. And we shall make it rucksackless (without any consideration). We shall not be hampered as we were in 1870. Then Queen Victoria, the Czar, and Francis Joseph interferred and persuaded us to spare Paris. But there is no one to interfere now. We shall move to Berlin all the Parisian art treasures that belong to the State, just as Napoleon took Italian art works to France.' 'It is quite evident that the battle of the Marne saved Paris from the fate of Louvain. 'So confidently did Wangenheim expect an immediate victory that he began to discuss the terms of peace. Germany would demand of France, he said, after defeating her armies, that she completely demobilize and pay an indemnity. 'France now,' said Wangenheim, 'can settle for $5,000,000,000; but if she persists in continuing the war she will have to pay $20,000,000,000.' 'He told me that Germany would demand harbors and coaling stations 'everywhere.' At that time, judging from Wangenheim's statements, Germany was not looking so much for new territory as for great commercial advantages. She was determined to be the great merchant nation; and for this she must have free harbors, the Baghdad railroad, and extensive rights in South America and Africa."

When France shall smile again

The dismal clouds that hung like shrouds Above the fertile plain Shall melt away in a new-born day, When France shall smile again. And the binding tears that through long years Were shed in bitter pain, Shall find reward in the broken sword, When France shall smile again. For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again. The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again. For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

WHEN FRANCE SHALL SMILE AGAIN

The dismal clouds that hung like shrouds Above the fertile plain Shall melt away in a new-born day, When France shall smile again. And the binding tears that through long years Were shed in bitter pain, Shall find reward in the broken sword, When France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

The war's alarms to the open arms Of bounteous Hope shall yield, When plenty rife, once more to life Shall waken the stricken field, And that spirit fine, which was all divine, That battled with might and main, Shall still hold sway when the world is gay And France shall smile again.

For we look ahead, as we look above, Where the God of Peace shall reign, And Hate shall die in the arms of Love, When France shall smile again.

MUST BURY THEIR DEAD WITHOUT ANY CLOTHING

Owing to Shortage of Clothing in Germany, Order Is to Strip Corpses of All Garments Before Placing in Coffin.

The Germans are expected to strip their dead before they bury them. Bodies are to be placed into the coffins without a stitch of clothing. They may be wrapped in paper, however. This is the only concession made to the relatives of the dead, whose feelings are hurt by the order.

Clothing is very scarce in Germany. Every scrap counts. The government has no use for sentimentalists who would squander garments on the dead while the living are without clothes. The rules and regulations regarding burials are not observed strictly enough by the population of Munich, says the Meusebach Nachrichten. According to a report published by the Mayor's office there were 936 men buried in Prince Albert coats and 1,300 men buried in sack coats during the year, while 136 women were buried in silk and 2,132 in woollen dresses.

In Munich the custom of hiring women who attend to washing and dressing the dead is in vogue. These women, the official attendants of the dead, have been ordered by the Mayor to refuse their services wherever they are asked to put into the coffin a corpse clothed in anything but paper. These professional women are held responsible for the execution of the edict.

In order to facilitate matters it has been proposed to inaugurate a new activity on the part of the State. All the clothing worn by and left by a person deceased is to be turned over to the authorities, who will furnish a paper costume for the body. Thus no more of these precious textile materials are to be buried with the dead.

WONDERFUL NEWS.

It is wonderful news that is coming out of France these days to the effect that the famous Hindenburg line is crumbling under the terrific hammer blows which are being struck by our allies at the front. What changes have two years wrought! Formerly the most heartening news that could come across the water was that the Germans were being held in check; now it is the Teutonic army which is striving to hold on; it has lost its offensive power and the initiative seems to have passed completely to the Entente troops. War, however, is full of unexpected happenings and unforeseen changes. It is far too early to assume full confidence but the signs are most gratifying. The magic of Teutonic efficiency has lost its effect, and it is becoming plainer that Hindenburg is no miracle man after all.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Theories cause more worries than facts.

A flirt is a girl who is afraid she will be left at the post.

There is no end of trouble in a family that has two heads.

The more women see of the men the more they see to admire in mirrors.

All women follow the fashions but some are a long distance behind.

A PROMPT BUT LIGHT SENTENCE.

(New York Tribune.)

"I know the Kaiser," said Fred Holman, an enemy alien of Far Rockaway, "and he is all right."

"You are going to know the keeper of the workhouse quite well, too," Magistrate Doyle told him yesterday.

"You'll be there three months."

Send to the boys in the trenches a bit of the home they have given up to defend their country. Help to swell the Knights of Columbus Fund for this purpose.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the whole system, and snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should enrich your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal-food and a building-tonic, free from any harmful drugs. Try it—YOU!

Scott & Bowne, Toronto, Ont.

RETRIBUTION OVERTOOK THE U-BOAT PIRATES

150 Enemy Submarines Have Been Destroyed by the British Navy

London, Sept. 10.—Although the British government does not intend to adopt the practice of giving proof of official utterances made by its ministers, it has been thought desirable to print in tomorrow's newspapers the names of the commanding officers of 150 German submarines which have been disposed of in order to substantiate the statement of Premier Lloyd George in the House of Commons that "at least 150 of these ocean pests have been destroyed." The statement to be published does not include the names of officers commanding Austrian submarines put out of action.

A majority of the 150 officers mentioned are dead. Some of them are prisoners of war, and a few were interned in neutral countries where they took refuge. Among the officers named are: Kapitän-Lieutenant Schweiger, who, while in command of the U-20 torpedoed the Lusitania in May 1915. The U-20 was lost on the Danish coast in 1916, but Schweiger survived and was in command of the U-80 which was lost with all hands in September 1917.

Kapitän Lieutenant Paul Wagenfuhr who sank the steamer Belgian Prince July 31, 1917, and drowned, forty of the crew, whom he ordered to line up on the submarine deck when the U-boat was about to submerge. His submarine, the U-44 was sunk with all hands about a fortnight later.

Kapitän Lieutenant Rudolph Schneider, who torpedoed the steamer Arabie in August, 1915.

The statement says it is significant that the authors of particularly atrocious crimes have expiated them speedily after their commission.

ONLY BARE FACT IN THE OFFICIAL OTTAWA NOTICE

"Killed in Action" is Record of Lt. Col. McKenzie's Death

The official cablegram to Lieutenant McKenzie's family in New-Castle bore the simple yet tragic announcement: "Killed in action, August 28." The gallant commander of New Brunswick's one infantry battalion in the greatest war of all ages thus fell in the fighting following the storming of Monchy-les-Prenx, when the Canadian slogan was "Monchy before breakfast." Monchy was captured and the 26th here, as at Arras, seems to have been in the forefront of the fight.

HIS FAMILY.

Campbellton, Sept. 5.—This town is in mourning tonight for Lt.-Col. A. E. G. McKenzie, killed in action in France. Besides his wife and children, there survive his parents, Archibald McKenzie, former collector of customs here, and Mrs. McKenzie; four brothers, Lyon, with the C.P.R. Construction Corps in France; James in British Columbia; Paul, who went overseas and is wounded and now in St. John; Colin, now in England with the 9th Siege Battery, and three sisters, Estelle, at home; Lulu, in New Hampshire, and Audrey, in Montreal.

CANTERBURY.

The annual picnic of the Canterbury Chapter, I. O. O. F., was held at "The Pines", Skiff Lake, Aug. 22. The usual number attended the members coming from North Lake and Canterbury. Some of the ladies showed their interest by driving fifteen miles.

Dinner and supper were served according to the food regulation and the tables were conspicuous by the absence of frosting and pastry.

The party were entertained with motor boating, rowing and canoeing. Mr. Harrison, Fishery inspector, of Fredericton, who was on an official visit to the Lake kindly left a donation. The society also received donations from Mrs. Pendergast and Mrs. Taylor of Boston.

BESSIE LONDON.

Send to the boys in the trenches a bit of the home they have given up to defend their country. Help to swell the Knights of Columbus Fund for this purpose.

STIR YOUR TEA

Stir the pot of Tea a minute or so before pouring. This evenly distributes the tea essence that has been drawn from the leaves, but is lying mostly at the bottom of the pot. You will then get the full flavor from your Tea. And if it is KING COLE Orange Pekoe, note when you stir, the delightful fragrance of the infused leaves. Note also the rich color of the Tea when poured—both indications of unusual quality.

KING COLE Orange Pekoe is different from other Teas.

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT BY THE FULL NAME

SOLD IN SEALED PACKAGES ONLY.

THE EXTRA CHOICE TEA

Can You Beat It?

$25 Per Week for disability from any one of 28 diseases, including Typhoid Fever, Diphtheria and Appendicitis.

It is only $10.00 Per Year

C. M. AUGHERTON, Woodstock, N. B.
AGENT EMPIRE TYPEWRITERS.

Highest Cash Prices Paid For Potatoes

Any Variety. Both Table and Seed Stock. Delivered at any Station in the C.P.R. or I.C.R. Railway.

NELLES & CLARK,

Woodstock, Carleton Co., N. B.

N. B. Phone 171-41

Farmers' 20-2

Office in Graham block

International Harvester Co., MACHINERY

Come see our Farm Machinery. We have Everything you want—McCormick Fert., Disc Drills, Plain Disc Drills, Oliver Riding Plows, Out-throw and In-throw Disc Harrows, Spring Tooth Harrows, Cultivators, Smoothing Harrows, Manure Spreaders, Mogul Engines, Crank Axle Wagons.

Phillips Estey Co. Ltd.,
O. R. ESTEY, Manager.

A Simple Proposition

Here is the McClary Sunshine Furnace proposition.

McClary's heating engineers will give you advice and estimates of cost of correct heating plant free. When you purchase a Sunshine Furnace, McClary's engineers will provide you proper plans for installing it the McClary way by which they will guarantee satisfactory results.

For Sale by
H. H. FAULKNER

McClary's
Sunshine
Furnace

London St. John, N.B. Toronto Calgary Montreal Hamilton Winnipeg Edmonton Vancouver Saskatoon