

OBITUARY

JAMES RULOFSON FOWLER.

The death of James Rulofson Fowler, occurred at his home, Lakeville, Carleton County, July 6th, after an illness of valvular heart trouble.

The deceased was born at Upham, Kings County, Sept. 23rd, 1848, and was the youngest son of the late James Rulof Fowler and Rachel Melick, direct descendants of the United Empire Loyalists.

Mr. Fowler set up a black-smith business in Lakeville over forty-five years ago, and was in his younger days considered the best "horse-shoer" in that part of the country.

He was also favorably known as the "sweet singer" of Lakeville, having led the choir for many years.

He was a life long Conservative and a Methodist in religion. At the time of his death he was Supt. of the Union Sunday School at Lakeville.

The funeral was under the direction of the Hackett Loyal Orange Lodge, of which he was a charter member, and was very largely attended by many personal friends, who came to do honor to the man whose kindly genial words would greet them no more.

Rev. J. Champion, Methodist, and Rev. Mr. Johnston, Baptist, spoke while beautiful music was rendered by the choir, among other selections two duets by the Misses Maude Hudson and Hilda Wilson.

Mr. Fowler was laid to rest in the Williamstown cemetery, Monday afternoon beside the late Mrs. Fowler, who pre-deceased him three years and three months.

The sons and daughters are Mrs. M. I. F. Carvell, St. John; Mrs. S. S. McBrade, Easton, Me.; J. Fenwick Fowler, New Haven, Conn.; C. Leslie of Fort Fairfield, Me.; E. M. Morse, Lakeville; Mrs. Arthur Howden, Dewar Lake, Sask.; George R. Halifax, and Howard, F., recently returned from overseas, and who has been a constant attendant on his father since his arrival; fifteen grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. James Baxter, Westfield Centre.

DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation. I took five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before consenting to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my work is a pleasure. I tell all my friends who have any trouble of this kind what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—NELLIE B. BRITTINGHAM, 609 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.

It is only natural for any woman to dread the thought of an operation. So many women have been restored to health by this famous remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after an operation has been advised that it will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to consider trying it before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

LISTLESS, PEVISH GIRLS

When a girl in her teens becomes peevish, listless and dull, when nothing seems to interest her and dainties do not tempt her appetite, you may be certain that she needs more good blood than her system is provided with. Before long her pallid cheeks, frequent headaches, and breathlessness and heart palpitation will confirm that she is anemic. Many mothers as the result of their own girlhood experience can promptly detect the early signs of anaemia, and the wise mother does not wait for the trouble to develop further, but at once gives her daughter a course with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which renew the blood supply and banish anaemia before it has obtained a hold upon the system.

Out of their experience thousands of mothers know that anaemia is the sure road to worse ills. They know the difference that good red blood makes in the development of womanly health. Every headache, every gasp for breath that follows the slightest exertion by the anemic girl, every pain she suffers in her back and limbs are reproaches if you have not taken the best steps to give your weak girl new blood, and the only sure way to do so is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

New, rich red blood is infused into the system by every dose of the pills. From this new rich blood springs good health, an increased appetite, new energy, high spirits and perfect womanly development. Give your daughter Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and take them yourself and note how promptly their influence is felt in better health.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
