

THE BIG SALE IS NOW ON Pianos and Talking Machines

At greatly reduced prices and the lowest authorized selling price is marked in plain figures on every instrument. Remember this is a Manufacturer's Sale.

PIANOS AS LOW AS $190

And The PHONOGRAPHS All Marked Away Down For Next Week

When buying a Piano or Phonograph you can turn your organ in as part payment and we will allow you every dollar it is worth and give you easy terms on the balance.

Besides you SAVE $100. if you buy a Piano next week and 20 per cent on Talking Machines.

Our goods are of the highest quality and carry a 25 years guarantee backed by the Manufacturers.

Do you want a piano? Yes! Then why not come now and make your selection? Eight different makes to choose from. Don't wait too long, a word to the wise is sufficient.

CUMBERLAND PIANO & MUSIC CO. Woodstock, N. B.

Open evenings until 9 o'clock. Phone 185-11

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Sentinel
March 18, 1899

J. Allan Perley is leading a movement at Andover, looking to the reopening of the station at that village. It is hoped that the movement may be successful.

Wednesday night a heavy northeast snow storm set in; as we go to press Thursday afternoon, some 10 inches of the beautiful has fallen, and it is still snowing.

In the County of Carleton, Dennis B. Gallagher to be Registrar of Probates.

Spurgeon Brown, of Hartland, to be an Issuer of Marriage Licenses. Resignations accepted.

Of J. Titus Carter, as Clerk of the Peace and Vendor of Postage Stamps for the county of Victoria.

Of Frank B. Carvell, as Registrar of Probates for the county of Carleton.

These gentlemen had to resign preliminary to their running elections for the Local House.

CENTREVILLE.
Mr. Harry Smith, of St. John, spent Sunday in this village.

Rev. S. Greenlaw, assisted by Mr. G. McDonald, supplied for Rev. G. Sellar, Sunday.

J. G. Simonson has his saw mill running. orphanage building during this year.

Mr. Murray King, of Robinson's Mills, paid the village a dying visit meeting, to be held at Gibson, in R. W. Balloch is making his store look attractive by painting the wood work and ceiling. Mr. Albert Turner is doing the decorating.

A. J. Lee has been doing same fine work on the interior of his tailoring establishment by papering and painting.

Chas. Wilkinson has placed his card before the public as agent for the Frost & Wood. We hope he will be patronized; he will handle all kinds of farming implements.

Miss Mary Hovey has opened up a dress making shop in the village.

M.A.A. Burr, of Bridgewater, was in the village Sunday.

Mr. A. A. Campbell is ably supported in the sale of Small & Fisher's stoves by Charles Cahill.

Harry B. Smith, W. F. Dibblee & Son's popular clerk, is in the village today.

Mr. John Estey, of Jacktown, is here today looking for horses; this is the place to find them.

HARTLAND.
The executive of the Free Baptist Young people's League was in session here on Monday. Members present, Revs L. A. Fenwick, of Victoria Corner, F. C. Hartley, of Fredrickton, M. L. Gregg, of Gibson, J. B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.

Scot Flemming has been down to South Richmond for a short visit.

Mrs. Henderson, of Presque Isle, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Davis has returned from a short visit at Presque Isle.

Our day school is taught by Miss Hattie Jameson of Richmond.

The roads are good and the farmers are hauling wood.

Our prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening with good attendance.

LAKEVILLE.
The snow is disappearing and the roads are not as good as usual.

Mrs. John Reynolds is visiting her old friends for a few days.

We are glad to report that both Mrs. Bishop and Mr. John King are convalescing.

Mrs. Matthew Smith has been very ill, but the doctors have hopes of her recovery.

Mrs. D. Miller has a young daughter.

WESTON.
The Misses Ferguson and Master B. Daggett, of Hartland and Mr. T. Blake have been visiting Miss C. Lindsay, of Woodstock. The executive considered at length India Orphanage work, and it was decided to spend $1,000 in improvements on threshing and sawing wood in this vicinity.