PROVINCIAL FINANCES IN A HEALTHY STATE

"You know that it is desirable that the Foster government should be returned. You know the Foster government has done good work under as difficult conditions as any government has ever had to deal with. We found corruption, and the financial affairs of the province in a very unsatisfactory state, but we have straightened out matters as well as we could, and we have brought the province along financially till this year there is enough money in sight to meet all expenses and leave a surplus besides. That is good work in the circumstances."—Extract from speech by Hon. C. W. Robinson at Moncton.

TOWN COUNCIL IN SPECIAL SESSION

Wilson-Achland Charges Discussed—Asked to Appear Before Board—Prove or Publicly Retract.

At a special meeting of the Town Council on Friday evening to enquire into the recent alleged riot, it was decided that there was nothing to enquire into so far as the police officials are concerned, and by motion it was also decided to put it up to those who say that the police were to blame.

His Worship Mayor Nodden, Town Manager Armstrong and Ald. Augherton, Trne, Gallagher and Smith were present.

The mayor explained the object of the meeting.

Mr. Armstrong said that he had, of course, charge of the police department. It was not his business to know why the gathering was formed but it was his business to see that the police did their duty. The police had the gathering under control at all times. The police did everything they possibly could do. The chief talked to the crowd reasonably, and so did his assistant; after the original fight, no damage was done with the exception of a window broken in the Carlisle Hotel.

Ald. Smith thought that something should be done. He was in favor of law and order. If McAlush broke the law he should have been arrested by the police; the same would apply to Coun. Hannah. He (Smith) had not seen a drunken man on the streets this summer.

Ald. Gallagher—in justice to the police an investigation of some kind should be held.

Ald. True—it seems to me, it is not right to make charges against officers unless the charges can be backed up.

Ald. Augherton was not in favor of any investigation so far as the officers were concerned, because they had done their duty.

Mr. Armstrong—I saw several riots in English towns while overseas and no two men can quiet a gathering by harsh means. The police in this case did not try, but they got control by talking to the gathering. I was not present, but my information varied from 30 to 70 men in the gathering.

Ald. Gallagher—Is there no way by which we can get at those men who made the charges in the newspapers?

Mr. Hartley—You could bring a suit against them for libel.

Moved by Ald. Smith, seconded by Ald. Gallagher, that the police committee follow up the investigation. Motion withdrawn.

Moved by Ald. Augherton, said by Ald. True, that a committee of the whole be appointed and that the two reverend gentlemen who signed communications in the newspapers, attacking the Mayor, Town Manager and police, be notified that the said committee is prepared to hear their evidence, on any date they may select, and, if they cannot prove their charges, the Council will ask for apologies. Motion carried and Council adjourned.

A Boost for St. Stephen

In the absence from town of the St. John flock of "Thou Shalt Not" men sent to St. Stephen to cover the fair the staff of the St. John Standard got rattled, and just naturally there were consequences. In the Thursday edition of the enterprising St. John paper, imbedded in a write-up of the St. Stephen Fair, appeared a cut of a rather good looking gentleman over the inscription, Mr. James Gibson, president of the trotting club at the St. Stephen Fair. Now it happens that Mr. Gibson resides in Woodstock and is the president of the trotting club connected with the Woodstock Fair and somebody may be puffed by the blunder in the Standard office, but while Woodstock owns Mr. Gibson and St. Stephen would like to own him and the Standard strives to be truthful always, it must be apparent to all that only the "Thou Shalt Not" men are at fault for putting Mr. Gibson in really good company, for the time being.—Courier.

HON. C. W. ROBINSON NAMED AS MINISTER OF LANDS AND MINES IN THE LOCAL GOVT.

Outstanding Public Man and Leading Lawyer—Many Years in Politics—Appointment Gives Much Satisfaction.

St. John, Sept. 27.—Premier Foster announced that Hon. Clifford W. Robinson had been offered and had accepted the portfolio of Lands and Mines recently made vacant by the resignation of Hon. Dr. Smith. Hon. Mr. Robinson has been a member of the Foster cabinet without portfolio since its formation in 1917. The news of the appointment will give keen satisfaction all over the province because Mr. Robinson is one of the outstanding public men of the day.

The new minister was born in Moncton and represents that constituency in the Legislature. His father was candidate for Westmorland county on two occasions. He is one of the leading lawyers of the province. In 1896 he contested Westmorland county against H. A. Powell, K. C., and was defeated by but fifteen votes. Less than a year later he was elected to the Legislature by acclamation in a by-election and elected in the general elections of 1899 and 1903. He was elected Speaker of the third Assembly, February 28, 1901, and of the fourth on March 26, 1903. In 1907 he was made a member of the Executive Council without portfolio in the government led by Hon. William Pugsley and was re-elected at the general elections in March, 1908. His party having been defeated, however, he resigned the Premiership on March 20. He was elected at the general elections 1917 and upon the formation of the Foster cabinet on April 4, 1917, he was taken into the government without portfolio.

Hon. Mr. Robinson will be sworn in as Minister of Lands and Mines within a few days, on the return of the Lieutenant-Governor, who is now absent.

OBITUARY

In the death of Mrs. William Hale, at Pembroke, on the 26th inst., at the age of 86 years, one of the oldest residents of Carleton county is removed. Her maiden name was Ester Tedlie, daughter of the late Adam Tedlie, and Elizabeth, his wife, who were among the pioneer settlers of Carleton county coming from Ireland over one hundred years ago and settling at Lower Brighton, where the homestead still stands, occupied by George Tedlie, a grandson. She was married to the late William Hale in 1855, and was the mother of eight children, three sons five daughters.

Three daughters survive: Mrs. John Colter, Pembroke, Mrs. Warren Bull, Northampton, and Mrs. A. E. Jones, Woodstock.

There are eighteen grand children and fifteen great-grand children. She was converted at the early age of sixteen years and joined the Baptist Church at Lower Brighton, of which she was a worthy member until her death.

It can be truthfully said she was given to hospitality. Her home was the lodging place of all ministers, irrespective of creed. Her hands were never to busy to minister to any in need of her help. Her purse was always open to any call where money was required. She went about doing good, sometimes walking for miles to help in cases of sickness or trouble.

The respect in which she was held was shown by the beautiful floral offerings and the large congregation at her funeral, which was conducted by Rev. L. E. Ackland, assisted by Rev. Mr. Trites, preaching from St. John 17:24, "Father I will that they also whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am that they also may behold my glory."

Preached Acceptably

The following referring to a Woodstock boy is taken from a recent issue of the Amherst, N. S., Daily News of a recent date: Mr. Harold B. Camp, pastor of the Waterville Baptist Church, and a former assistant pastor of this church, preached very acceptably both morning and evening. His morning subject, "Homelickness," was based on Psalm 90:1, and his evening subject, "Demas," was taken from II Timothy, 2:10. Mr. Camp has a pleasing personality and an attractive style of pulpit address. His sermons yesterday were helpful to a marked degree. The congregation was large and the music exceptionally good. The fine solos by Archie Foster and Horace Read were much appreciated.

COUNTY COURT ADJOURNS

Prisoners Get Penitentiary Terms—Suspended Sentences—Appeal for Boy.

A somewhat lengthy session of the County Court was finished Friday night. Kenneth McLean, who was charged with the theft of a horse and rig, which he afterwards returned, was put on his good behaviour for the next four years.

Frank Smith, a young lad found guilty of stealing a sum of money, was brought up for sentence. At the request of Sheriff Foster, who was interested in the boy's welfare, Judge Carleton consented to hear Mr. Ziba Grey on the boy's behalf. Mr. Grey told the Judge he had an opportunity of seeing the young man every day for several months, and he felt he was not bad at heart and had, perhaps, limited chances. Judge Carleton asked the boy where his parents were, and he replied that he did not know. He then asked who would become responsible for the boy, and Mr. Grey promptly replied "I will." The charitable attitude of Mr. Grey, and the clemency of the Judge, evoked some applause from those present which the court officers gently quieted. Mr. Grey and his young charge went away smiling.

Daniel Stevenson, who was found guilty of a serious crime, was given two years in the penitentiary, and a whipping.

In the case of John Cassidy, who was found guilty of burning a barn belonging to John Rush, in North Richmond, the Judge sentenced the prisoner to ten years in the penitentiary.

The lawyers attending court and taking part in the proceedings were J. C. Hartley, K. C., Robt. L. Simms, P. C. Squires, Chas. J. Jones.

WEDDING

At the early hour of six-thirty on Wednesday morning, in St. Gertrude's Church, Rev. F. M. Lockery united in marriage Miss Florence Britton, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Britton, and Mr. Archie Bailey, of Houlton, Maine. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a dark green silk suit with large black picture hat and carried a white prayer book. She was attended by Miss Kathleen Whalen, who wore a navy blue serge suit, with hat to match. Mr. James Beloungie, of Houlton, acted as best man. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Maple Street, to the relatives and intimate friends of the bridal party. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Bailey left by automobile for their future home in Houlton. Mrs. Bailey, who has many friends, received a large number of beautiful gifts.

Pastoral Change

Rev. M. T. Murphy, who has been Parish Priest at Devon since 1916, has been transferred to Milltown, N. B. Father Murphy was at Debec for many years.

Mrs. A. H. McLean, and Miss Mary McLean were visitors in St. John this week.

John Wallace continues very ill and slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Fleming gave a most enjoyable house dance and bridge on Thursday evening last. The music was excellent, furnished by the Woodstock orchestra. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and hydrangea. Miss Dorothy Jones opened the door for the guests, and the Misses Laura Chandler and Mary King ushered them. Mrs. Fleming was assisted in serving by Miss Mary McPhail, Miss Marion McPhail, Miss Kathleen Lynott and Mrs. Harry Chandler. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. McPhail, Mrs. R. R. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. R. Riley, Misses Mary Clarke, Jean Stewart, Gretchen and Muriel Smith, Miss Chestnut (Frederickton), Ruth McManus, Jennie Pierce, Mary McLean, Gertrude Thompson, Mary Balmaine, Bertha Sprague, Allie VanWart Marguerite Merriman, Louise Smith, Violet Oltz, Messrs. Clarence Hayden, Gordon McPhail, Fred Grant, Edw. Hand, Lyman Fleming, Fraser Armstrong, Wightman Manzer, Bernard Lockwood, Fred Buck, Willard Hayden, Vernon Holyoke, and Dyson Wallace.

Isaac O'Brien formerly of St. George N. B., but now of Boston, was in town this week, coming by motor. Mr. O'Brien is one of the New Brunswick boys that has made a business success in the Hub.

Charles Wolhaupter is quite seriously ill with blood poisoning.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR THE FUTURE

"We have before us as a people many problems. The burdens of the war will be felt for many years to come and the only way in which the exchange situation can be righted is by increasing our production and thereby our sales abroad. As a government we will continue development of water powers, making good roads, promoting colonization, safeguarding our Crown Lands and the revenue therefrom, aiding education, establishing technical schools, fostering agriculture and the expenditure of our income therefrom in the best interests of the people. With these things in view we will ever have before us that aim to carry on the government of the province on the principles of peace, justice and harmony."—From speech by Premier Foster in the Legislature 1920.

LIBERALS NOMINATE TWO CANDIDATES

As we go to press the Liberal Convention is adjourning. A very representative gathering from nearly all the parishes, placed in nomination Dr. E. M. Commins, of Bath, and R. L. Sims, of Woodstock. The third member of the ticket is left to choice of the electors. Both candidates made speeches of acceptance and the fight is on.

Mrs. W. P. Jones gave a very pleasant tea on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. F. C. Morrell, of Newcastle. Mrs. Jones was assisted by Mrs. T. M. Jones, Mrs. Karl Damon, and Miss Dorothy Jones. The guests were Mrs. F. C. Morrell, Mrs. H. Ritchie, Mrs. C. J. Jones, Mrs. J. Russell Cooke (Edmundston), Mrs. Ernest Ross (Caban), Mrs. R. W. Hay, Mrs. Harold Deeming, Mrs. Frank Mitchell, Mrs. R. P. Hartley, Mrs. A. M. Fisher, Mrs. Burdette Harmon, Mrs. Gibson Fleming, Mrs. George DeMille, Miss Edith Dalling, Miss Bessie McLaughlan, Miss Marie Thompson, Miss Madeline Griffin, Miss Helen Hand, Miss Viva McAfee, Miss Kathleen Hand, and Miss Isabel Watts.

Induction

The induction of Rev. S. R. Prince into the pastorate of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church took place Wednesday evening with the customary ceremonies. Rev. Mr. Back, of Milltown, was moderator; Rev. R. J. Millar, Richmond, addressed the minister and Rev. Mr. Maguire, of McAdam, addressed the congregation. The church was beautifully decorated with a wealth of flowers. The new pastor was formerly stationed at Fort Kent, Maine. He is the guest of Mr. J. R. Gilliland.

GOVERNMENT CANDIDATES IN VICTORIA COUNTY

Grand Falls, Sept. 29.—At a representative gathering of the government supporters in Victoria county, held here today, Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, Minister of Agriculture, and John R. McCuskey, of this town, were selected as government candidates for this county in the forthcoming election. The selection of this ticket assures a rousing government victory in Victoria county and will be received with enthusiasm in every section of the county.

Is Ill

James Watson, a well-known and respected citizen of Jacksonville, is quite ill at his home. A speedy recovery is hoped for by his friends.

The Annual District Convention of The Annual District Convention of the W. M. S. of the Methodist Church met at Lakeville Tuesday, September 21st, which proved to be one of the best and most helpful. Mrs. Corbett, who is entering on her 21st year as District Superintendent, presided, with Mrs. Harrison secretary-treasurer. The president of the branch, Mrs. Sanford, gave valuable help, while her splendid address on "White Coal" at the evening session was an inspiration to all. A large number of delegates and visitors were present. Encouraging reports were brought of last year's work, and new ideas and plans were discussed for the coming year. Several helpful papers were also read. The ladies of Lakeville, noted for their hospitality, gave all a royal welcome. An invitation was given and accepted to meet next year at Debec.

NEW BIRD LAW

Under the new Federal Bird Law it becomes necessary to obtain a permit for the right to take or keep migratory nongame or migratory insectivorous birds or their eggs for propagation purposes.
