WHERE TO BUY.

Some people are possessed of the idea that an article purchased outside the home town takes on an added value, although it is exactly the same thing sold at the same price, or even cheaper at home. Of course people who think this are deceiving themselves so far as actual values go. It may be worth the time and trouble and extra expense out of town trading entails, just to cater to their wrong conception, but they ought to know that in the main they are "kidding" themselves. Other things being equal, and they generally are, the home merchant has a right to expect the patronage of home people. He is an established part of the community, he contributes to the business and social life of the town. His contribution to the tax revenue of the town depends upon the size of his business, and he is in every way the logical man with whom to do business for the benefit of the community. When Woodstock people spend money in Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton for things that can be purchased at home, just as advantageously as out of town, they are helping to support the schools, the streets, the sidewalks, the fire protection, and all other governmental activities of those outside places. They are not helping Woodstock to maintain itself and are actually lessening its ability because they are denying it an indirect revenue, that belongs to the home town. It is easy to think that the other fellow has the best things and the best prices. Some even find a curious satisfaction in a fancied display of well being by being able to go out of town and spending their hard earned Canadian dollar, for which they receive ninety cents.

BOVRIL

The great "key food" that makes other foods more nourishing.

It is about time that Woodstock people started a counter-offensive and it can be done by patronizing your own stores. When, without reason, we go outside we are helping some other community at the expense of our town. That surely doesn't seem like good business.

The danger of buying liquors in these days is demonstrated in a most tragic way by what happened in Southern New England cities, in New York, in Chicago, and undoubtedly in scores of other cities of the country last week. Thirty individuals bought their drinks and a great many of them paid for the indulgence with their life, because instead of whiskey being served them, they were given a copation the base of which was the deadly wood alcohol.

It isn't safe to be buying whiskey these days. Best way to do is to forget it.

The continued freedom of the former Emperor and his war lords is an insult to every man who served with the allied armies and every father and mother who sacrificed their son to go.

BENTON

There have been a good many changes in the last couple of years in the village: John F. Balger has bought the D. W. Olte' place; Harry Deacon has bought the Grosvenor House; William Day has got the home of Mr. Theresa Boyle; Charles Murchland has the Harry Boyle home; Charly Day has sold the old home to George Mills, Jr.

Our enterprising young friend, Robert Hay has started a lot of business and giving employment to many. These is still a good chance for many kinds of industries.

We have the pleasure of having one of our soldier boys with us. Although the poor fellow has been sorely disabled he is the life of the place socially. Bears his affliction very bravely, cheerful and pleasant, and always ready to help in everything. Gordon Turner is really a wonderful help to the village.

A good many of our people spent their Christmas away with friends. Howard Deacon was home for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. William Day spent Christmas with their children in Houlton.

Joseph Murchland is home hurt badly.

We had a pretty wedding lately, when Stella Anderson and Mr. Bud Hallett were united by Rev. Mr. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Godsoe are being congratulated on the arrival of a little daughter; also Mr. and Mrs. T. Patriquin on the arrival of a daughter.

Mr. Geo. J. McNally is visiting his mother, accompanied by his little daughter, Dorothy.

Wishing all a Happy New Year.

KIRKLAND

Wilnot Lenentine, Monticello, Me., has been visiting relatives in this place and at Kirkland.

Mrs. William Dickinson was called to Woodstock by the death of her daughter, Mrs. A. Wheeler, formerly Mrs. Margaret Dorsey, who died in the hospital of pneumonia.

Mrs. John Murphy, of Canterbury, was in this place on Jan. 2nd, on her way to Kirkland.

Mr. Arthur Dickinson and little daughters, Luella and Jean, made a visit to Mrs. Fred Burton at Maxwell recently.

Ella Bustard, of Kirkland, has been spending a few days here.

Master Burns Hemphill has been visiting his grandparents at Benton and vicinity.

Herbert Gidney, a prosperous farmer of Kirkland, was married to Miss Fern Dickinson on Dec. 24th at Woodstock.

Archie Graham, of North Lake, was recently married to Miss Mabel Wright, of Hartin Settlement.

Mrs. James H. McNeilin, of Kirkland, has been very ill of congestion, but is recovering.

UPPER KENT

Jan. 6, 1920—Just as the sun sank to rest behind the hills on Monday evening, Jan. 5th, so Edmund Thompson of Maplehurst, sank to rest in the arms of Jesus. Mr. Thompson had been stricken by paralysis the Monday afternoon previous, and although all that medical skill and the care of a trained nurse and the loving administration of his own loved ones had been given him, there was little hope of his recovery from the first.

With the passing of Mr. Thompson

HELPLESS WITH RHEUMATISM

Until He Took "Fruit-a-tives" The Fruit Medicine

R. R. No. 1, Lorne, Ont.
"For over three years, I was confined to bed with Rheumatism. I treated with doctors, and tried nearly everything without benefit. Finally, I tried 'Fruit-a-tives'. Before I had used half a box I saw improvement; the pain was easier and the swelling started to go down. I continued taking this fruit medicine, improving all the time, and now I can walk about two miles and do light chores about the place".
ALEXANDER MUNRO.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Maplehurst, and all this part of the country has lost one of its very best citizens. He was a man of blameless character, a devoted Christian, a most consistent member of the Methodist church, always present at its services. Helpful in every good word and work.

It could be truly said of Mr. Thompson as Jesus said of Nathaniel "Behold an Israelite indeed in whom is no guile." Mr. Thompson was a most affectionate husband and loving father, thoughtful and kind to all with whom he came in contact. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Medina Penna, a sister of the Revs. William and Henry Penna, two daughters, the Misses Carrie and Phyllis, three brothers, Norman of Maplehurst, James of Newburg, and George, of Caribou, Me.

Mr. Thompson was the youngest son of Alexander and Margaret (Wallace) Thompson, and had spent his entire life in Maplehurst. He had heeded the advice of William Cullen Bryant as given in the few last lines of "Thanatopsis"

"So live, that when thy summons to join

The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take

His chamber in the silent halls of death

Thou go not, like the quarry slave
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed

By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave

Like one who wraps the drapery of About him, and lies down to please his couch dreams and dreams."

To Mrs. Thompson, her daughters and all the sorrowing relatives goes out the deepest sympathy, and in this hour of great trial may they this hour of great trial may they feel around and underneath them the Everlasting arms.

Handwriting on the Wall

Through sunshine and sorrow
Through laughter and tears,
The great safeguard of homes
More than one hundred years
Johnson's Anodyne Liniment

A prophecy come true. This famous doctor's prescription for internal and external use has over 100 years of success in treatments of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Cramps, Chills, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Sprains, Strains, etc. Soothing—healing—satisfying.

SMALL ADVANCE IN SUBSCRIPTION RATES

For over seventy years the subscription price of The Sentinel has not been increased. But the time has now arrived when we are reluctantly compelled to announce AN INCREASE OF FIFTY CENTS. Everything that goes in producing a newspaper has advanced in price and it is an undisputed fact that the publishers have been the hardest hit. If we are to continue in business we must have the small increase asked. Our friends will realize the position in which we are placed and will cheerfully pay the new rate which will take effect January 1st, 1920.

We have received a new supply of
