TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

From the Sentinel
Aug 25th, 1895

Mrs. Arthur Bailey is visiting friends at Fredericton.

Mr. John McLaughlin and family are taking an outing at St. Andrews.

Thane M. Jones left on Saturday to make a trip to Halifax on his bike.

The Misses Marlee, St. Stephen, are visiting their sister, Mrs. W. B. Belyea.

Charles Baker, of the People's Bank now stationed at Wolfville, N. S., is spending his vacation at his home here.

The Calais Advertiser of the 14th inst., gives the following account of the silver wedding of Rev. F. S. and Mrs. Todd; the Sentinel joins in the wishes for the "many happy returns."

The silver wedding of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Todd took place at the Baptist parsonage, Milltown, on Monday evening, where a large number of guests were assembled to celebrate the occasion.

The rooms were prettily decorated with vines and flowers, on a table was placed a handsome bridal loaf, amid an arrangement of flowers to form the dates 1870-1895. After the reception of the guests, prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. McDonald followed by pleasant remarks by Rev. A. A. Padeford of Calais and Rev. Mr. Todd, of Woodstock.

Letters were read from their sons, who were unable to be present. Mrs. Asher Getchell representing the Baring church in a few choice words presented a gift of money from that society. A handsome silver tea service was presented by Deacon Ashley St. Clair from the Milltown society, other gifts in money and bric-a-brac were also bestowed.

Musical selections were given during the evening under the charge of Mr. Hugh Stevenson, also some fine recitations.

Mrs. Todd received her guests in a handsome dress of black satin and lace and wore white flowers, and presented a charming appearance. After refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade were served, the selection good-night was sung and the guests made their adieu, after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Todd many happy returns of their anniversary.

Sam Bagley, of Newburg, had some of his ribs broken by the kick of a horse on Friday.

John Gregg, of Gregg Settlement, near Centerville, lost two dwelling houses by fire on Saturday afternoon.

The house in which he lived first took fire, and the wind carried sparks to the old residence, some 80 rods distant, and both buildings were destroyed.

Insured.

Mrs. J. B. Adams, Kincardine, aged 63 years, was so seriously injured by falling down the stairs in her house a few days ago, that she died two hours after.

The interior of the F. C. B. church is being prettily re-painted. Messrs. Charles and George Lee are doing the work, and that is equal to saying the work will be well and tastefully done.

James Giberson, working in J. E. Porter's mill, Andover, on Tuesday, was struck by a piece of scantling flying from the planer and was so injured that he only lived half an hour.

He leaves a wife and two children.

BRISTOL.
Miss Lillie M. Boyer, only daughter, of Mr. G. H. Boyer, died on Friday, after a lingering illness. The funeral was on Sunday in the F. C. Baptist church, the sermon being preached by Rev. A. H. Hayward. The interment took place in the cemetery on the Hill.

Rev. J. E. Blakeney and Mrs. Blakeney, are the guests of her brother, Dr. Churchill. Mr. Blakeney will preach in the hall next Sunday morning, at 10.30 a. m.

Miss Charrie Bridges, who has been visiting her parents, returned to Boston yesterday. She was accompanied by her cousin, Mrs. Callahan.

Mrs. S. Watson died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Tompkins on Thursday and was buried on Saturday. Rev. Mr. Hayward conducted the funeral services.

Mr. George Hopkins has the contract for putting in the sewer leading from the R. R. crossing down past the residence of Mrs. Atkinson to the Main road.

LOWER BRIGHTON
The many friends of Mrs. J. Dickinson will be glad to hear that she is recovering from the injuries which she received by falling down cellar.

We are pleased to learn that Miss Beatrice Richardson is, at last, recovering from her long and tedious illness.

Miss Adelia McKinney left here Friday afternoon to visit friends and relatives in Fredericton.

Mrs. Spaulding of Lowell, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. S. N. Nixon.

Miss Edna Estabrooks has returned from a very pleasant visit to Greenbush, York Co.

Mr. Willie McGee, who is employed by the firm of Titus & Co. Woodstock as bookkeeper, spent last Sabbath in this place.

BENTON.
Miss Susie McNelly, who now lives in Andover, has been visiting Benton for the last three weeks.

During the past week, Mr. Morgan Miss Ella Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. David Porter, all of Hartland, have been in our village.

On Saturday last, Louise Speer, the little daughter of Joseph Speer of Speerville, while playing with a companion, fell from a fence and severely injured one of her arms.
