WERE YOU COUNTED?

Has every man, woman and child in Woodstock been counted in the census? This is an important matter, as the Sentinel has previously pointed out. Every one of us should make it a point to get on the census roll. Woodstock needs her every son and daughter. There are reports already of a falling off in population. Let it be said right here if we are to have any kind of a census we want a correct one. Those who have not been visited by an enumerator should take the matter up at once and notify the chief enumerator of the omission.

JUNE BRIDEGROOMS

This year's crop of June bridegrooms is not necessarily of such high fibre as last year's. When a dollar will buy a pound of butter and a dozen eggs and still leave a few pennies for postage to tell mother-in-law what a gorgeous girl she reared the conjugal happy man is less the financially depressed one.

The worst enemy of the young couple is the hypocrisy of "keeping up style." Our young people are not content to start at the bottom and climb, but must have a complete outfit; so they buy, with their small means, cheap stuff that quickly loses its attractions and falls to pieces. They must have cream instead of milk and dine out and must attend the movies and keep up to date in their clothes. The latest jazz records must be brought home regularly by the maturing bridegroom if he is to drive the monster of despair away from his frail-hearted, ear-bobbed consort. In other words, he feels obliged to show her the same good time she enjoyed when he won the prize from a field of "entertainers." Dearly must have something to talk about in her circle of girl friends.

The change in standards, which is general outside the philosophic classes, may be laid to father and mother. They have read a dangerous little and have decided their children should have all the fun they missed, and the way to have fun is to pair pleasure lovers. Discipline is an archaic thing and self-denial is a vice in an era wherein self-expression is the supreme duty.

Nevertheless the 1921 June bridegroom is in a better position than the 1920 model. Outside of rent necessities cost less, allowing him more money for the inconsequential that he and Edythe must have. Along about 1935, when little Meredith and Hypatia are ten and twelve, respectively, father and mother will doubtless jaw at each other for their earlier profligacy and determine heatedly that Meredith and Hypatia shall be brought up such fools. Thus the generations pursue their orbital careers and opinion swings through its ellipse.

The last number of the High School paper, "The Justician" contained some references to those to whom the guidance of school matters are entrusted that lacked some of the finer sensibilities that should control budding journalists. It is well to remember that while friends will laugh at your jokes, be they good or bad, there's a great deal in the way they do it.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

Things in this world are not very well balanced when heroes of Vimy and Courcelette are compelled to salute officers that found their own fire-sides the battle line during the world war.

MCLEOD-COLPITTS

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday morning last, at 10:30 o'clock, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. B. Colpitts, when their youngest daughter, Miss Luella Blanch Colpitts was united in marriage to Mr. W. Byard McLeod, of Corn Hill, Kings County, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. B. MORE POUNDS of "SALADA" TEA were sold in the first three months of this year than in the corresponding period of last year. This is equivalent to an INCREASE of 20 tons a week and a modest estimate of this means that over one hundred million MORE cups of delicious "SALADA" were enjoyed in the homes of the people during these three months than in the same three months of 1920.

This INCREASE confirms the popularity of "SALADA", which was evidenced by the INCREASE of 1,496,236 pounds in "SALADA" sales for 1920 over 1919, and the increase of 1,536,789 pounds in 1919 over 1918.

We publish these figures because we believe everyone is interested in the reward of merit. For 30 years we have been blending and selling an honestly fine quality tea to the public. In all that time "SALADA" has remained matchless in flavour—unapproached by any other tea in cup quality—and as a result has continually increased in sales.

Please remember the above figures represent our INCREASES alone—"SALADA" sales are not only larger than those of any other tea in America, but amount to over rendered by Miss Vida Hamilton. The bride who was unattended, was dressed in going away suit of navy blue serge with copper shade hat. BROWN-McDONALD

ONE-TENTH OF THE TOTAL IMPORTS OF ALL KINDS OF TEA INTO AMERICA—viz.: Canada and the United States.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Monday, June 20th, at 1:30 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gavin A. Brown, 192 College Street, when their second daughter, Annie Gertrude, was united in marriage to Robert James MacDonald, of Chatham, N. B. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. R. Prince in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was given away by her father. Miss Thelma Blake played the wedding march. The bride wore a becoming dress of white satin with veil of shadow lace with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations and sweet peas. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The bride's going away suit was of taupe broadcloth with hat to match. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald left on the Gibson train amidst the good wishes of their many friends. They will reside for the present in Chatham.

OBITUARY

MRS. ABIGAIL McCLEMENT

The death took place at her home on Wednesday morning of Mrs. Abigail McClement, widow of the late Edwin McClement, at the advanced age of 83 years. Deceased, who had only been ill a few months, was a most estimable Christian woman and few persons were better known or more deservedly esteemed in the community. For young and old she had always a kind and cheerful word and a friendly smile, and her death will be mourned by all who knew her. She is survived by three sons, Frank and John of this town and William of Bayonne, New Jersey; two brothers, Barney Doherty of Augusta and John of Pennsylvania; three sisters, Mrs. Higgins of Connecticut, and Mrs. Malone and Mrs. Murchie of Linneus, Maine.

The funeral took place on Friday afternoon. After prayers in St. Gertrude's Catholic church by Rev. F. M. Lockary, the burial was in the Methodist cemetery alongside her deceased husband. The pall bearers were John Thibadeau, Thomas L. McCaffery, Joseph Fewer, and Cook Hall. Mrs. Murchie, accompanied by her daughter, and Mrs. Malone, Mr. Doherty and William McClement were here for the funeral.

Almost Helpless

From St. Vitus Dance

The Muscles of the Hands, Face and Body Affected

St. Vitus dance is a disease of the nerves brought on by a morbid condition of the blood. It is common with children, and attacks girls more frequently than boys. Irritability is frequently one of the first signs noted. The child frets, is quarrelsome and does not sleep well. The jerky movements that characterize the disease come a little later. The limbs and sometimes the whole body jerks spasmodically, and in severe cases the power of speech is affected. Such a child should not be allowed to study, but should be kept quiet, given a nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will help the blood restore the shattered nerves. The value of these pills in cases of this kind is shown by the following statement from Mrs. Frank Reynolds, Windsor, N. S., who says: "When a young girl I suffered very severely from St. Vitus' dance. I could not keep still for a moment. If I tried to handle dishes I broke them, and could not safely attempt to hold a thing in my hands. No matter what was done for me I could not control the twitching in my face and body. My parents gave me several remedies, but they did not help me. Then one day my father brought home a half dozen boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After two boxes had been taken there was an improvement in my condition. By the time the last box was gone, to my own great joy and relief to our family, my condition was normal, and I have since enjoyed good health. I never lose an opportunity to say a good word for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.
