"PISTOLS FOR TWO"

Or perhaps it should be four-ounce gloves. Hon. Dr. Baxter is determined to make an impression at Ottawa. Last night in parliament, at the witching midnight hour, he was tempted to make it on some portion of the anatomy of Mr. T. W. Caldwell, the New Brunswick Progressive. When the two retired, apparently with designs upon each other's health, the house also emptied itself into the lobby and forgot all about the business of the country. No doubt the weather in Ottawa is warm, and extreme heat has a tendency to fray the nerves of statesmen; and it may therefore be regarded as a tribute to the vitality of our New Brunswick representatives in parliament that they are ready to indulge in violent exercise, on very slight provocation and at some personal risk, to vary the monotony of dull speeches on stale subjects. The Tourist Association, Boards of Trade and organizations devoted to publicity will now be able to claim for New Brunswick a new distinction. It is not merely the home of the big game, but of real sport, the red-blooded kind that encarnadines the shirt front when the bugle is neatly tapped. More power to the arm and shoulder work—and foot-work—of our gay blades who can empty the House of Commons in a twinkling by the mere suggestion of thrilling combat in the lobby. Let us hope parliament will not adjourn without erecting a ring of regulation size in the commons chamber, and giving Mr Baxter and Mr Caldwell the opportunity to go ten rounds. If pistols were used somebody else might be shot, and swords are obsolete. Let it be four ounce gloves, Marquis of Queensbury rules. —Times.

LARGE GRADUATING CLASS AT VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

ates in Home Making were presented by Mrs. Ogilvie.

The chairman presented the Maxwell medal to Rutherford Avery, Plymouth, who attained highest proficiency in the second year work of the Agricultural Course. On behalf of Mr. W. S. Sutton, who donates the medal for highest proficiency in first year Agricultural Course work, Mr. T C L Ketchum presented John Raymond, Middle Simonds, with a silver medal. The diplomas in Agriculture were presented by Mr. Peacock.

His Worship, Mayor Mair, on behalf of the Board of Trade of Woodstock, presented a magnificent silver meadl to Miss Helen McKinley, who attained highest general proficiency in the Commercial Course. Mr. Mair presented the diplomas to the graduates in the Commercial Department.

The Valedictory was exceedingly well rendered by Mr. Rutherford Avery, Plymouth. Mr. Avery's remarks, full of eloquence, freely expressed and uttered with feeling, were very well delivered.

Before the last number of the program was announced, Mayor Mair, on behalf of the local Vocational Committee, voiced the regrets of that group upon the resignation of Mr. Heckbert, who is about to enter into a furniture manufacturing business, and upon the temporary resignation of Miss Inch, who is going abroad to pursue further studies. Mr. Mair also spoke fittingly of the great interest manifested by the Women's Institute in the work of the Vocational School, and mentioned a few of the instances that showed the material support which that organization so ably renders the work of the institution.

After the singing of the Class Ode by the graduating classes, the program came to a very successful conclusion by the singing of the National Anthem.

KEDDY ELATED OVER HIS NEW LEASE ON LIFE

Dartmouth Blacksmith Says He Was Almost Past Working When He Got Tanlac and Was Then Entirely Relieved of Stubborn Stomach Trouble.

"I simply have been given a new lease on life and I don't believe money could buy a better medicine than Tanlac," said Nathan Keddy, Wentworth St, Dartmouth, N S, machine blacksmith for the Starr Mfg Co.

"I was in a very run-down condition for six years, had no relish for my food and what I did eat seemed to do me no good. I lost thirty-two pounds In the mornings I felt so worn out I would rather have taken a beating than get out of bed, and I was so languid and drowsy all day I almost fell asleep at the forge. I was just about down and out, and right on the point of giving up my job.

"Statements of Dartmouth people started me taking Tanlac and six bottles have put me on my feet again. My appetite is fine, I eat like a lumberjack and never have that tired drowsy feeling any more. Nine hours solid work comes easy now, and I don't hesitte to give Tanlac a big boost."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Sirs,—I have used your Minard's Liniment for the past 25 years and whilst I have occasionally used other liniments I can safely say that I have never used any to equal yours.

If rubbed between the hands and inhaled frequently, it will never fail to relieve cold in the head in 24 hours. It is also the best for bruises, sprains, etc.

Yours truly,
J. G. LESLIE

QUITE A LOT OF DIFFERENCE

Teacher—Can any scholar explain the difference between the words 'man' and 'men.'

Bright outh (eagerly)—Yes sir, 'man' means just one men, and 'men' means a lot of mans.'

WEDDINGS

WATSON—MILBURY

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs John H. Milbury, Woodstock, N. B, on Wednesday, June 14th, at 3.30 o'clock, when their daughter, Laura Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Mr Harry C. Watson of Lancaster, N. H.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. L E Ackland in the presence of about fifty relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was tastefully attired in a gown of white satin and georgette, and wore a bridal veil with orange blossoms and carried a shower boquet of white roses and maiden hair fern.

Miss Ola Milbury, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a costume of French blue crepe-de-chene.

The groom was supported by Edward A Bent, cousin of the bride.

The bridal party stood beneath an arch of maple-leaves, evergreen and daisies

The bride was the recipient of many useful presents including silverware, china, cut-glass, pryex, linen and money.

After the nuptial event a sumptuous repast was served, after which the evening was spent in a most happy and social way; instrumental and vocal music was rendered to the enjoyment of all.

The happy couple left by auto for their home in Lancaster, N. H., followed by the good wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy voyage through life.

BRIGGS-BELL

A very pretty house wedding was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon, June 14th, at the home of Mrs Ada Bell, Oakville, when her youngest daughter, Myrtle Fannie, became the wife of Charles Clinton Briggs of the same place. The bride looked charming in a dress of white silk crepe de chene and veil, and carried a shower boquet of white carnations and sweet peas

Miss Muriel Bell, sister of the bride was bridesmaid and wore a dress of blue embroidered organdy while Murray A B iggs supported the groom The wedding march was played by Morrell D Bell. The ceremony was performed by the Rev James Bennett in the presence of about seventy guests The rooms were very prettily decorated, the color scheme being pink and white. After the ceremony the guests were served to a bountiful supper. The many beautiful gifts testify to their large number of friends who wish them every success.

The groom's present to the bride was a cedar chest and to the bridesmaid an onyx ring.

The happy couple left on a motor trip through New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

DIBBLEE SHAW

The marriage took place at St Paul's church, Bloor St., Toronto, Wednesday afternoon, of Miss Irma Jean Helen Shaw, daughter of Mrs Howard Shaw, formerly of Hawkshaw and this city, and John Dibblee, son of the late William Dibblee, of Woodstock, N B. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, 152 Walmer Road, Toronto. The bride is a niece of LeBaron Bull, of Fredericton, and Mrs D Reid Bedell, of Andover, who is now the guest of her brother.—Gleaner.

A Safe Rule to Follow in Buying a Used Car

A fundamental rule of good business is to know what you are buying and from whom you are buying. This rule holds particularly true when it comes to buying a used car.

If there is one place more than another where you must place above everything else, the integrity and financial standing of the dealer and his unquestioned honor in living up to every promise made in selling you the car, it is on a used-car proposition.

A McLaughlin-Buick dealer values good will above everything else. He would never have been selected for a McLaughlin-Buick dealer in the first place if he didn't.

Therefore when you buy a used car from us you follow the fundamental business rule of knowing what you are buying and from whom you buy—You play safe
