Murderer to Asylum
Daniel E. McDonald, of Cape Breton, who killed his wife with an axe, in a most shocking manner, has by order of the crown been placed in an asylum for the rest of his natural life.

Religious Services
The Reformed Baptist choir held a service at the municipal home on Sunday. The services were conducted by Capt. Lowe of the Salvation Army and were much appreciated by the inmates.

Engagement
Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Cronkite, of Arthurette, N. B., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Jane, to Charles Joseph L'Anglais, of Amqui, Quebec, the marriage to take place at an early date.

Transferred
E. W. Jarvis, manager of the Bank of Montreal, will shortly leave for Chatham, Ont., where he will take charge of a branch of the bank. The new office is in the nature of a promotion—Chatham World.

A Clever Company
The clever young players who so successfully staged the comedy, Capt. Rackett, here, two nights, will appear at Hartland, Friday evening, 23rd inst. It will be an evening of solid enjoyment for all who attend.

Holiday July 3rd
We have been requested to make the following announcement: "The first of July falling on Saturday the stores will be open on that day for business as usual. Monday, July 3rd, will be observed as the holiday."

A Good Performance
Three hours of as good an entertainment as has ever been presented was staged at the Vogue on Thursday night when Capt. Rackett made his second appearance. In addition to the laughable comedy some new entertainers appeared who were thoroughly enjoyed. Their stunts were novel and put the finishing touches to a high class performance.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Partnerships Formed
Clarence F. Hayden, J. K. Hayden, and Willard Hayden all of Woodstock, millmen, have entered into partnership for the purpose of carrying on a general woodworking business. The firm name shall be The Hayden Woodworking Company.

Annual Picnic
The Catholic congregation of Lakeville, will hold their annual picnic at Lakeville on July 5th. There will be the usual sports and pastimes. Supper will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. If the weather is unfavorable the picnic will be held the first fine day following.

A Good Work
Workmen were busy a day last week in filling the holes worn in the tarria surfacing on Main street. The immense automobile traffic over this section is a severe test on the semi-permanent work and only by attending to any breaks can the street be kept in shape.

A New Rector
Rev. John Rees Jones, who was formerly in charge of the parish of Wilmot, Wicklow and Peel, and who for the last year has been acting as curate at Bristol, England, was recently inducted by Bishop Richardson as rector of Andover, succeeding Rev. J. R. Belyea, who was transferred to Petersville, Queen's county.

Reorganization Reported
The reorganization of St. John Standard under the name of The Journal Publishing Company, Limited, of St. John, is under way. Capitalization at $220,000 is intended and an independent viewpoint in politics. The Daily Journal is said to be the future name of the newspaper. Incorporation of the new company is expected shortly.

In the Front Rank
The Fort Fairfield Review already regarded with high favor, by its thousands of readers, has added to its prestige by installing a new White-Coll press. The Review is up in the front rank as a disseminator of news and current events as well as being abreast of the times in up-to-date equipment and modern printing appliances.

Appointment
I hereby appoint Hedley V. Moores of the Town of Woodstock in the County of Carleton a deputy sheriff in and for the said County of Carleton.

Witness my hand at Woodstock, N. B., this thirteenth day of June, 1921.

ALBION R. FOSTER
High Sheriff of the County of Carleton

The Court House Grounds
The building committee of the county council are to be congratulated on the very decided improvements made on the court house grounds. The work done in connection with the soldiers' monument and the placing of the big gun—a trophy of the war—is most creditable. The improvements were completed under the general supervision of Mr. Herb Holmes, who has also beautified the monument by an artistic arrangement of beautiful plants that will long retain their verdure.

Newspaper Editor Dead
Mr. J. H. Frogatt, proprietor of the Amherst Free Press passed away at his home on Friday following an illness of several months. Mr. Frogatt was a native of the old Country and had been a resident of Amherst for over thirty years. He was a short-hand writer and was also well up in music. He worked in the Amherst Press as a reporter and afterwards purchased the paper, which he improved and sold out at a good profit. He started the Amherst Free Press, during the last federal campaign.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions. All druggists. Circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.
