THE NINTH EDITION OF THE DESBARATS NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY

A fund of valuable information, for everyone interested in advertising, and in the Canadian Newspaper situation, will be found in the ninth Edition of the Desbarats Newspaper Directory 1922-23.

This is today the most up-to-date and the most complete encyclopedia of Canadian newspapers to be found, and reflects great credit on the publishers—The Desbarats Advertising Agency.

Among other useful information to be found in this book, is the name of every publication issued in Canada, by whom published, when established, the day of publication, political views, subscription price, size of page, average circulation, advertising rates, etc.

Besides, the book also contains official 1921 population figures and information about leading industries of all the leading cities and towns in Canada, the location of the latter, their natural resources, and a vast amount of other useful facts.

Every business man or executive will find the Desbarats Newspaper Directory a useful handbook and can have a copy for $1.00 by making application on his firm's letter head—to

SAVED HER FROM AN OPERATION

So Thinks Mrs. Tracey of Ontario, Regarding Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Knightsbridge, Ontario.—“I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at the change of life for troubles that women often have at that time. I had not been well for a year and was not really able to do my work. A friend who had taken the Vegetable Compound herself recommended it to me and I think its use saved me from an operation. I highly recommend it to all women who have troubles like mine, and am willing for you to use my testimonial.”—Mrs. DANIEL J. TRACEY, Knightsbridge, Ontario.

When disturbing symptoms first appear take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles.

others the price is $5.00. Address: The Desbarats Advertising Agency, 161 Beaver Hall Hill, Montreal.

OBITUARY

MRS. W. B. SAMPSON
Death came Sunday morning, Dec. 10th, as a release from protracted illness and suffering, borne with patience and fortitude, to Rubina Josephine, wife of Willard B. Sampson at their home in Calais.

She was born in St. John, N. B., in 1879, her parents being the late Clarence E. and Josephine (Riddell) Webber. Following the death of her mother, she came to Woodstock and made her home with her uncle, Mr. Fred H. Webber, and resided here until shortly before her marriage. An only sister, Gertrude, had also predeceased her. The late Henry Webber, collector of customs, of St. Stephen, was her grandfather.

In 1909 she became the wife of Willard B. Sampson, who survives with a son, Joseph, and daughter, Muriel, who have general sympathy in their deep affliction.

“Ruby,” as she was lovingly known, was a dear little womanly woman, a devoted wife and mother of exemplary life and character.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon conducted by Rev. Mr. Boardman, pastor of the Calais Baptist church, of which she had been a devout and worthy member. The pall bearers were Ralph Horton, Herbert McAdam, Walter L. Dixon and Roy Jacobs.

Mr. Fred H. Webber, her uncle, attended the funeral and arrived home Tuesday night.

MRS. JAMES PEARSON

The funeral of Mrs. James Pearson, whose sudden death came as a shock to the community, was held at her home in Upper Brighton, on Saturday afternoon. Deceased was 75 years of age and highly respected for her principles of right and christian character. She professed faith in Christ when only a young girl and maintained the same through life. She was a member of the Old Free Christian Baptist church of Upper Brighton, and will be greatly missed in the community where she spent all her life.

She was the wife of the late James Pearson, and daughter of the late John Bubar, and leaves to mourn one son, Joseph, with whom she lived, seven daughters, Mrs. Carey Rideout, Mrs. Minnie Cook, Mrs. Dan Blackie, Mrs. Christina Rideout, of Upper Brighton, Miss Joanna at home, Luelia of Perth and Edna of Sudbury, Ont., deaconess of St. Andrews Presbyterian church, also two brothers, Jas. Bubar of Upper Brighton and Stephen of St. Albans, Maine, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Nevers, of Rockland, and Mrs. Willard McIntyre of Upper Brighton.

Her passing was sudden and came as a great shock to the entire family who were all present at the funeral. Her remains were laid to rest beside her husband in the United Baptist cemetery.

Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones. The services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Mallory.

A Fascinating Gift—that charms through all the years

GLISTENING beneath the mellow touch of stately candles, catching the ruddy lights of rich mahogany, sparkling over the lacy patterns spread by snowy tea sets, fine silverware gives a charm to hospitality—it helps to entertain; it helps to make a home; it fascinates and charms through all the years.

Holmes & Edwards SILVER INLAID and SUPER-PLATE represent the highest achievement of the modern silversmith's craft. Wear cannot mar its wonderful lustre and finish for it is protected at those points usually marred by friction.

In SILVER INLAID, blocks of sterling silver are actually laid in with delicate care before plating. In SUPER-PLATE the protection consists of an extra heavy coat of sterling silver at the wear points.

See your nearest jeweller's display of Holmes & Edwards in the dignified Jamestown and the new Hostess Pattern. Ask him to show you our handsome table appointments—casseroles, pie plates, fruit and flower baskets—ideal gifts for Christmas. Insist on seeing the mark of Holmes & Edwards on the silverplate you choose.
