WEDDING

On August 9th, a very pretty wedding was soleminized at the home of Mr. and Mrs.David Bagley at Grafton, N. B., when their daughter Grace M. was united in marriage to Mr. Ezra F. Grant, of Lower Southamton.

The bride was given away dy her father. Miss Vera McFarlane acted as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by Garfield Gibson. The ceremony was perfomed by Rev.H. V. Bragdon, in the presence of invited guests. The bride was becommingly attired in dress of navy blue silk going away dress of navy with hat to match. The bride was the recipient of many gifts.

After the ceremony a sumptuous lunch was served, tables groaning under their loads of delicacies. The happy couple left immediately by auto for Mr. Grants old home, Southampton followed by the good wishes and blessings of their many friends.

A wedding took place in St. Ansgar's church, New Denmark, Victoria co., on Tuesday morning, the 22nd inst., when the rector of the parish, Rev. L. A Foyster and Miss Mirianne E. R. Shaw, lately arriveed from Ireland, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Canon Smithers, who was assisted in the ceremony, by Revs. J. Rees-Jones and A. J. Patstone. The bridegroom was supported by Rev. James Bennett, of Richmond, as best man, and little Misses. Hanson and Petersen were maids of honor to the bride. The church was beautifully decorated with flowes, and filled with an interested congregation. After the mariage ceremony a wedding breakfast was enjoyed at the rectory, after which the newly married couple left on an automobile trip. Mr. Foyster has done excellent work in New Denmark for several years past, and the respect in which he is held by his parishioners was ably shown, on the happy occasion of his marriage.

OBITUARY

ALICE GARRETY

Miss Alice Garrety for many years an employe of the Baird Company, but who has been ill with paralysis for two years, died on Thursday afternoon. Her services were highly valued by the Baird Company, and she had very many friends who will regret her death. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Stockford, Woodstock and Miss Eva Garrety at home: three brothers George, of North Devon, and Henry and John of Boston. George and John were present at the funeral.

The funeral on Saturday afternoon was in charge of the Salvation Army, and was largely attended. The pallbearers were Geo. Camber, John Sutton, Robert Carr and Roderick Finnamore.

Stale bread, sliced and spread with orange marmalade, is laid in layers in pudding dish. A custard mixture is poured over this, baked, topped with a meringue, and a delicious dessert is the result
