

Worth Its Price

"We have cheaper teas, madam, but I think you'll find 'KING COLE' is worth its price." So said a wise grocer recently to a questioning customer. He was there not merely to serve her, but to serve her well.

He might please her purse with the cheaper article but her final judgment of his service would be on the quality of the tea supplied. He wanted a satisfied customer.

This was one of the many merchants using "KING COLE TEA" in their own homes, and so he could say with sincerity: "It is worth the price."

"You'll Like the Flavor."

EXPLAINED

One sultry day I chanced to pause Beneath a welcome shade,
And there espied a lad and lass Were selling lemonade.

"How much?" I asked in merry mood.
"One cent sir," said the lass,
"Mine is two cents," the boy explained,
"Say, mister, buy a glass!"

I stepped wee samples from each pail,

And really found it true,
The drink that cost one cent a glass Surpassed that costing two.

I slipped the little girl a dime,
And quaffed her lemonade.
Then quaffed thrice more, declaring it The best drink ever made.

"Yet why," I asked, "charge half his price, When yours is twice as fine?" In quivering tones her answer was:
"A kitty fell in mine!"

MOTHER

Oh, mother, I am calling from the silence and the darkness, And I wonder if you'll hear me in your home across the sea.

Oh, mother, darling mother, how I wish that you were near me, With your arms around my shoulders and my head upon your knee.

For I'm dying, mother darling, and it's hard to die without you; So I'd like to hold your hand and hear your voice and see your eyes, And feel myself a child again and nestle close beside you, And say the prayers you taught me to the One above the skies.

There'd be many things to whisper—it's so long since I have seen you; And you'd gently draw me closer while I told about the fight.
Then, although your heart was breaking, you'd smile and say "My hero."

And, when you thought me near the end, you'd kiss your boy good night.
Am I selfish, mother darling, to be wanting you so badly?
But there's no one like you, mother, you're just all the world to me, And I'm not afraid of dying, but I'd face the Valley gladly, If I knew that you could hear me in your home across the sea.

I must leave you now, my darling, though I know that you'll be weeping,
But your boy has died for country, and the parting's for a day, Till we meet again, then, mother, I leave you to his keeping, And may His love enfold you, and His presence guard your way.

HELP FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Mrs. Holmberg Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Viking, Alta.—"From the time I was 15 years old I would get such sick feelings in the lower part of my abdomen, followed by cramps and vomiting. This kept me from my work (I help my parents on the farm) as I usually had to go to bed for the rest of the day. Or at times I would have to walk the floor. I suffered in this way until a friend induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had very satisfactory results so far and am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends. I surely am glad I tried it for I feel like a different person now that I don't have these troubles."

Letters like this establish the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills in this country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials prove this fact.

If you doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Cobourg, Ontario, for Mrs.
Pinkham's private text-book and learn more about it.

HAPPENINGS AT BATH

(Deferred)

John D. Fulton and family have removed to the Hayes house at the upper end of the village.

An accident occurred on Thursday to a car driven by Mr. Fletcher, which took a tail dive over the river bank, nearly opposite the Willow Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher escaped serious injury, and the car was not greatly damaged.

Miss Gertrude Commings and friend, Miss Ruby Smeaton, are making favorable progress after their share in the accident above Woodstock, reported last week. They received minor physical damages, painful but not serious.

Several meetings held this week to take up the matter of a local hospital aid society in connection with Carleton County Hospital. As a result, this society is now organized and working away. Miss Lister, R.
N., president, and Mrs. Stanley Mc-Donald, sec-treas.

It has been suggested that Bath badly needs a re-organized fire system, therefore on Tuesday the 30th inst. a public meeting will be held in the Farmers' Hall, at 8 p.m. sharp, to discuss the matter in all its relations to safety from the menace of fire, as far as that can be made possible. To elect volunteer members of an up to date fire brigade, and to suggest any necessary changes for the better, in the matter of equipment and fire alarm signal system.
All residents, whether owners or tenants, are expected to be present and take an active part in the proceedings. As women are vitally interested in the matter, they will please take a note of the date, and arrange to be present at the meeting, prepared to do their share in making the outcome successful. It is also proposed to take a final vote at this meeting for or against village incorporation, as it seems to be necessary for the better enforcement of fire regulations, and for other equally important matters in connection with town management.

The sisters of Carleton Temple, Bath, visited Rowena Temple, Woodstock, and the report is that a royal welcome was extended to the visitors, which was warmly appreciated, especially as Monday evening was atmospherically chilly.

While Woodstock may have a few knockers, it is our impression that the majority of the ladies there are boosters, and the best kind at that.
The report brought home has had an immediate effect on the knights here, who propose to visit Ivanhoe Lodge as soon as convenient, and sample its brand of hospitality.
While in town, our local contingent under hospital treatment were visited, and it was found that Mrs. F.
Giberson was much better after her recent operation, and Mrs. S. Gallagher is also slowly mending, and the same may be said of Mrs. Donohue.

The village reservoir after completion, developed a weak spot which could not stand the pressure, and collapsed; the water contained, went out with a rush but fortunately there was no great damage done, other than the damage to the reservoir.
An endeavor will be made to rebuild at once.

ed a number of her friends Monday

IT NEVER HAPPENED

A married couple had engaged a cook. She was as pretty as a picture, but her cooking was terrible, and one morning the bacon was burned to such a crisp as to be wholly inedible.

"Dear," said the wife to her husband, "I'm afraid the cook has burned the bacon. You'll have to be satisfied with a kiss for breakfast this morning."

"All right," responded the husband, gruffly, "Call her in."

Among the big yields of potatoes reported in this vicinity, that of Mr.
W. J. Page stands well up towards the highest rank. He had 900 barrels of certified stock from 28 barrels planting of seed, or a little over five acres of ground. On one piece, estimated at about 1/4 of an acre, he had 165 barrels. In spite of the big yield, the potatoes were all of marketable size, there being no little ones.

this barn is 120 feet long, 60 feet to the tip of the ear of the brass cow, surmounting the cupola. Several thousand people have visited this barn the past season from various parts of the U. S. and Canada. The residence of Mr. Nichols adjoining cost $32,000 and contains 33 rooms.

It is well worth the admission fee of McBride was the guest of J. Chesley Stevens, lately manager of the Stevens Bros. pharmacy at Centreville.

Order Books for Present Model Ford Closed Cars Will Close November 1st

Ford Motor Company
Automobile and Truck Manufacturers
FORD MOTOR COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED FORD, ONTARIO.

October 12th, 1923.

TO ALL CANADIAN FORD DEALERS

When this organization decided, September 20th, to bring out the Four-door Sedan and redesigned Coupe models, we had on hand approximately 6500 present type bodies.

To ascertain how the buying public would react on Ford car prices heretofore unprecedented, we reduced each closed model $100. in price—the Coupe to $2750, the Sedan to $2850, both F.O.B. Ford, Ontario (Government Taxes extra).

The response has been such that we have on hand now only 696 of these models to dispose of. This demand is evidence that the public appreciates value, and we take this opportunity of thanking you, and through you, the public in appreciation of their action.

In view of our appreciation, and in order that you may play entirely fair with the Ford buying public, we think it advisable to inform you that at the present rate it is a matter of days before all these jobs will be completely disposed of to dealers. In any event, we will not be able to sustain orders from dealers on or after November 1st. On that date we will close our books. We reserve the right to do this earlier, if necessary.

If you have any orders you wish to deliver to the public after November 1st, it will be necessary for you to place them with us before November 1st.

All orders should, therefore, be taken by you with no obligation to deliver except as prior orders permit.

We must protect ourselves in the same way—we can deliver your orders placed with us only as prior orders permit and as long as the above number of cars last.

Yours very truly,
FORD MOTOR COMPANY OF CANADA, Limited,
H. H. White
Sales Manager.

EST-15

The information in this letter should be known to every prospective Ford buyer. It opens up an opportunity for the family without a closed car to get one at prices which will probably not be as low again.

This is an opportunity for the man with a large car to relieve the larger car and decrease its depreciation, especially during the coming winter months.
