Four months more and the most quitters will be here.

Our idea of the happy man is the fellow who has his automobile number plates for 1924.

Letting in the light is always salutary. It is one of the best correctives in the world.

It has come to about this pass that any city or town is about as wet or just as dry as the prohibition authorities want it to be.

The Providence Journal says that a welfare report says that a family of five can live on $9.50 a week, and then asks: "A family of what?" Certainly not human beings.

Owing to the snow and ice the feathered birds would fare badly if it were not for Chief Kelly whom they now recognize as their best friend. His kindly interest furnishes food that keeps them from starving.

The Editor of the Times complains because the law will not permit him to shoot skunks. Better leave them alone, brother. If treated respectfully they are really inoffensive little animals. But a wounded skunk—phew!

At the town council—Mayor Brown "How much does a meter cost?" Town Manager Rutledge—"From six hundred to fifteen hundred dollars."

Coun. Page—"I move we buy a meter." Carried.

AND THE PEOPLE PAY.

Fear has been expressed that with the general use of the automobile, the human race may lose the capacity for walking. But as long as the snow continues to fall to the depth of several feet each winter there is no danger of such a calamity befalling the people of this district.

The Winchester Press suggests that the first step towards reduction of public expenditure at Ottawa be a cut in the sessional indemnity for members of Parliament from $4,000 to $2,000. If this self denying ordinance should be pressed it will probably result in a marked cooling off of the new-born zeal for economy.

Mrs Herbert Hay was the hostess at a drawing-room tea, at her residence on Saturday afternoon. The handsome room was adorned with pink and white carnations and ferns. Mrs Hay wore a gown of black lace and silk. She was assisted in serving by Mrs Geo E Balmain, Miss Isabel Watts, Miss Louise Prescott, and the Misses Jean and Pauline Hay. The guests included Mesdames George Lutz, Percy Rigby, A G Bailey, Robert Hay, Daniel Stewart, John McLauchlan, J A Lindsay, Frank Currie, I B Merriman, R E Holyoke, A Ogilvie, J T Cavers, Wallace Smith, Wm Balmain, T W Baker, J A F Garden, George Mitchell, F O Creighton, C J Durling, Alfred Page, L H Reed, Burdette Harmon, A Gordon Bailey, Nash Smith, G W Gibson, Wallace Gibson, Wilfred Broadfoot, Donald Hay, A C Shaw, Godfrey Newnam and Miss Helen Smith.

Everything in the show is entirely new, nothing being used from any former production. Our ever welcome friend, "Red" Newman is going stronger than ever and is featuring Albert Chevaliers' famous number "Knocked 'Em in the Old Kent Road" together with "The Stoker" and a half dozen other sure fire hits making the finest collection of musical numbers he has ever offered us.

Jock Holland, the chic 'Leading Lady' has a wonderful wardrobe with some of his costumes costing several hundred dollars each. His new musical numbers are particularly noteworthy and he spent last summer in London and Paris picking out the best he could find in the way of songs, costumes, wigs, etc. One of the big novelties in "Rapid Fire" is the introduction for the first time in Canada, of a beautiful Jewelled Curtain imported from Paris. It is used with varied colored lights and contains hundreds of thousands of small brilliant stones. Leonard Young the original "Duchess" is back with the Company as Managing Director this season and has turned out a marvellous show. The has been away from this Company for over a year, directing the Montreal Community Players. A new 'Discovery' and extremely popular member of the Company this season, is Gene Pearson who is said to possess the finest soprano voice of any female impersonator before the public. After returning from overseas he went into vaudeville and created a sensation. A leading critic said he had the most extraordinary voice of any impersonator ever heard before the Montreal public.

There are twenty-five brilliant new numbers comprising everything from Jazz to Light Opera, and the program includes the finest concerted work ever offered by this famous company. Jimmie Goode, with his original line of Darkey humor is funnier than he was in "Full O'Pep."
