Myth--Bacchus became enamored of a mortal, Amethyst, as she was on her way to worship at the shrine of Diana. He pursued her and as he was about to capture her, Diana turned her into a pure white stone, Bacchus repenting his boldness poured wine as a libation over the petrified maiden, giving to the stone the deep violet hue that is like the wine itself.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR NEW STORY

I. O. D. E. Announced Conditions of Literary Competition.

In order to encourage Canadian literature, the I O D E again offers two prizes, the first of the value of $200 for the best short story, the second of the value of $100 for the best one-act play. The conditions under which they will be awarded this year from those announced in 1923.

The short story must not have been published before being submitted in this competition; it must not contain less than two thousand words nor more than six thousand words and must be typewritten on paper of letter size (8 1/2 by 11 inches) on one side of the paper only. It must be sent flat, not folded or rolled, have the author's name on the title page, be registered and mailed to the National Educational Secretary, I O D E 238 Bloor Street East, Toronto.

A sealed envelope with the name-plume printed or written clearly upon it and the author's name within must accompany the manuscript. The manuscript must be submitted on or before March 15. No manuscripts will be returned. The prize will not be awarded twice to the same person. No competitor may submit more than one manuscript a year for each prize.

The writer must be a British subject, resident in Canada. The copyright of the story adjudged the best is to be vested in the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire with power to arrange for its publication in magazine or in book form or in both.

Conditions of the play require that it be a one-act play. Its presentation on the stage should not occupy not less than twenty minutes nor more than thirty minutes.

It must not have been published before being submitted in this competition. Conditions of writing, judging, citizenship and preparation for the short story apply also for the play.

The judges will take into consideration the special merits both of the story and play as a reflection of Canadian life and sentiment.

Know How

In addition to other big crops, four enterprising farmers in Jacksonville, this season, threshed two thousand bushels of oats each. These thrifty farmers are: Howard Palmer, Edward Ludgate, William Gibson and Harley Hannah.

STARTLING STATE OF AFFAIRS IN WATER SITUATION

All Pumps Out of Commission--Hurried Effort for Steam Connection--Steam Fire Engine in Readiness for Emergency--Citizens Paying Big Price for "Expert" Advice--Some Pertinent Questions--Present Ruinous Cost of Operation--Official Action May be Taken by Underwriters.

To the Sentinel:

The partisan gentlemen (and there are only a very small number of them) in their present attempt to hold up the citizens of the town of Woodstock, the Woodstock Electric Light and Power Company, and the Carleton Electric Company, do not give the average citizen credit for even a moderate amount of brains. It would be well for these radical and foolish agitators to remember that when they start out to rule they will find certain established opinions developed, because of inborn traits of human nature, and they cannot do just as they please. This bunch of wreckers that attempt to crush legitimate business will not get far. The time has come to call a halt on this outfit who are traducing honest men and embarrassing progress by baiting traps with the dirtiest, smallest and meanest tactics that men (or things) ever stooped to. There must be something malignant about a group of persons who are whispering innuendoes about their fellow citizens, and trying to work injury. These gum shoe sneaks that will cast suspicion on well meaning people of the town are of a class that we cannot with propriety put into words. But every red-blooded man can supply the words for himself.

To acquaint the citizens of the town of Woodstock of some features of the real state of affairs as created by this "inside clique" let it be known that on Friday and Saturday, the 22nd and 23rd inst, every facility for supplying the town with water was in a state of utter uselessness. A big fire at this time would probably have caused a loss of life and property that would have been appalling. Why was this situation created? Why were the pumps out of commission and the sole dependence on the steam plant--if it would work? It was because of a few "rule or ruin" officials, with an outside "advisor." Is it not time these matters were brought to a head? What kind of a Mayor and Council have we that a condition of this nature can exist?

Is the town council composed of one member or six?
Will Coun. Page, Chairman of the Water and Light Committee answer some of the following questions--if he has not adopted Coun. Creighton's attitude and stopped figuring costs.
Do the town electric pumps consume 700 Kilowatts of electric energy per day?

Does this energy cost .03 1/2 per kilowatt?
Does this make a cost of $24.50 per day for the electric pump?
Does the gasoline pump use 280 quarts of gasoline per day?
Does this gasoline cost 32 1/2 per gallon?
Does the gasoline engine use 20 quarts of lubricating oil per day?
Does this oil cost 75c per gallon?
In addition to the gasoline pump do you have to use one electric pump at a cost of $5.60 per day?
Does the total cost of pumping, with your gasoline pump, total $32.10, as against $24.50 per day for pumping by electricity?
Does this show a loss or saving to the ratepayers?

How much, per operating day, have the repairs to the gasoline engine cost, including spark plugs, since this rule or ruin policy was adopted?
Is it true that this gasoline engine is out of commission and that you have been advised that it will cost $500 for repairs?

Is it true that the electric motor was also out of commission and due to your negligence the gasoline auxiliary could not be used in the emergency?

Now, Coun. Page, answer these questions at the next council meeting and do not be influenced or made a tool of by irresponsible interests. You are a citizen highly respected and every confidence is felt in your OWN good judgment.

The situation in Woodstock today is desperate and it is about time that responsible citizens get alive to a condition that would not be tolerated in any other community.

PROTECTION
THE QUEEN OF THEM ALL
Miss Woodstock Will Be Chosen March 6th.

A grand carnival will be held at the rink on the 6th of March at which the following prizes will be awarded:
Ladies' fancy costume.
Gents' fancy costume.
Boys' fancy costume.
Girls' fancy costume.
Ladies, gents, boys and girls comic character.

One for most original character.
A vote will be taken to decide who is Woodstock's Queen. The ballots will be counted and a committee of judges will make a final decision.
This will be the big event of the season and will undoubtedly attract a large crowd. Everybody should attend and cast a vote for Miss Woodstock.

NOTICE
To the Ratepayers of the parish of Woodstock:
In accordance with a resolution passed at the last session of the County Council, I have been instructed to collect by process of law all the dog taxes due for 1923, and have been furnished with a complete list of the owners or harborers of dogs in the parish, which list I am to hand to a magistrate for collection ten days after the publication of this notice. Pay before that time and save costs.

A PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT

Large Audiences Greet Young Performers--Special Numbers Meet With Favor.

An audience that taxed the seating capacity of the Capitol Theatre had the pleasure on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of enjoying the most excellent entertainments given here in many a day. In addition to the drama given there was a varied program that could not help but appeal to everyone in the audience. Many of the numbers were applauded several minutes and each performer could be classed as an artist. One number that deserves special mention was the Bunny dance, by little Mary Daniel. Appropriately gowned for the part, this little entertainer put over her number in manner that would have done credit to a much older performer. The specialties by Mary McGibbon, Theckla and Teresa Fewer, Marjorie Drysdale, Arthur Sprague, John Manzer, Glen Ogilvie, Leharon Storm and Basil Dunphy furnished one of the features of the evening.

The appropriate costumes and the difficult dance steps made a big hit with the audience and brought hearty applause.

The entertainments were arranged and directed by Mr. Sherlock, who, with those taking part, and all who assisted spent much time to make the affair a marked success.

The following is the cast that so successfully put on "Nothing But the Truth." Each member put over some stunts that drew many laughs and were very much enjoyed:

E M Ralston--Mr R L Daniel
Dick Donnelly--Mr W R Manzer
Clarence Vandusen--Mr D W Wal-lace.

Bob Bennett--Mr Charles J Jones.
Bishop Doren--Mr H F Seeley
Mrs E M Ralston--Mrs D W Wal-lace.

Gwen Ralston--Miss Rowena Ketchum.

Ethel Clark--Mrs B Nash Smith.
Mabel Jackson--Miss Audrey Jones.
Sabel Jackson--Miss Muriel New-ham.

Martha--Miss Doris King.

DEATH OF MISS GERTRUDE

RAYMOND BRINGS SORROW

The town was shocked and saddened when on Sunday the announcement came of the death of Miss Gertrude Raymond, who on Friday was taken for treatment to Fisher Memorial Hospital. She had been ill for three weeks and the operation which she underwent revealed a complication of internal disorders which in any case would have proved fatal in a few days. Miss Raymond was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Raymond of Middle Simonds, and besides her parents, is survived by a brother, Paul, and one sister, Helen.

During the last few years she had spent most of her time at the home of her uncle, H H Hatfield at Hartland, and here she had a host of friends. The remains were brought to Hartland on the express on Monday and the funeral was held at H. H. Hatfield's residence Tuesday afternoon.

The remains were laid to rest in the family lot at Middle Simonds. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. R. W. McCaul, and Rev. J. A. Woodworth, Rev. J. K. King and Rev. E. W. Lester assisted. Miss Raymond was 29 years of age.

The pallbearers were H D Keswick, W D McLeod, Allen Cummings, Geo. Orser.

The floral tributes included: Pillow, The Family.

Wreaths--Mr and Mrs H Hatfield, Hatfield & Co. office staff--L M Reid R B Hagerman, Beatrice Tompkins, H J Aiton, Margaret Hopper, Gordon McBurney, Mabel Morgan; Mr and Mrs W R Hatfield & Son; Gilbert Hatfield.

Crescents, Hatfield & Co warehouse staff--H D Keswick, Chas Stevens, Allen, Levi Clark, A M Shaw, Herschel Lily, George Orser; Laura Boone.

Sprays, Mr and Mrs Paul Raymond Mr and Mrs O I Clark, Helen B Winer, Della Boone, Minnie McGee, Jennie Poyer, Mr and Mrs Raymond Ted He, Mr and Mrs Clifford Everett and Ora, Mr and Mrs Howard Adams, Mr and Mrs Arthur Everett, World Wide Guild, Mrs R Hall, Martha MacCol-lum, and Sadie Curry, Mr and Mrs Wm McLeod and family, Hartland Electric Co.--Hartland Observer.

Interesting notes from Bath will appear next week.
