And All Shivered

Flowers, blossoms, butterflies etc., all retired from the centre of the stage Monday night, when old King Winter arrived after being detained by summer breezes for many weeks. He brought biting winds and every requisite necessary for a successful season. The thermometer registered 25 below at several points and long stories of hydro and oil were not in evidence except around the fireside, banked high with fuel.

A Valuable Prize

The Ladies Auxiliary, G W V A, will soon give to the holder of the lucky ticket, the beautiful Hope Chest that is now being prepared. This serviceable article is made of the finest cedar and already contains many articles of great value and of the finest material and expert needlework. Mrs McLeod says:—"Some years ago I became run down and grew so nervous that my life was a burden to myself and all around me.
