CAR OVER BANK

Hartland, Carleton Co., May 15—
The first car accident in this vicinity this season happened this afternoon at Coldstream when, an automobile, driven by T. J. MacDonald, Hartland, went over a steep bank, damaging the car and injuring one of the driver's sons about the head. MacDonald and his other son escaped with a severe shaking up. The car turned over once and partly over a second time.

HOUSES DESTROYED

Hartland, Carleton Co., May 13—Two houses in this vicinity were destroyed by fire recently. Burnham Nevers, of Rockland, lost his house and barn, with a quantity of hay and grain, and Herbert Treacart, of Avondale, lost his home, the fire breaking out in a bedroom. Most of the furniture on the first floor was saved, and the fire was prevented from spreading to the barn.

HARTLAND DEBATE

Hartland, Carleton Co., May 15—A team from Plaster Rock High School defeated a team from Hartland High in a largely attended debate held in the assembly hall of the school here Friday. The subject was, "Resolved that more and greater progress has been made during the nineteenth century than in the sixteenth century." The affirmative was upheld by the Plaster Rock team consisting of Helen Smith, Emmie Briggs and Dorothy Hisecock. Hartland had Harold Day, Robert Keswick and E. Nixon as speakers. The visitors were entertained after the debate at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Keswick by Mrs. Keswick, Mrs. Effie Nixon and E. H. Wiley, principal of the school here.

LINDSAY W. I.

Lindsay, N. B., May 14—The Lindsay Women's Institute met Thursday evening at the home of the vice-president, Mrs. Roy Briggs, who in the absence of the president, Mrs.
Karl McLellan, was in the chair.

The meeting opened in the usual manner, ten members answered roll call with a current event.

The regular order of business was carried out.
The money realized by the Lindsay Dramatic Club, from the presentation of the play, "Beads on a String" at Debec, April 29th, was accepted, also a quilt top from Mrs. J. E. Flemming.

Miss Freda Barrett, convener of Canadianization and National Events, read a paper, prepared by herself, on the subject of which she is convener.

Miss Marjorie McLellan recited "My Country's Flag".

Among the visitors present was Miss Alma E. Weldon, superintendent, who addressed the meeting on "Legislation" followed by a contest
"Wellknown Personages".

Meeting closed with Salutation of the Flag and National Anthem.

Refreshments were served by Mrs.
R. S. Briggs, Mrs. H. L. Thomas and Mrs. D. M. MacBride.

OBITUARY

HERBERT SEWELL

Hartland, Carleton Co., May 13—Herbert Sewell, farmer, of Rosedale, dropped dead yesterday while walking across a field to his home. Sewell had been to Hartland during the afternoon, making arrangement for fertilizer, and on the way home had stopped at a neighbors, with whom he had come to town.

Two men in a field some distance from Sewell saw him fall and rushed to his assistance, but he was dead when they reached him.

Dr. L. DeC. MacIntosh, Hartland, was called and decided death was due to a heart attack. He had had heart trouble for the last three years.

Dr. W. O. Chestnut, Hartland, coroner, who was summoned, said an inquest was unnecessary.

Sewell came to Rosedale about 20 years ago from Carlisle. He leaves a wife and seven children.

LEVI BEECHER HAYNES

Mr. Levi Beecher Haynes fell asleep in death after a short illness.
His home has always been on the farm where he was born sixty-six years ago. His parents were Robert and Elizabeth Haynes.

In 1907 he married Helen Marcey who lived only one year. In 1911 he married Miss Jennie Hay. To them was born four sons; Gordon, Corliss, Herman and Harold, all at home. Besides these he leaves two sisters Mrs.
Benj. Wilson of Lower Woodstock, and Mrs. Emma Beaman of Stewart, B. C., also one brother Ernest, who still lives near the old homestead.

Converted in early youth he united with the Advent Christian Church in Woodstock and has maintained a Christian character—a devoted follower of his coming Lord; and left a testimony of his faith in Him who is the resurrection and the life.

Service was held at his home, conducted by his pastor, Rev. Ernest Thompson, Rev. Arthur Baker of Island Falls, Maine, also Mrs. C. D.
Dickenson for many years a friend of the family, who gave a brief message from Rev. 14.13. A quartet from the Advent choir sang familiar hymns at the house and grave. He was laid to

HARTLAND

The official board of the Hartland and Northampton United Church were entertained at supper in the vestry of the church on Monday evening by the W. M. S.
Later a business meeting was held, after which they were entertained by the Young People's League with an excellent set of slides and lecture on "The Heritage of the United Church." Mr. Leonard Rock of Saint John, Maritime Manager of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. made a call at Hartland recently during a tour through Carleton and Victoria Counties.

at Presque Isle on a business trip here, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs.
Spurge Tompkins on Monday.
Friends of Postmaster E. W. Las-key will be delighted to know that he has returned from the Fisher Memorial Hospital, Woodstock where he has been for several weeks. He underwent two serious operations but is now rapidly convalescing.

Mrs. Fred Smith has recently suffered two very critical attacks of heart trouble. The latest report states that she is slowly improving.
Mrs. Leslie Kinnear and son Douglas, of Saint John has taken rooms for the summer at Billings Hotel.

Miss Stephenson of the teaching staff was recently called to her home in Margerville on account of the illness of her father. Miss Helen Jones of Woodstock is taking the classes during her absence.

Miss Irene Barter arrived home last week from Fredericton where she had been attending U. N. B. The School Board secured her services for grades seven and eight to fill the vacancy on the staff made by the death of George Anderson.

Miss Alice Keswick who is teaching at Perth spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harris Keswick.
