PRESCRIPTION DRUGGISTS
WOODSTOCK, N. B.

to convey to you the emotions of regret and sorrow that we your neighbors and members of the Grafton Sunday School feel at the departure of you and your family from this community where you have lived for so many years. We are met here tonight to express to you and your wife our appreciation of your long and faithful service as Superintendent of our Sunday school, we have ever found you to be a promoter of the highest ideals and always willing to give of your time and talents.

We sincerely regret the departure of your family from Grafton but rejoice in the thought that you will not be so far away, but that we can still hope to see your cheerful smile and have your encouragement to help us carry on.

We hope that you will be wonderfully blessed and strengthened to enjoy the privileges and opportunities of your church life in town.

We ask you to accept this little gift as a token of our love and esteem, and in the days to come, when the rays of its light cast shadows over your thoughts, may your reveries bring before you, the friends of Grafton, who by us token desire to retain a place in your memory.

Signed,

AT THE CAPITOL

Woodstock yesterday for a four day engagement at the CAPITOL, closing Saturday, 15th.

Their ability and versatility as musical performers will leave no doubt in the minds of their listeners and the united opinion of all will be "It's a swell show." Each member of this family is a talented performer in his or her own right and will give a programme of rare musical excellence.

The character of music they provide is delightfully refreshing, and there is none of that blatant jazz in any of their presentations which is one outstanding feature of the performance.

With remarkable preciseness and dexterity they play numbers on every conceivable type of instrument, included in the layout will be Swiss handbells, xylophones, musical tyre, cornets, sousaphone and drums, the latter being handled by the nine year old member of the group.

George Lawrence eldest member of the family is musical director, and knows "his music" his trumpet solo "Carnival Of Venice" being enthusiastically received everywhere.

The musical numbers are interspersed with singing, dancing and comedy dialogue, but it is the instrumental work that constitutes the backbone and peculiar charm of the whole arrangement.

Also on the program on Friday and Saturday is Jackie Cooper in "The Lone Cowboy" and serial. The Lawrence family will give a complete change of programme with the change of pictures.

APPEAL COURT IS

Dougherty, Fredericton, for the Crown, supported an appeal against a verdict of acquittal at Andover before Judge M. L. Hayward, of the Victoria County court, and a jury on June 29. Rasmussen was charged on two counts—breaking into and entering and stealing from George E. Armstrong's garage at Perth, while armed, on May 22, and carrying in a motor vehicle on May 23 firearms without a permit. A third count, that of setting fire to the garage while armed, did not go to the petit jury at that trial.

Considerable time was spent today in argument concerning Mr. Dougherty's effort to add a further ground to his notice of appeal, namely that the trial was abortive and was a mistrial, by reason of the fact that James McLaughlin, jury foreman, was related to Rasmussen and exercised undue influence over the rest of the jury. While it was admitted by opposing counsel that McLaughlin was so related, strenuous objection was met with from them and from the court when Mr. Dougherty attempted to read affidavits of jurymen on what had taken place among members of the jury while in the jury room. Dougherty submitted error and misdirection on the part of the trial judge also.

W. P. Jones, K. C., argued contra, having associated with him Stephen G. Mooney, Andover, Mr. Dougherty, appearing for W. J. West, Fredericton, was granted further extension of time to appeal and to file factums for the defendants in a land trespass case, that of Samuel Frenette vs.

Vernon Taylor, C. T. Richard, M. L. A., Bathurst, opposing counsel, had no objection.

A case on the present docket, that of George McPhail vs. J. Norman W. Winslow, with opposing counsel agreeing, was "struck" off the docket and re-entered for the next court, J. B. McNair, Fredericton, made the application, stating that J. F. H. Teed, K. C., Saint John, was desirous of having the case set over. Mr. McNair, for the defendant, will support an appeal from an order by Judge Hayward, of the Carleton County court, in an examination of the defendant after judgment.

PAVING EXPECTED TO BE

The Public Works Department crusher, which has been in use at Grand Falls, has now been moved to East Florenceville and set up on the James McIsaac's farm near the station. Some resurfacing will be done there, although its extent or whether the work will be done this fall is not yet known.

Reconstruction of the north end of the main street in Hartland, part of No. 2 highway, is now being done. Town employees are doing the work under the supervision of the Public Works department.
