SENTENCED TO JAIL

Mrs. Florence Carrol, of Grafton, appeared before Magistrate Augherton in the Woodstock police court Thursday afternoon, charged with allowing drunkenness on her premises. She pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or spend thirty days in the county jail. She went to jail in default of payment.

SPECIAL DANCE

The Senators Basketball Team are bringing to Woodstock one of the best dance orchestras in Canada, namely: "AL COOPER AND HIS BAND and ENTERTAINER" from Toronto, Ont., who will play for the Senators's dance to be held in the Woodstock Armories on Friday, October 4th, dancing from 9 to 1. The Boys are charging a very low price for this special attraction in order that you may all well afford to attend. Gentlemen's admission is 50c. and Ladies 25c.

"Al Cooper" has with his Band young Eddie Allen, who is Canada's present Musical Sensation.

Don't miss this chance to dance or hear one of Canada's Leading Dance Orchestras.

There will be ample seating room for spectators.

HOUSE DESTROYED

The house and barn of Robert Bustard, Debec, were destroyed early Thursday morning by fire believed to have been caused by lightning. Most of the furniture was saved from the house, but two horses and a pig in the barn perished.

WEDDING

TITUS—JACKSON

Miss Maybell Margaret Jackson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jackson, St. Martins, was united in marriage to James Gordon Titus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Titus, Andover, by Rev. William Swan, in the United church, St. Martins, on Saturday. About 150 friends and relatives were present.

The bride was becomingly attired in marine blue chiffon velvet of dinner gown length with caterpillar sleeves and rhinestone trimmings, with matching velvet hat and accessories to correspond, and carried pink roses and gypsophila. She was given in marriage by her father. Miss Jennie Smith was bridesmaid and wore ruby tone chiffon velvet with silver trimmings, and matching velvet hat, and carried yellow roses with bluebells and gypsophila. The groom was supported by his brother, Fred Titus. The ushers were Allan Flemmington and Eldon Jackson. The church was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and fall flowers.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. In the diningroom, the bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, with miniature bride and groom, pink tapers in silver candlesticks and large silver bowls of sweetpeas and pink and white streamers with a white bell in the centre. Assisting in serving were Miss Florence Jackson, Mrs. Cecil Jackson, Mrs. Eldon Jackson, and Mrs. Fedley Jackson. Thirty-five guests were present.
