TO BE USED BY GUESTS

Montreal, May 27—A large consignment of Western Horses from Prince Albert, Saskatchewan passed through the C. P. R. stock yards in Montreal today, on their way to Chamcook, New Brunswick, where they will be used this summer by the guests at a new Holiday Camp and Guest Ranch. The horses were inspected by Mr. Jack Fyon, the well known Montreal horse-man, who said they were the finest bunch of Riding Horses he had seen for some time. Included in the cars were two very small Shetland Ponies.

The President of this new Camp, which is close to the fashionable seaside resort of St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, is Major Hugh A. Green, who was widely known during the Great War as the "Fishmonger General".
